Description of Course from Catalog

A course designed to acquaint students with representative music of different ages, styles, media, and forms; and to its historical background. This course meets the Fine Arts requirement for Core Curriculum/General Studies and is required for a music major. Music majors must receive a “C” in the course to have it count toward the major.

A. Instructor: Dr. Donald Callen Freed

B. Class Hours & Credit: 3 credit hours

C. Office & ADA Needs Statement:

It is Sul Ross State University policy to provide reasonable accommodations to students with disabilities. If you would like to request such accommodations because of a physical, mental, or learning disability, please contact the ADA coordinator for Program Accessibility, 837-8203, 112 Ferguson Hall.

D. Supplies:

Multiple choice questions from the website are due by e-mail to my e-mail address above by the date of the chapter reading on this syllabus.

E. Course Description and Objectives: A course designed to acquaint students with representative music of different ages, styles, media, and forms; and to its historical background. This course meets Fine Arts requirement.

Objectives:

The student will:

1. acquire knowledge of major events, terminology, dates, and places relevant to the history and literature of western art music.
2. compare musical styles and periods in verbal summary and written exams.
3. identify aurally key components of music.
4. discriminate between musical ideas and periods.
5. summarize key components between musical eras.

Program learning outcomes: The graduating music student will demonstrate that he/she:

1. is able to integrate appropriate musical expression into performance;
2. is able to prepare appropriate program notes;
3. is able to evaluate and critique a musical performance; and
4. has a general knowledge of music history.

TeXes/Teks items for the future teacher:

- A. Knows how to involve students in activities that promote lifelong enjoyment of music and provides students with a wide range of opportunities to make and respond to music so as to help students develop music skills that are relevant to their own lives.
- B. Applies knowledge of standard terminology for describing and analyzing musical sound (e.g., rhythm, melody, form, timbre, tempo, pitch, meter, dynamics, intonation, intervals) and has a basic understanding of how to read, write, recognize aurally and interpret standard music notation.
- C. Knows how to arrange vocal and instrumental music for specific purposes and settings.
- D. Knows and understands music of diverse genres, styles and cultures.
- E. Demonstrates an understanding of the purposes and roles of music in society and how music can reflect elements of a specific society or culture.
- F. Explains a variety of music and music-related career options.
- G. Identifies and describes how music reflects the heritage of the United States and Texas.
- H. Applies knowledge of criteria for evaluating and critiquing musical performances and experiences, including using standard terminology in communicating about students’ musical skills and performance.
- I. Integrates instruction in music with instruction in other subject areas.
- J. Knows how to teach students to sing and/or play an instrument with expression either independently or in small groups.
- K. Applies knowledge of music content and curriculum based on the Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TEKS) and of students in early childhood through grade 6 to plan and implement effective, developmentally appropriate instruction, including instruction that promotes students’ creativity and performance skills as well as students’ ability to use critical-thinking and problem-solving skills in music contexts.
- L. Manages time, instructional resources and physical space effectively for music education.

F. Course Requirements and Grading:

1. Attendance and participation. Excused absences will only be by advanced notification. Excessive absences or casual attitudes about attendance and participation will result in a lowering of the final grade. 2 unexcused absences = A. 3-4 absences = B. 5-6 absences = C. 7-8 absences = D. 9+ absences = F and/or dropped from the course.

2. Format. Lecture/discussion/listening. Students are responsible for all information and assigned readings in the text. Lectures are designed to supplement basic material. Students are also responsible for listening assignments associated with the specific chapters. Listening in class must be active; it is not a cue to sleep or zone out.

3. Grading. Assignments, quizzes and exams will be given percentage grades: A = 90-100, B = 80-90, C = 70-80, D = 60-70. The final grade will consist of the following components:

- a. Reading & daily preparation 20%. Attendance is required. Use absences for emergencies. Please telephone or leave message or e-mail if you will be absent. Quizzes may be given. No make-ups on quizzes.
- b. Reviews and written assignments. 20%. Includes papers for music majors (see above). Papers graded according to a formula/rubric to be supplied later.
- c. Mid-term examination 20%.
- d. Final examination 20%.
- e. Quizzes 20%.

My grading philosophy in graphic representation:

	attending class and doing work	skipping class or not doing work
exemplary work & creativity	A	B or C
poor work & creativity	C or D	F

Please remember that grading in music courses, especially those involving creativity and performance, is inherently more subjective than in other courses. You should leave no doubt as to your attitude, attendance, and participation. If you read the material, participate in class, and prepare, you cannot fail this course!

Extra-credit opportunities will be explained in class and usually involve attending concerts and/or writing a short review of same.

Basic Common Courtesies and Expected Behaviors—This course is your JOB!

1. There will be no use of electronic devices during this class, including but not limited to cell phones, blackberries, smart phones, iPads, iPods/mp3 players, and laptops. They may be confiscated, at least for the period, perhaps for the day, or the student may be asked to leave with an unexcused. Exceptions are to be discussed with the professor in advance, and may be granted for those with children (cell phone in vibrate position) or those with certain disabilities for note-taking only (laptops or iPads).
2. Going in and out of class is rude. Go to the restroom and/or get a drink of water before class.
3. Sleeping in class is also rude. Be awake. Stay alert. Manage your time to get enough sleep outside of class. See the counseling center, 837-8203 if you need help.
4. Be on time. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of class only. If you are late, you will be counted absent, going toward a total of 9. Three (3) tardies = 1 unexcused absence.
5. The path to the professor's office is class time. If you are absent for a class, you are not eligible for office time before the next class.

NOTE: Your instructor may not accept any work that is not up to capacity or that is turned in after the due date.

MUSIC MAJORS: Will have an additional requirement of a 7-10 page paper. The subject of this paper will be cleared with the instructor. The topic will be over a significant work of classical music or composer of music history. Papers will be typed/word processed and contain correct information as well as spelling and grammar. The instructor reserves the right to assign a rewrite if the former items are not satisfactory. The paper should use primarily book sources rather than internet sources for maximum accuracy; start with Grove Music Online and see article and bibliography. Standard format (MLA, APA, Chicago) will apply. Ideas:

Composer: (may be distilled to a specific period in composer's life. BEETHOVEN is too broad.)

1. Dates
2. Major works and genres, dates
3. Style(s)
4. Significance in style period (i.e., Brahms/Romantic)
5. Summary

Works:

1. Dates
2. Significance
3. Style
4. Other works to compare in same style period.

Special topics: Discuss with instructor. Topic approval: First Class in Oct. Rough draft due Nov. 3.

Final paper due Dec. 3.

G. Tentative Schedule:

Changes to Syllabus

The above procedures and assignments below are subject to change. All policies and procedures not in the syllabus will be formulated by the class in consultation with the instructor and will be geared to the needs and schedule of the class. At times we may review our learning processes together. Individual assignments may be handed out in class in addition to the chapter readings.
