Course Description

A critical study of American literature written from Reconstruction to the Present.

Course Text

The Norton Anthology of American Literature. Shorter Eighth Edition. Paperback. Volume 2. November 2012. ISBN: 978-0-393-91887-8

English Program Student Learning Objectives

1. Students will be able to construct essays that demonstrate clear topic/thesis, development, organization, and appropriate language.
2. Students will be able to select, evaluate, and synthesize primary and secondary sources and correctly document those sources.
3. Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of a variety of literature, of elements of literature, and of literary genres necessary for success in teaching or in graduate school.

English 4308 Student Learning Outcomes

At the end of the course, students will

- demonstrate knowledge of the American literature written between 1865 and the present: assessed by tests
- demonstrate an understanding of how authors use different elements of literature to convey ideas: assessed by discussion question responses and literary analysis
- demonstrate basic knowledge of the social, philosophical, historical, cultural, and political contexts of American literature: assessed by discussion question responses
- understand different theoretical approaches to literature: assessed by tests and literary analysis
- continue to demonstrate the writing and documentation skills taught in freshman, sophomore English courses including critical thinking, thesis development, organization of essays, appropriate use of sources and documentation of sources, and observing the conventions of standard English--grammar, usage, mechanics, and punctuation: assessed by literary analysis.

Course Policies

Course assignments must be produced in Microsoft Word documents whose file names end in .doc. If you have questions about Blackboard, contact Sandy Bogus at 432-837-8523 or sbogus@sulross.edu or Rusty Klein at rklein@sulross.edu or 432 837 8595.

Late papers will not be accepted, unless you notify me three days before the assignment deadline by a memo email explaining your situation and requesting an extension. The email memo must be professional, revised and edited.

Scholastic Honesty

All work submitted must be your own and must be written exclusively for this class; the use of sources must be appropriately, correctly, and consistently documented. Quotations, paraphrases, or summaries that are not documented and the use of papers written by others constitute plagiarism.

Three different acts are considered plagiarism:

- (1) failing to cite quotations and borrowed ideas,
- (2) failing to enclose borrowed language in quotation marks, and
- (3) failing to put summaries and paraphrases in your own words.

A grade of “F” for the course is earned if the work exhibits any of these kinds of scholastic dishonesty.
