

Course Description

This is an advanced concept and technique class in Painting (watercolor , oil or acrylic) or Drawing (pastel, graphite or Charcoal). Development of thematic concept and consistency in medium is required Color theory, composition, advanced techniques and participation in group critiques are an important aspect of this class. Students may only work in one medium per semester, as decided on with the instructor.

This is a multi level class with 4301 levels 1-4 and 5304 Graduate students.

REQUIRED WORK:

- A. A Series of color studies of the paints on your palette, slip-sheeted and arranged in a binder. Each page should list the name and brand of the hue, and pigment number. These pigment studies should include complimentary mixes, plus tones and tints of each color.
New colors should be added to your binder each semester and organized the same way.
This binder will be updated every semester.
I would like to see experimentation to the way you learn to mix and use colors and attention to your personal palette.
- B. A thumbnail or photoshop study must precede each assignment. Specific assignments may be given to aid the individual student needs. 2 -9x12” quick studies will accompany paintings 3&4, see next item.
- C. You must choose one medium and theme and stick to it all semester.
- 2 smaller paintings 24” x 30” will begin the semester- plan to produce one a week.
 - 2 -9x12” studies for the next paintings will then be developed (fast and responsive) before the larger paintings are begun.
 - This will be followed by 6, (six) 30” x 40” (or larger) paintings.
 - A 52” x 72” will count as 2.5 paintings.

Specific goals will be set for each student, pertaining to their style, thematics and based on their individual strengths and weaknesses.

All work must show evidence of consistent work habits and intent through out the semester.

Students must be able to discuss use of Composition: Focal points, spatial relations, color theory and palette choices, texture, content/context to Art History, and use of thematics.

The work must show evidence of consistent work habits and intent through out the semester. Although a set size format and number of works been established, individual directions and specific ideas can be substituted with the permission of the instructor as long as the project and the amount of work is equal to the original portfolio.

- D. Essays on contemporary artists who work in a style similar to yours and who are alive today will accompany each of the first three drawing/painting assignments.
Or, you may watch a video and review the emphasis of it, and discuss the concepts & practicality.
You must include a brief biography, and why this artist is known. Be sure to properly cite your work.
- E. An Artist’s Statement that discusses the work, its development and its relationship to the Contemporary art scene will be turned in at the end of the semester with your portfolio. The statement should cover your personal approach to the issues surrounding the development, and presentation of your work. This statement will attempt to justify your aesthetic investigations in relation to ideas of Contemporary Art (since 1970), the heritage of World Art, and issues of socio-politic importance

- F. CD: photograph a series of 8 - 10 of your best works. Jpegs should be 600dpi, color correct, cropped to size and labeled with name and number (fairlie#1.jpeg). These are due in the week of finals. Also include a typed word document with your name, title, medium, size, and date completed. This should correspond to your jpeg images. Jpegs should be 600dpi.

ATTENDANCE:

The structure of the "4301/5304 studio class" course requires consistent attendance. This class is required to cover 96 studio class hours.

You should be prepared to put in at least 10-15 hours per week to finish your work. This means

Saturday classes are critique only. You are expected to paint regularly, and have a scheduled studio hours!

Work not finished by the due date, will be dropped a letter grade per class day.

After 4 class days the grade becomes an "F".

Class is scheduled for 6 hours a week, and I expect you to work at least 3-10 in the studio outside of class, You need to be in the studio during scheduled class hours.

Scheduled critiques and personal critique times will be held on opposite weeks and both require constant attendance! If you can't be there, I need to know in advance! 837-8258 or 294-1313.

More than three (3) absences without an official excuse will result in an evaluation adjustment at the end of the semester.

CRITIQUES:

Students are expected to be in class working during scheduled class hours.

You are expected to be painting daily. I should be able to walk in and see your progress, give you pointers and critiques. If you are not in when I show up, you are considered absent.

Critiques will be held once a month. Changes in schedule may occur as the semester progresses. Be prepared to have two paintings finished for each Critique. All paintings due in for grading the final day of class.

On finals day, any finishing that was allowed, CD of art work and artist statements, and mandatory studio clean up will occur.

Proposals: Proposals for taking exhibition are due in the first class after mid semester. (March 22)

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES (SLO's)

This beginning class introduces the concepts that address the following SACS Program Learning outcomes, that will aid the graduating art student's ability to:

- Expressively communicate an original idea or concept visually.
- Demonstrate technical mastery of materials and traditional artistic skills within one area of specialization, i.e. painting, drawing, ceramics and/or sculpture.
- Demonstrate proficiency in discipline specific writing.
- Demonstrate knowledge of professional practices in art.

Artist Statement:

This is a simple statement that will explain the motivation behind your paintings, the reason for the colors and techniques you chose, and how it ties into your other works or interests. Every semester this is built upon in preparation for a show.

If there is an emergency situation let me know as soon as possible!

Tardiness, and leaving early will be considered as partial absences.

GRADING

I grade on a 100 point scale. A painting that is 50% done is a 50.

You MUST finish paintings in sequential order, you may start a new one or two at a time, but you must finish them.

A grade will be given at mid-semester and at final review. This grade will be a combination of a grade on your paintings, your studies, critique attendance, and participation.

In grading your work, I will look for the

- * Idea development
- * Compositional structure: Design, value, space, and color!!!
- * Technique and use of medium
- * Originality and initiative

Unfinished work will not be graded higher than a 75, (C).

Evaluation:

You will lose points if your work finished on time.

You will lose points if I do not see evidence of consistent work habits.

You will lose points if you don't rework assignments after critique.

You will lose points if you don't work assignments to size and concept.

- A. 80% Final Portfolio
- B. 10% Planar studies
- C. 10% Critiques, Papers*, Jpegs, Statements

Academic honesty: The University expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is beyond reproach. The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including but not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. More information on this can be found in the SRSU Rules & Regulations supplement to the Student Handbook.

Cell phones must be set on soft vibrate and may not be answered in class. Personal head gear can be worn but should be low enough that you can hear someone talking to you and no one else can hear you. Music may be played in the classroom as long as all students want to hear it.

Since this class is held in a different building, off campus, I will have my cell phone on and be available if you or another student needs to call me.

Answering phone calls for Emergency personnel and family emergencies are exempt only if you let me know in advance.

Studio Hours: The majority of your grade is based on work done during class, therefore, it is expected that each student will attend all required hours of class (96 studio class hours).

Sul Ross policy states that one absence is equal to 50 minutes. More than three (3) absences from drawing class will result in the lowering of the final evaluation by one letter grade. Tardiness, and leaving early will be considered as partial absences. Your name will be given to UDPS for building and room access.

Disciplinary Action Code:

#21. (Partial quote) “Campus disruptive activities includes disorderly classroom conduct that obstructs, interferes with, inhibits and/or disrupts teaching and/or classroom activities”. If you smell like alcohol or Marijuana, I will ask you to leave class and not come back.
