Distance Education (Web-course) Non-Participation Statement

Policies in effect for on-campus, traditional classroom instruction courses also apply to students enrolled in distance education courses, including Web-based and ITV courses. The University allows a maximum of 20% absences in a course before an instructor may drop a student for excessive absences with a grade of “F” or a “W”. In distance education courses, this policy is interpreted as non-participation; once a student has been documented as nonparticipating for more than 3 weeks of inactivity during a long semester or 1 week of inactivity during a summer session, the instructor may drop the student from the course with a grade of “F” or a “W”. Non-participation and inactivity may include not logging on to the course, not submitting assignments or participating in other assigned activities as scheduled, not communicating with the instructor by phone or e-mail, and/or not following the instructor's participation guidelines stated in the syllabus.

Course Grading

Assignments	40%
Exams (4 exams) This includes the final	60%
Total Points	100%

Your grade will be based on the following scale:

A	90-100%
B	80-89%
C	70-79%
D	60-69%
F	59% and below

Academic Honesty

Cheating or plagiarism includes the copying of all or part of another person’s work and will not be tolerated. If you allow your work to be copied or make it available to another student for this purpose you are also cheating. All parties involved will receive an F on the assignment.

Students with Disabilities

The University is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The Director of Counseling and Accessibilities Services Coordinator has the responsibility to assist students with disabilities in gaining opportunities for full participation in programs, services and activities. The Counseling and Accessibilities Services is currently located in Ferguson Hall, Room 112. The telephone number is (432) 837-8203.
