Text: Criminal Justice Today: An Introductory Text for the 21st Century 11th edition
Author: Frank Schmalleger

Expectations:

Students are expected to participate in class discussions. The only way to insure involvement is to read the text. We will have a quiz after each chapter.

Grading: There will be 2 exams throughout the semester, with questions drawn from the readings and the supplemental materials posted by the professor. These 2 exams will be worth 20% each. There will be no makeup exams or quizzes. 25% of the total grade will be based on quizzes for each chapter. 25% of the total grade will be based on assignments. Remaining 10% will be based on Class participation.

Chapter Test 25%
Assignments 25%
Midterm exam 20%
Final exam 20%
Class participation 10%

Quizzes: There will be a quiz for every chapter. Quizzes will be True/False, multiple choice. There will be no makeup exams or quizzes.

Exams: There will be two exams, one mid-term and a final.

Assignments: There will be assignments for each chapter. Attached is a schedule of assignments, which must be turned in /submitted by the due date set. Due date will be announced in class.

Grammar and spelling will be graded. Develop a well thought out answer, these are short answer/essay questions, make sure you treat them as such.

I prefer that you type your answers. If you handwrite your responses make sure I can read your handwriting. If I cannot read it I will not grade your work.

Note for distance education: If you do not see the assignment for that week it means you waited past the due date and it is no longer available.*

Class Participation:

Students are encouraged to ask questions and express opinions, however, talking among students and disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. You may bring beverages to class with you, but not food. Reading outside materials such as newspapers or other course work is not permitted during class time. Students should be prepared to engage in discussion over the assigned readings, and for possible pop quizzes.

Cheating and Plagiarism: Students are expected to do their own work on all tests and papers. Cheating on tests and plagiarism on assignments will result in a grade of “F” on that part of the course, a possible grade of “F” for the entire course, and possible recommendation for suspension from the university.

Plagiarism consists of presenting the work of another as one's own (i.e., without proper acknowledgment of the source) and submitting examinations or other work in whole or in part as one's own when such work has been prepared by another person or copied from another person (see the Student Handbook).

Important!

See your instructor promptly if you are having problems with your course work or are in need of special assistance.

Attendance:

The Department of Criminal Justice feels very strongly that class attendance is a direct predictor of student classroom success. Therefore, the faculty of the CJ department as a group will enforce the following student attendance policy. This policy does not supersede the SRSU policy on student attendance; it simply reinforces those stated goals. Criminal justice faculty will take class attendance. In accordance with current SRSU policy (Catalog page 69-70), when a student misses a total of 9 hours of class, the presumption is that the student will be dropped from that class with an “F”. Students who violate the SRSU attendance policy may also find that they are ineligible for any extra credit or any discretionary grading curve applied to any or all exams for that course/semester. It should also be noted that it is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor prior to any University event that would cause an absence. Failure of the student to inform the instructor will result in that absence being recorded as unexcused. Attendance is important! Attendance demonstrates maturity, responsibility and a serious attitude toward education. Many times students wish letters of recommendation from their instructors. Prospective employers or graduate programs are all interested in a student's class attendance record. Additionally, instructors seldom teach only from the book. Missing a class (even an excused absence) will put you at a disadvantage for all of the materials covered when you were absent such as films, presentations, and guest lectures which cannot be made up.

Attendance will be taken daily and absences cannot be made up. Students should be in class on time and should be prepared to stay for the entire class period. Students who are late will not be counted as attending if attendance has already been taken.

Turn off all cell phones, headphones/I-pods etc...

Any student needing special assistance on any aspect of the class needs to see the instructor immediately.

Qualified students with disabilities needing academic or other accommodations to ensure full participation in the programs, services and activities at Sul Ross State University should contact the Disability Services Coordinator, in Counseling and Prevention Services, Ferguson Hall 112, Box C-117, (837-8203).

Remember this is a tentative schedule/plan for class; the Professor reserves the right to change whatever she feels is necessary.
