Course Description

English 2311 teaches students the rhetorical principles and writing practices necessary for producing effective business letters, memos, instructions, reports, and collaborative projects in professional contexts (SLOs 1, 3). The curriculum is informed by current research in rhetoric and professional writing and is guided by the needs and practices of business, industry, and society at large, as well as by the expectations of SRSU students and programs (SLO 2). English 2311 should take place in a networked computer classroom to ensure that students taking the course are prepared for the writing environment of the 21st-century workplace (SLO 4). The course teaches the rhetorical principles that help students shape their professional writing ethically, for multiple audiences, in a variety of professional situations (SLO 2).

No Required textbook. Links will be provided to online resources, such as the Purdue Online Writing Lab (OWL)

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Interpret and analyze texts for various audiences
2. Develop persuasive strategies
3. Strengthen collaborative writing skills and
4. Experiment with written genre and multiple media in the fields of technical and business writing.

ENGLISH (UNDERGRADUATE) STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Graduating students will demonstrate that they can

1. Construct essays that demonstrate unity, organization, coherence, and development
2. Analyze literary works by applying principles of literary criticism or theory
3. Produce research papers that demonstrate the ability to locate a variety of acceptable sources, employ them effectively through quotations or paraphrases, integrate them smoothly into the writer's own prose, and document them correctly using MLA format
4. Demonstrate creativity or originality of thought in written or multimedia projects
5. Compare/contrast and analyze major works and periods within World, English, and American literature.

The course promotes skills in the following areas:

The Writing Process

Developing and understand various strategies for planning, researching, drafting, revising, and editing documents that respond effectively and ethically to professional situations and audiences.

Writing in Context

Analyzing professional cultures, social contexts, and audiences to determine how they shape the various purposes and forms of writing, such as persuasion, organizational communication and public discourse.

Research

Understanding and using various research methods to produce professional documents, including analyzing professional contexts, assessing and using information resources, and determining how various media and technologies affect and are affected by users and readers.

Technology

Developing strategies for using and adapting various communication technologies to manage projects and produce informative and usable professional documents.

Document Design

Learning to argue with visual data, understanding and implementing various principles of format, layout, and design of professional documents that meet multiple user and reader needs.

PROJECTS

1. Employment Project (370 points)

Step 1 of the project asks you to learn about and use various web-based resources for job seekers and select two jobs to pursue. "). Step 2 asks you to prepare resume/s suitable for the positions. Step 3 asks you to prepare cover letters (i.e., "Job Application Letters), each of which are "tailored" to its audience. In Step 4, you will assess your experience in a "Project Assessment Document," which is in memo format (header with to, from, date, re and block paragraphs with headings)

Employment Project Elements:

1. Cover Memo, explaining how you adapted your two letters differently for the two different audiences and why (Project Assessment Document). 100 points
2. Two contrasting letters of application. 100 points
3. One resume. 100 points
4. Three pre-writing activities (70 points; 10 points each)

2. Instructions Project (250 points)

Giving special attention to graphics and layout, compose a brief instruction manual showing how to do something, how to assemble something or how something works. Prior to the project, analyze the rhetorical and design strategies in one example of instructions you find yourself. The project can convey a skill or a kind of technical knowledge. Then perform a usability study, testing to see if some is able to follow your instructions. Select an instructions project which in some way serves the needs of your client in the service learning project. There will also be a preliminary exercise which uses Legos or another form of module.

1. Examining Examples to Show Do's & Don'ts (50)
2. Lego Instructions with Usability Study and Cover Memo with Usability Test results (150)
3. Applied set of Instructions (100)

3. White Paper Research Project (350 points total)

For the third project, you will be asked to do web-based research (and perhaps some library research) and to write an informative report about any issue important to you or your field of study. Typically in the past this has been an e-commerce project on technology in electronic commerce. This project will have five phases:

1. A rhetorical analysis of two published white papers. (50)
2. A statement of purpose (30)
3. Annotated Bibliography (100)
4. A graphic illustrating an important idea in your report (50 submit as draft)
5. A well-designed final report with graphics and bibliographical citation of sources (100)

GRADING

You can earn up to 1000 total possible points. The number of points needed to earn the following grades are: 900-1000=A, 800-899=B, 700-799=C, 600-699=D, 0-599=F.
