Please don't hesitate to contact me. I welcome the opportunity to discuss the course and if you are having trouble, please ask me for help as soon as possible. Since many of us (including your professors) work during the day, email works best in terms of contacting me. As we progress in the course I may make changes to this syllabus (e.g., if I determine we need more or less time on any particular subject area). In that sense, this syllabus is a guideline, not a contract.

The text and course is essentially designed for the graduate student who has had little or no accounting background. At a minimum, all students will be expected to complete the course with a basic understanding of the accounting process and financial statements. I have found, however, that the assigned cases often address issues which can be challenging even for more advanced students.

REQUIRED TEXT: ACCOUNTING : TEXT AND CASES, 13th Edition, Anthony, Robert N., Hawkins, David, and Merchant, Kenneth, McGraw Hill/Irwin, New York, NY. ISBN# 9780073379593. No E-book version available. Limited numbers of paperback editions may be available on Amazon and other sites (isbn# 978-0071289092).

Other Required Readings: Various articles or financial statements may be posted and assigned.

ONLINE COURSE PROCEDURES: It will be your responsibility to check the Blackboard website frequently. You are also required to check your Sul Ross email account since all individual communication will be sent to that address.

I RECOMMEND THAT YOU DOWNLOAD AND USE THE MOZILLA INTERNET BROWSER from Firefox or CHROME from google. The Microsoft Internet Explorer in the later versions has recently caused a variety of problems when interfacing with Blackboard. Mozilla is available as a free download. Click on the Help and Resources tab when you first log onto the course and then click on Downloads, Utilities, etc. If you need help with this download, contact our OIT department.

GRADE DETERMINATION: Grades will be determined as follows:

Assignments	100 points
Discussion Board	50 points
Total	150 points

ASSIGNMENTS: I contemplate assigning a variety of exercises that may include case studies problems from the end of the chapters and other internet assignments. I will also ask you to do some reading from current business journals. I anticipate giving at least 7 of these assignments during the semester. The assignments in total will constitute 100 points in the course. The remaining points will come from the discussion board.

DO NOT WORK WITH ANYONE ON ANY ASSIGNMENT THAT WILL BE GRADED. Please contact me if you are confused about any aspect of any assignment. I may be able to point you in the right direction to help you get started on the project. See the University's academic honesty policy and my separate posting about academic honesty.

DISCUSSION BOARD: I will post a few general discussion questions as we progress in the class. Your response is required but this is also a place to get your feedback about any aspect of the readings that you do not understand. It should be an easy place to bring up your grade if needed.
