I. Mission:

The mission of First-Year Seminar is to provide first-year students an opportunity (1) to experience and develop knowledge, behaviors and attitudes that promote successful college study and positive campus participation, and (2) to appreciate multiple perspectives that reflect intellectual and cultural diversity within and beyond college.

II. Course Description:

First-Year Seminar is designed to help students develop strategies and skills necessary for a successful college career. Topics include adjusting to college, setting academic goals, managing time and keeping organized, learning and studying in college, preparing for and taking tests, understanding college policies and regulations, and accessing and using SRSU computer technology. Students will learn about SRSU's resources, activities, and rich cultural diversity. Throughout the course, students will use critical thinking skills to make informed choices, to understand their responsibilities for academic success, and to become independent, motivated learners.

III. Course Primary Learning Objectives: By the end of this course the student should be able to

1. Apply personal and academic success strategies that advance college study and intellectual development.
2. Engage in critical analysis and creative thinking.

IV. Student Learning Outcomes: The successful student will be able to

1. Implement personal time management strategies based on short and long term goals; (skills)
2. Describe behaviors that support personal responsibility for learning, characteristics of an effective learner, techniques that promote student success and problem-solving of academic issues, and be able to discuss respect, civility, and academic integrity at SRSU; (knowledge, attitudes, skills)
3. Describe institution, department, and course requirements to earn a college degree and be able to identify SRSU policies in relation to them; (knowledge)
4. Identify and/or utilize college resources, activities, and events and demonstrate use of SRSU technology: student e-mail, SRSU website, Blackboard, and Banner; (knowledge and skills)
5. Exhibit financial literacy in relation to college and beyond; (knowledge and skills) and
6. Discuss the importance of SRSU in the larger community (attitudes or dispositions)

VI. Attendance & Class Participation

As this is a web-based course, you will have a list of assignments to complete online or posted into Blackboard 9. You may work at your own pace on the successful completion of the assigned course modules. Once you have successfully completed a module then the next module will be available to you. Once you have successfully completed all of them, you will receive a notice from the instructor as to that fact. All assignments must be completed by midnight on Monday, May 8, 2017.

VII. Classroom Behaviors

You are encouraged and expected to openly engage in this course via Blackboard, the SRSU website, email, and or through Skype/phone discussions with the instructor; ask questions, share ideas, and express your thoughts. Please be respectful and avoid disruptive and inappropriate language or attitude in your posts or assignments. These behaviors will have a negative effect on your grade.

VIII. Academic Honesty

“The University expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is beyond reproach and to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of their classroom. The University may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty, including but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials.”

--Excerpt from the Student Handbook

IX. Special Needs

It is Sul Ross State University policy to provide reasonable accommodations to students with disabilities. If you would like to request such accommodation because of a physical, mental, or learning disability, please contact the ADA Coordinator for Program Accessibility, who is located in FH 112 or call 432-837-8203. All requests for special accommodations must be related in writing to the professor prior to the third class day.

X. Late Work

All work and assignments must be turned in/presented by Monday, May 8, 2017. Late work will not be accepted; unless the lateness is due to a doctor verified illness or is due to an official SRSU sponsored event, which is verified in writing from the sponsor/instructor of the event, then the work may be accepted at the instructor’s discretion.
