Course Description:

This course will explore police authority and responsibilities regarding criminal procedure as well as constitutional restraints as enumerated in the Texas Constitution, United States Constitution, and Bill of Rights. Upon completion of this course students should be able to understand police authority, the court system and process, sources of rights, and the law of arrest, search and seizure developed through court decisions that impact and form the way police officers do their jobs. Discussion will also include the criminal and civil liability that result from improper acts and/or the failure to act on part of police.

Students will have an established knowledge of specific areas of the U.S. Constitution as it relates to specific legal liabilities of criminal justice professionals, in particular police officers. Students will gain the ability to identify, assess, and compare Constitutional protections and individual rights and recognize violations of those Rights. Additionally, students will have a workable knowledge of the most significant legal challenges to criminal justice policy and the resulting changes to those policies.
