Course description

This course will familiarize students with the issues surrounding concepts of crime, criminals, crime typologies, and societal responses to crime. Students will examine the theoretical, methodological, and policy issues in criminology and criminal justice.

Course objectives

On successful completion of this course, you will be able to:

1. Examine the historical evolution of criminological theory;
2. Recognize the basic concepts associated with criminological theory;
3. Recognize and examine the advantages and disadvantages of the major sources of data on crime trends and patterns collected by the Bureau of Justice Statistics and Office of Justice Programs, and the National Criminal Justice Reference Service;
4. Assess the empirical status of the five major criminological theories (Classical, Rational Choice, or Deterrence; Positivist, Strain, Social and Self-Control, and Social Learning);
5. Examine theoretical developments in criminology including Critical Criminology, Feminist Criminology, Reintegrative Shaming, and Developmental or Life Course Criminology.
6. Examine crime typologies and/or activities including white-collar crime, organized crime, cybercrime, hate crimes, terrorism, homeland security, and drugs.

Course required text and materials

Schram, P., and Tibbetts, S. G. (2014). Introduction to Criminology. Thousand Oaks, CA: SAGE Publications, Inc.

A. Quizzes (25% of grade): There will be a quiz for every chapter. Each quiz will have True/False, multiple choice and short answer. Responses for short answer questions should be well thought out and written in correct grammatical form. Spelling will be graded. Students are expected to take the quizzes by themselves. These will be timed quizzes so be prepared, once you begin you may not exit and return, it has to be completed. Quizzes will be opened on Fridays by 1pm and will close on Sunday by 8pm. There are no make-up quizzes! Failure to access quizzes, assignments or Exams in a timely manner is not an excuse.

B. Discussion Board Assignment (10% of grade): There will be a discussion board question posted every Monday, you will have until the following Thursday to do your original post, each student will also be required to comment in a meaningful way on at least 2 posts by Friday of that week. Discussion Board is worth 10% of total grade, 5% for original post, and 5% for responses. You are expected to keep up with the discussion board on your own.

C. Midterm Exam (20% of grade): The midterm exam will cover questions from Chapters 1-8.

D. Final Exam (20% of grade): The final exam will cover questions from Chapters 9-15.

E. Class Assignments (25% of grade):

Assignments must be submitted by the deadlines set, no exceptions, late work will not be graded. If you do not see the assignment for that week it means you waited past the due date and it is no longer available.

Students will be required to submit work through SafeAssign-there should not be more than 20% of your work coming directly from others work, use your own words! See cheating and plagiarism statement. Number each response; use essay format (introduction, body, and conclusion), grammar and spelling will be graded. Make sure you read comments left on assignments so you know what you need to improve upon.

Ask yourself:

Did you answer all the questions? Did you respond in essay format? Did you check your grammar and spelling?

Cheating and Plagiarism: Students are expected to do their own work on all tests and papers. Cheating on tests and plagiarism on assignments will result in a grade of “F” on that part of the course, a possible grade of “F” for the entire course, and possible recommendation for suspension from the university.

Plagiarism consists of presenting the work of another as one’s own (i.e., without proper acknowledgment of the source) and submitting examinations or other work in whole or in part as one’s own when such work has been prepared by another person or copied from another person (see the Student Handbook).

Important!

See your instructor promptly if you are having problems with your course work or are in need of special assistance.

Support for students with disabilities

Qualified students with disabilities needing academic or other accommodations to ensure full participation in the programs, services and activities at Sul Ross State University should contact the Disability Services Coordinator, in Counseling and Prevention Services, Ferguson Hall 112, Box C-117, (837-8203).
