Course description

This course will familiarize students with the issues surrounding concepts of crime, criminals, crime typologies, and societal responses to crime. Students will examine the theoretical, methodological, and policy issues in criminology and criminal justice.

Course objectives

On successful completion of this course, you will be able to:

1. Examine the historical evolution of criminological theory;
2. Recognize the basic concepts associated with criminological theory;
3. Recognize and examine the advantages and disadvantages of the major sources of data on crime trends and patterns collected by the Bureau of Justice Statistics and Office of Justice Programs, and the National Criminal Justice Reference Service;
4. Assess the empirical status of the five major criminological theories (Classical, Rational Choice, or Deterrence; Positivist, Strain, Social and Self-Control, and Social Learning);
5. Examine theoretical developments in criminology including Critical Criminology, Feminist Criminology, Reintegrative Shaming, and Developmental or Life Course Criminology.
6. Examine crime typologies and/or activities including white-collar crime, organized crime, cybercrime, hate crimes, terrorism, homeland security, and drugs.

Course instructional methods

The course will be taught using multiple instructional methods. These methods will include lecture, group discussion and oral presentations with an associated critical discussion. Typically, course topics will be introduced via lecture format incorporating interpretive discussions. Literature discussions will utilize small group discussions following by classroom presentation and discussion.

Course required text and materials

Schram, P., and Tibbetts, S. G. (2014). Introduction to Criminology. Thousand Oaks, CA: SAGE Publications, Inc.

A. Quizzes (25% of grade): There will be a quiz for every chapter. Each quiz will have True/False, multiple choice and short answer. Responses for short answer questions should be well thought out and written in correct grammatical form. Spelling will be graded. Students are expected to take the quizzes by themselves. These will be timed quizzes so be prepared, once you begin you may not exit and return, it has to be completed. Quizzes will be opened on Fridays by 1pm and will close on Sunday by 8pm. There are no make-up quizzes! Failure to access quizzes, assignments or Exams in a timely manner is not an excuse.

B. Discussion Board Assignment (10% of grade): There will be a discussion board question posted every Monday, you will have until the following Thursday to do your original post, each student will also be required to comment in a meaningful way on at least 2 posts by Friday of that week. Discussion Board is worth 10% of total grade, 5% for original post, and 5% for responses. You are expected to keep up with the discussion board on your own.

C. Midterm Exam (20% of grade): The midterm exam will cover questions from Chapters 1-7.

D. Final Exam (20% of grade): The final exam will cover questions from Chapters 8-15.

E. Class Assignments (25% of grade):

Assignments must be submitted by the deadlines set, no exceptions, late work will not be graded.

Cheating and Plagiarism: Students are expected to do their own work on all tests and papers. Cheating on tests and plagiarism on assignments will result in a grade of “F” on that part of the course, a possible grade of “F” for the entire course, and possible recommendation for suspension from the university.

Plagiarism consists of presenting the work of another as one’s own (i.e., without proper acknowledgment of the source) and submitting examinations or other work in whole or in part as one’s own when such work has been prepared by another person or copied from another person (see the Student Handbook).

Important!

See your instructor promptly if you are having problems with your course work or are in need of special assistance.

Support for students with disabilities

Qualified students with disabilities needing academic or other accommodations to ensure full participation in the programs, services and activities at Sul Ross State University should contact the Disability Services Coordinator, in Counseling and Prevention Services, Ferguson Hall 112, Box C-117, (837-8203).

Academic honesty policy

Be sure that you understand the university’s Academic Honesty Policy. It is important that you refrain from any form of academic dishonesty or deception, such as cheating or plagiarism. You should also be aware that as a member of the academic community, it is your responsibility to turn in all suspected violators of the honor system. Plagiarism will not be tolerated. This includes but is not limited to: inappropriate citations of sources, “padding” your references, purchasing/copying a paper from the internet or friend, copying and pasting from a resource etc. Plagiarism of assignments will result in a grade of 0 and will be reported Distance Education Statement: Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university’s academic support services, library resources, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Students should submit online assignments through Blackboard or SRSU email, which require secure login information to verify students’ identities and to protect students’ information. The procedures for filing a student complaint are included in the student handbook. Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software, according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website.
