Course description:

As a discipline, the goal of Women's Studies is to enhance students' knowledge, interest, and understanding of the contributions, challenges, needs, and aspirations of women and of the way that gender shapes the lives of both women and men. Furthermore, Women's Studies seeks to re\examine material from much of the rest of the curriculum with a focus on women's perspectives and an awareness of the gender system. The "modest proposal" in Women's Studies then is study of history, language, literature, and culture from new and illuminating perspectives. In focusing on women as a group, we must, by definition, study the interaction of race, ethnicity, nationality, religion, geography, class, age, sexuality, and disability. Women are a group that encompasses great diversity. Women's Studies is a dynamic and rapidly expanding interdisciplinary field of study and provides its students with the opportunity to use several theoretical/critical frames such as the historical, sociological, psychological, political, legal, literary, ethnographic, and aesthetic.

Absences

Because this course is designed in a workshop/discussion format, you cannot fulfill the requirements of the course unless you attend regularly and on time. Your questions and contributions are central to our discussions and, therefore, our understandings of readings and writing process. You are responsible for material covered in class, whether you are present or not. Note that some in-class work (ie Journals) cannot be made up.

Explanation of the Different Kinds of Absences

Explained Absences (excused but work MUST be completed before you'll be absent)

These absences fall under university-sponsored activities (clubs, athletics, student government, etc). It is your responsibility to notify me before you will be absent, and to make arrangements to make up any assignment. You must notify me BEFORE you will be absent from class, not after. Work must be turned in BEFORE student is absent. Student athletes are NOT excused from the Excessive Absence Policy. You know ahead of time that you will be away at games, so you MUST turn in work BEFORE you leave campus. No special privileges for anyone will be granted.

Excused Absences (possibly excused)

These are reserved for serious cases of illness or personal/family injury and/or emergencies only, and are given at the professor's discretion. Makeup work allowed only if student notifies professor ahead of time (a reasonable amount of time, not just prior to when class begins); student is solely responsible to complete/turn in assignment(s) within one week of absence. If you are allowed turn in your work because of a pre-approved excuse, please follow these rules:

- 1) Make arrangements to turn in your work early, if you know you will be unable to attend class. Or notify me—via email or phone call, in a reasonable amount of time that you will be absent (not AFTER class meets, not 5 mins before class meets). However, do not assume your absence will be excused.
- 2) Make arrangements with me to have the work turned in a later time; in the meantime, I will enforce a "0" as a placeholder grade. Generally, you will have one week to make up the assignment; if you forget, the "0" stands. No exceptions.

Unexcused Absences (never excused)

The student did not attend class due to negligence. Any work assigned/due earns "0" points. No makeup/late work allowed.

Excessive Absence Policy

- --In a MWF course, you will earn a grade of "F", if you have 9 TOTAL absences, which includes explained, excused, and unexcused absences.
- --In a TTh course, you will earn a grade of "F", if you have 6 TOTAL absences, which includes explained, excused, and unexcused absences.

Makeup Work

Opportunities to make up assignments are available only in extreme, urgent circumstances AND In the case of an Excused Absence ONLY: it is your responsibility to turn in your work on or before the deadline. If the assignment is not turned in by the agreed upon deadline, the makeup work might be accepted by at 10 points off each day (weekends count) the assignment is late.

No Late Work Policy

Late work is not accepted for any reason due to student negligence (forgetting to turn in an assignment, forgetting to log in, waiting until the last minute to begin assignments, not knowing how to use Blackboard, not managing your time properly, feeling exhausted after a long drive back to Alpine, etc).

Tardies

Students are expected to arrive to class on time and to stay for the entire class period. Tardiness indicates an ill-preparedness and is rude and disruptive to both the instructor and students. You will be asked to sign in when you walk in late. Excessive tardiness will result in the following: Two (2) instances of tardiness equal an unexcused absence. If you are 15 minutes late, you will be counted as "unexcused absent." If a quiz (or any assignment) is turned in or administered at the beginning of class and you are tardy, you earn a "0," since these assignments are usually administered at the beginning of class; these cannot be made up.

Professor e-communication

I will communicate with the class through Announcements and by e-mail, so be sure to log in daily to check for announcements on the course home page and to check your Sul Ross e-mail account regularly.

Email

In an effort to maintain respect and clarity in the virtual classroom setting, please follow these guidelines when emailing your professor:

Please follow these guidelines when emailing your professor:

- 1) Include a salutation (Dear Dr. Briseno)
- 2) Provide your name, class, and section
- 3) Clearly state the reason, problem/concern. Use full sentences; do a spellcheck.
- 4) Additionally, email is not the best way to teach; therefore, I do not respond to emails asking me to "look over" assignments. If you want to discuss any aspect of your work, please come to office hours.
- 5) Acknowledge that you have received my email with a simple, "Thank you" and a follow-up regarding your problem, issue, or concern; otherwise, I will be wondering whether or not your issue has been resolved.

Personal Responsibility

It is your responsibility to check Blackboard and your email/Announcements frequently! I leave detailed instructions and details in the Announcements/email feature and in the Tentative Assignment Schedule in Blackboard; it's up to you to check in and find out what's due, when, and how to turn in assignments. I will not re-open links once they are closed; as this is time consuming and a waste of precious time, so you must be aware of due dates and times.

If you are absent, do not ask me, "What did we do on the day I was absent?" I review each class day on Bb under Announcements/email; it's your responsibility to check that every day. I will not privately reteach the material the day you were absent.

Academic Honesty

I expect each student to strictly adhere to the rules and regulations regarding academic pursuits. The University expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is beyond reproach and to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of their classroom. The University may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty, including but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. Please see page 82 in the SRSU Student Handbook: for complete information.

- 1. "Cheating" includes:
- a. Copying from another student's test paper, laboratory report, other report, or computer files, data listings, and/or programs, or allowing another student to copy from same.
- b. Using, during a test, materials not authorized by the person giving the test.
- c. Collaborating, without authorization, with another person during an examination or in preparing academic work.
- d. Knowingly, and without authorization, using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, soliciting, copying, or possessing, in whole or in part, the contents of an unadministered test.

- e. Substituting for another student; permitting any other person, or otherwise assisting any other person to substitute for oneself or for another student in the taking of an examination or test or the preparation of academic work to be submitted for academic credit.
- f. Bribing another person to obtain an unadministered test or information about an unadministered test.
- g. Purchasing, or otherwise acquiring and submitting as one's own work any research paper or other writing assignment prepared by an individual or firm. This section does not apply to the typing of the rough and/or final versions of an assignment by a professional typist.
- h. "Plagiarism" means the appropriation and the unacknowledged incorporation of another's work or idea in ones own written work offered for credit.
- i. "Collusion" means the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit.
- j. "Abuse of resource materials" means the mutilation, destruction, concealment, theft or alteration of materials provided to assist students in the mastery of course materials.
- k. "Academic work" means the preparation of an essay, dissertation, thesis, report, problem, assignment, or other project that the student submits as a course requirement or for a grade.

Plagiarism Policy

As a simple guideline, if you submit your own work, you will avoid all serious types of plagiarism. Nevertheless, a responsible student should also consider the less obvious variants of plagiarism, especially when writing research papers that require citations.

Instances of plagiarism, such as submitting an essay with sentences or passages cut and pasted from an online source, or a paper obtained from an online "paper mill," students in this course will automatically fail the assignment, receive a final grade of F, and be recommended for dismissal from the university. There is no excuse for serious plagiarism. I will also regard unattributed citations – verbatim copying of another's person's work without some indication of the source – as a serious form of plagiarism. In other words, don't insert any text in a paper that is not your own without also noting the source. You can email me with a question before an assignment is due, stop by my office during my office hours, or even parenthetically raise the question in your paper. It's your responsibility to comply with principles of academic honesty; it's my responsibility to see that every student receives a fair and accurate grade.

Here is my policy on plagiarism for this course:

The first offense of plagiarism, in part or in whole, will result in a failing grade on that assignment(s). The second offense, in part or in whole, will result in a final grade of "F," and the student will be recommended for dismissal from the university. The student has the right to appeal to the Dept. Chair, then Provost, and eventually to the Provost and VP for Academic and Student Affairs before imposition of the penalty. The decision of the Provost and VP for Academic Affairs is final.

ADA Accommodation

Sul Ross State University is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1973. It is the student's responsibility to initiate a request for accessibility services. Students seeking accessibility services must contact Grace Duffy in Counseling and Accessibility Services, Ferguson Hall, Room 112. The mailing address is P. O. Box C-171, Sul Ross State University, Alpine, TX 79832. The telephone number is 432-837-8203.

Graded Course Requirements

Daily Work (Homework, Journals & Quizzes)

Writing Assignments and homework will vary; some will be mini-essays based on the assigned reading(s) and lecture materials, and based on previously assigned readings and/or class lectures; others consist of various writing exercises. Additionally, you will sometimes summarize lectures as a journal entry after certain class meetings. There is a specific method for writing your Journals; this info can be found under Journals in Bb. They will not be assigned on a daily basis; journals cannot be made up if you are absent. Quizzes will be unannounced, and will usually be given at the beginning of some class periods. Sometimes, quizzes will consist of questions that will test your basic knowledge of reading assignments (short answer-questions).

Grades

- A 90-100: Outstanding performance in mastering of the subject. Achievement of superior quality. (4 grade: points per credit hour)
- B 80-89: Consistent performance in achievement beyond the usual requirements of the course. Achievement of high quality. (3 grade points per credit hour)
- C 70-79: Performance of a satisfactory nature. Achievement demonstrating an understanding of the subject sufficient for continued study in the discipline. (2 grade points per credit hour)
- D 60-69: Minimally acceptable performance. Achievement demonstrating below average understanding of the basic elements of the course. (1 grade point per credit hour)
- F 50-59: Achievement at a level insufficient to demonstrate understanding of the basic elements of the course. (0 grade points)

Incomplete grade(I): The grade of "I" is given by the instructor upon consultation with the student. The work to be completed and deadline for completion must be specified on the grade report to the Director of Records and Registration. A student may have a maximum of one academic year in which to remove an T during which time the "I" will not be calculated in the student's grade point average. If the work is not completed by the deadline set by the instructor, the "I" will be converted to an "F" and will be calculated in the student's grade point average for the semester in which the "I" was given. Normally, an incomplete grade will be awarded only for situations such as illness, family emergencies, or unusual circumstances which prevent a student from completing a course in a semester or summer term. Incomplete grades must be removed prior to graduation.

Withdrawal grade (W): The grade of "W" is given for courses dropped after the 12th/4th class days through the last day to drop a course with a "W" as published in the University's calendar. Students who wait until the published deadline must have complied with the class attendance policy of this catalog. An instructor is not obligated to recommend a "W" for a class if excessive absences have occurred. Students will not be permitted to drop a course or withdraw from the University after the published deadline.

Final Note

It's worth noting that there's a predictable and positive correlation between careful time management and academic success. I encourage you to make a wise decision as to what kind of student you will be early on and to plan accordingly. No extra points, no extra credit work will be assigned, so don't ask. You are completely responsible for meeting all deadlines and keeping track of any changes made to the course schedule. You have several resources made available to you to ensure your success in this course, so I strongly encourage you to take advantage of them.

You will get the grade you earn, not the grade I give you.
