Distance Education (Web-course) Non-Participation Statement

Policies in effect for on-campus, traditional classroom instruction courses also apply to students enrolled in distance education courses, including Web-based and ITV courses. The University allows a maximum of 20% absences in a course before an instructor may drop a student for excessive absences with a grade of "F" or a "W". In distance education courses, this policy is interpreted as non-participation; once a student has been documented as nonparticipating for more than 3 weeks of inactivity during a long semester or 1 week of inactivity during a summer session, the instructor may drop the student from the course with a grade of "F" or a "W". Non-participation and inactivity may include not logging on to the course, not submitting assignments or participating in other assigned activities as scheduled, not communicating with the instructor by phone or e-mail, and/or not following the instructor's participation guidelines stated in the syllabus.

You are expected to approach this class in a professional manner. This means completing assignments and exams in a timely manner. Your primary goal as a student is to obtain an education and acquire certain skills to enable you to be productive and competitive in your chosen field.
