

CHRISTOPHER B. DAVIS
Assistant Professor of History
Sul Ross State University – Rio Grande College
205 Wildcat Drive, Del Rio, Texas 78840
830.703.4845
christopher.davis@sulross.edu

Last Updated: October 2016

EDUCATION

Ph.D., History, Rice University, 2013
M.A., History, Rice University, 2009
M.A., History, University of Alabama at Birmingham, 2006
B.A., History, Samford University, 2004, with honors

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Assistant Professor of History, Sul Ross State University – Rio Grande College, 2015-present
Adjunct Professor of History, Samford University, 2010
University Entrance Essay Evaluator, Rice University, 2007, 2008, 2010
Editorial Assistant, Journal of Southern History, 2007
Research Assistant, Rice University, 2006-2008
Teaching Assistant, University of Alabama at Birmingham, 2004-2005

TRAINING AND CERTIFICATION

- Teagle Workshop, 2015
 - Multi-day experience working with specialists in assessing and tracking student learning as well as developing a plan for implementing assessment in graduate courses
- Pedagogy Seminar, 2008
 - Explored the theory, style, and practical considerations of teaching

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Southern Historical Association

PUBLICATIONS

- In Progress: Changing Missions: U.S. Christian Missions Work After World War II and the Development of Minority Outreach (monograph project)
- In Progress: “Working Together for a Common Good: Latino and White Interaction in DeKalb County, 1950-1970.” – (article project based on a presentation)
- In Progress: “The 1899 Hurricane, San Ciriaco, and the Relief Work of the United States Military Government in Puerto Rico” – (article project based on a presentation)
- “Charles I and the Divine Right of Kings.” The Vulcan Historical Review 9, (2005): 51-62.
- In Progress: Roy Wilkins: The Quite Revolutionary and the NAACP – for The Alabama Review

RESEARCH AND PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS

- 2015 – Florida Historical Society

- “Prolific Oranges, Sexualized Strawberries, and Orderly Gardens: Fruit and the Ecological Landscape of Florida and the Colonial South”
- 2015 – Alabama Historical Association
 - “Working Together for a Common Good: Latino and White Interaction in DeKalb County, 1950-1970.”
- 2009 – Mid-America Conference on History
 - “The 1899 Hurricane, San Ciriaco, and The Relief Work of the United States Military Government in Puerto Rico”

OTHER AFFILIATIONS AND INVOLVEMENT

Online Distance Education Committee, 2016-Present

Budget Advisory Committee, 2016-Present

Instructional Technology Advisory Committee, 2016-Present

Library Advisory Committee, 2015-Present

Hiring committee member for a Spanish professor, 2015

Hiring committee member for a graduate student coordinator, 2015