Learning Objectives

The goal of this course is to make you an effective writer. That means you should be able to present your ideas so that people will pay attention, especially when you are making a conscious effort to change their minds. Effective writing starts with a purpose and involves evidence, coherence, grammar, and style. After taking the course you should be able to:

- Decide on a purpose and make it obvious to the reader.
- Write effectively about topics in your chosen field.
- Find evidence in various ways and document it.
- Write in various formats, including convincing and persuading.
- Write grammatically and with an engaging style.

Handouts on Blackboard under course information

To discuss grammar documentation, we will refer to the Purdue Online Writing Lab, <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/>

Grading

Your grade will be based on how well you demonstrate the objectives of each assignment and of the course. Each assignment sheet will show the value of the assignments in points, which add up to 1,000 points. If you have 900 or more, you will get an A, and so on.

If your grade on the final examination is higher than your grade in the course and if you have turned in all assignments on time, your final grade will be the course grade.

Submitting assignment

You will submit most assignments by e-mail. When you do, use your Sul Ross e-mail account and use the subject line listed on the assignment sheet.

When you submit assignments in class, they are due at the beginning of class.

Punctuality

All assignments must be submitted on time. I will read them eventually, but I do not feel responsible for seeing late assignments so you may not get helpful comments early enough to help on future assignments.

I shall read one paper at a time. In other words, if you fall behind, you must submit one paper at a time, and if you are too far behind, you will not have enough time to finish. Any paper I have not seen, I will treat as a rough draft and return it to you with my comments.

Plagiarism

Plagiarized work will not be accepted. Plagiarism means turning in someone else's work for credit. We will discuss plagiarism as well as ways to avoid it by citing others' work correctly. If I find you have plagiarized work, I will drop you from the course with an F and turn your name over to the Dean.

Students with disabilities

Sul Ross State University Rio Grande College is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1973. Students who need accessibility services should contact Kathy Biddick at 830-279-3003. The address is 2623 Garner Field Road, Uvalde, Texas 78801.

Distance education

Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university's academic support services, library resources, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Students should submit online assignments through Blackboard or SRSU email, which require secure login information to verify students' identities and to protect students' information. The procedures for filing a student complaint are included in the student handbook. Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software, according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website.
