Academic Honesty

Becoming a teacher and making the decision to join the profession comes with much responsibilities and expected behaviors. In addition to learning pedagogical knowledge and skills necessary to become an effective teacher, your disposition (such as honesty) is equally important. Teacher educator candidates are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner both in class and out in the field. Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated in any form or manner. Please check with the Sul Ross State Rio Grande College Student Handbook for policies pertaining to academic dishonesty.
