Course Description:

This is an introductory college writing course which emphasizes the composition of short essays, analysis, and reading skills required of all students. Prerequisite: English 1300 or sufficient English, verbal, and reading scores to meet the requirements of English 1300 as described.

Composition and Rhetoric I is a course designed to develop students' writing skills and reading comprehension. Students will focus on a variety of different types of essays. In this course, students will develop their writing and reading skills through daily exposure to writing and reading exercises. Topics included in this course are: elements of the essay, language of the essay, and different types of essays (illustration, narration, description, process analysis, definition, comparison and contrast, cause and effect, and some argument). Areas which will be emphasized for essay writing are: appropriateness, unity and focus, development, and organization.

Required Textbook(s):

Buying textbooks is expensive, but that goes with the territory of attending a university. If you can't afford to buy the book, rent one; borrowing/sharing a textbook is not recommended.

- 1) Patterns for College Writing: A Rhetorical Reader and Guide by Laurie Kirzner. 13th ed. ISBN#: 9781457666520
- 2) Various other required readings and audio/visual material on Blackboard

Required Materials

--One, sturdy, two- pocket folder (light in color; no black folders) capable of holding a minimum of two essays, 4-6 pages in length, and a minimum of 2 rough drafts per essay; (NO hard-backed binders)

--Internet access to Blackboard and your sulross.edu email address. Many readings/ material and important class news/updates will be sent to you via Blackboard. It is your responsibility to check Blackboard/email frequently!

Course Policies

Absences

Because this course is designed in a workshop/discussion format, you cannot fulfill the requirements of the course unless you attend regularly and on time. Your questions and contributions are central to our discussions and, therefore, our understandings of readings and writing process. You are responsible for material covered in class, whether you are present or not. Note that in-class work cannot be made up. If you are absent, do not ask me what we did on that day; if you will be absent, do not ask me what we will do on that day. It is not my responsibility to be your personal tutor. However, you may keep updated with class goings-on by checking Bb Announcement/email, as I provide a summary AND list any homework that was assigned for the next class day; the only time I do not do this is on days a Journal is assigned.

Explained Absences

These absences fall under university-sponsored activities (clubs, athletics, student government, etc). It is your responsibility to notify me before you will be absent, and to make arrangements to make up any assignment. You must notify me BEFORE you will be absent from class, not after. Work must be turned in BEFORE student is absent. Student athletes are held to the same amount of absences as every other student, which is 9 for a MWF class, and 6 for a class meeting on TTh.

FOR EVERY STUDENT: If you know you will be absent, it is up to you to turn in any assignments BEFORE you will be absent from class. You must fulfill any obligations for this class before you'll be absent, not after.

Excused Absences

These are reserved for serious cases of illness or personal/family injury and/or emergencies only, and are given at the professor's discretion. Makeup work allowed only if student notifies professor ahead of time (a reasonable amount of time, not just prior to when class begins and certainly not after class). Student is solely responsible for completing/turning in assignment(s) within one week of absence. A "0" placeholder grade will be posted in Bb for the missing assignment, until the work has been turned in; if you forget to makeup the assignment, the "0" stands.

Unexcused Absences

The student did not attend class due to negligence. Any work assigned/due earns "0" points. No makeup/late work allowed.

Excessive Absence Policy

- --In a MWF course, you will earn a grade of "F", if you have 9 TOTAL absences, which includes explained, excused, and unexcused absences.
- --In a TTh course, you will earn a grade of "F", if you have 6 TOTAL absences, which includes explained, excused, and unexcused absences.

Tardies

Students are expected to arrive to class on time and to stay for the entire class period. Tardiness indicates an ill- preparedness and is rude and disruptive to both the instructor and students. You will be asked to SIGN IN, when you are late.

Excessive tardiness will result in the following:

Two (2) instances of tardiness equal an unexcused absence. If you are 15 minutes late, you will be counted as "unexcused absent." If a quiz (or any assignment) is turned in or administered at the beginning of class and you are tardy, you earn a "0," since these assignments are usually administered at the beginning of class; these cannot be made up.

Classroom Decorum

In respecting others' opinions, we will cultivate a classroom environment that fosters communal learning. Accordingly, please turn off any electronic devices such as cell phones, laptops, etc. DO NOT use your cell phones during class. If you are continually asked to turn off your electronic devices, you will be asked to leave; you will not get credit for that class day's activities.

Student preparation

You must come to class prepared each class day, which is defined as....

- -come to each class meeting, on time; do not leave early
- -bring your books
- -read assignments before coming to class. Keeping up with the reading schedule is absolutely vital to your success in this course. If you do not consider the reading schedule a priority, your grade will suffer because quizzes, class lectures, and major papers, revolve around the reading schedule
- -turn in assignments by the due dates
- -check your email/ Blackboard Announcements on a daily basis
- -bring in required handouts
- -participate respectfully in class. Your input, thoughts, and ideas relative to course readings and other course materials, are an important part of this course during class discussion and peer review sessions -DO NOT interfere with others' ability to learn; this means, you cannot monopolize the classroom conversation, rudely interrupt others, shame or intimidate others, or otherwise prohibit or interrupt the learning process with disrespectful and/or disruptive behavior. If you continually interrupt/disrupt class, you will be asked to leave, and you will earn "0" points for anything assigned that day.

A NOTE ABOUT EMAIL: While email is a great way to communicate, it often lends itself to informality and grammatical misconduct. Students participating in an academic relationship should carefully compose their email messages. Therefore, any email that is not properly addressed, appropriately composed, and free from grammatical/mechanical errors will remain unanswered. Please follow these guidelines when emailing your professor:

- 1) Include a salutation (Dear Dr. Briseno)
- 2) Provide your name, class, and section
- 3) Clearly state the reason, problem/concern. Use full sentences; do a spellcheck.
- 4) Additionally, email is not the best way to teach; therefore, I do not respond to emails asking me to "look over" assignments. If you want to discuss any aspect of your work, please come to office hours.

Time Management

For each hour of class, you should anticipate doing about two hours of work outside of class, including a considerable amount of reading for this course. Since writing and thinking is a process, dedicate some time each day to this course. You will be given at least one week's notice before each essay is due. I expect you to plan time each day to complete the work for this course.

Makeup Work

In the case of an Explained or Excused Absence ONLY: it is your responsibility to turn in your work on or before the deadline. If the assignment is not turned in by the deadline, make makeup work will not be accepted.

Makeup Work Policy

To turn in makeup work in the case of explained or excused absences, you must follow these procedures:

- 1) Notify me ahead of time when you will be absent. Email is ok.
- 2) Make arrangements with me to turn in your work before the deadline OR make arrangements to makeup assignments (quizzes, exams, homework, etc. Journals can't be made up).
- 3) A placeholder grade of "0" will remain until you have made up the missing assignments. You have ONE WEEK from the day you will be absent from class to make up any assignment you miss. If you do not complete/turn in a missed assignment by the revised due date, make up work will not be accepted, and the placeholder grade of "0" will stand.

Late Work

No late work will be accepted. All assignments are due on or before the deadline. If you know you will be absent, it is your responsibility to turn in your work by the deadline (see Makeup Work Policy above). You may turn in your work early or have a friend/roommate/family member/carrier pigeon, etc., turn in your work for you.

Academic Honesty

The University expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is beyond reproach and to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of their classroom. The University may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty, including but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. Please see page 82 in the SRSU Student Handbook: for complete information.

- 1. "Cheating" includes:
- a. Copying from another student's test paper, laboratory report. other report, or computer files, data listings, and/or programs, or allowing another student to copy from same.
- b. Using, during a test, materials not authorized by the person giving the test.
- c. Collaborating, without authorization, with another person during an examination or in preparing academic work.
- d. Knowingly, and without authorization, using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, soliciting, copying, or possessing, in whole or in part, the contents of an unadministered test.

- e. Substituting for another student; permitting any other person, or otherwise assisting any other person to substitute for oneself or for another student in the taking of an examination or test or the preparation of academic work to be submitted for academic credit.
- f. Bribing another person to obtain an unadministered test or information about an unadministered test.
- g. Purchasing, or otherwise acquiring and submitting as one's own work any research paper or other writing assignment prepared by an individual or firm. This section does not apply to the typing of the rough and/or final versions of an assignment by a professional typist.
- h. "Plagiarism" means the appropriation and the unacknowledged incorporation of another's work or idea in ones own written work offered for credit.
- i. "Collusion" means the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit.
- j. "Abuse of resource materials" means the mutilation, destruction, concealment, theft or alteration of materials provided to assist students in the mastery of course materials.
- k. "Academic work" means the preparation of an essay, dissertation, thesis, report, problem, assignment, or other project that the student submits as a course requirement or for a grade.

Plagiarism Policy As a simple guideline, if you submit your own work, you will avoid all serious types of plagiarism. Nevertheless, a responsible student should also consider the less obvious variants of plagiarism, especially when writing research papers that require citations. Instances of plagiarism, such as submitting an essay with sentences or passages cut and pasted from an online source, or a paper obtained from an online "paper mill," students in this course will automatically fail the assignment, receive a final grade of F, and be recommended for dismissal from the university. There is no excuse for serious plagiarism. I will also regard unattributed citations – verbatim copying of another's person's work without some indication of the source – as a serious form of plagiarism. In other words, don't insert any text in a paper that is not your own without also noting the source. You can email me with a question before an assignment is due, stop by my office during my office hours, or even parenthetically raise the question in your paper. It's your responsibility to comply with principles of academic honesty: it's my responsibility to see that every student receives a fair and accurate grade. Here is my policy on plagiarism for this course:

The first offense of plagiarism, in part or in whole, will result in a failing grade on that assignment(s). The second offense, in part or in whole, will result in a final grade of "F," and the student will be recommended for dismissal from the university. The student has the right to appeal to the Dept. Chair, then Provost, and eventually to the Provost and VP for Academic and Student Affairs before imposition of the penalty. The decision of the Provost and VP for Academic Affairs is final.

Graded Assignments

Quizzes, Assignments & Journals......40%

Quizzes will be unannounced, and will usually be given at the beginning of some class periods. They will be based on previously assigned readings, materials, and/or class lectures. Anything we discuss in class is liable to be on the quiz. Sometimes, quizzes will consist of questions that will test your basic knowledge of reading assignments (short answer-questions). Assignments vary; some will be miniessays based on the assigned reading(s) and lecture materials; others consist of various writing exercises. Additionally, you will sometimes summarize lectures as a journal entry after certain class meetings. Journal entries have specific protocols, which will be discussed later in the course. Journals, like quizzes are unannounced. Journals can't be made up.

Two Major Essays......40%

You will write 2 major essays, with page requirements ranging from 4 to 6 pages in length, double spaced, in a standard font (12-pt. Times New Roman or 11 pt. Arial). Page requirements do not include the Works Cited page (bibliography). An essay will not be graded until you have revised it at least twice You have a one-time option of revising one previously graded essay for a maximum of one letter grade (10 pts) above the original assigned grade. To be eligible, an essay up for revision must be turned in on time, not plagiarized, and have at least two comprehensive Rough Drafts.

Two Exams......20%

As per department and state requirements, you will take two exams: one exam will be administered at the beginning of the semester, the other at the end of the semester, during finals week. You will be graded on the how much you have improved from one exam to the next. If you do not take one exam, your grade for 20% of the course grade will be a 50. If you do not take both exams, 20% of your course grade will be a "0."

Final Note

It's worth noting that there's a predictable and positive correlation between careful time management, consistent and on-time and academic success. I encourage you to make a wise decision as to what kind of student you will be early on and to plan accordingly. No extra points, no extra credit work will be assigned, so don't ask. You are completely responsible for meeting all deadlines and keeping track of any changes made to the course schedule whether you are present or not. You have several resources made available to you to ensure your success in this course. I strongly encourage you to take advantage of them. You will receive the grade you earn, not the grade I "give" you.
