OFFICE: B-103, EAGLE PASS CAMPUS

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

In this course, the student will become acquainted with the Indian tribes of Texas and their contacts with Spanish explorers and conquerors.

The student will also become familiar with the Spanish-Mexican culture that emerged in Texas during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

The student will also learn the events that occurred in Texas during the period that Mexico controlled the area.

The student will also concentrate on the events associated with Texas gaining its independence from Mexico..

The student will also become familiar with the participation of Texas in the Civil War and its aftermath.

The student will also examine the history of Texas in the last quarter of the nineteenth century, the period after reconstruction.

The student will also study the history of Texas during the Progressive period, World War I, and the 1920s.

The student will also examine the effects of the Great Depression and World War II on Texas.

The student will end this course by focusing on events that occurred in Texas during the second half of the twentieth century.

TEXTBOOKS AND EXAMS:

The textbook needed for this course is The History of Texas by Robert A. Calvert, Arnaldo de Leon, and Gregg Cantrell. Students will be responsible for the material in the textbook. Therefore, STUDENTS MUST CAREFULLY STUDY THE TEXTBOOK TO ENABLE THEM TO PASS THEIR EXAMINATIONS.

The student will prove their mastery of the material learned in the textbook by taking five major exams. These exams will be made up of thirty multiple choice questions and the student will have forty-five minutes to answer them. The points earned in those exams will amount to five-hundred by the end of the summer session. In addition, students will also complete five study guides provided by the professor (discussed below) that will count for an additional one hundred points. The letter grade received by the student will correspond to the percentage of points earned during the semester. A student, for example, who ends with 520 points at the end of the summer session will have about an 87% average, and thus will receive a grade of B. The exam dates and completed study guides dates are shown below.

Students will also be required to complete study guides provided by professor. The terms, names, and concepts included in those study guides must be answered to the fullest extent possible from the information in the textbook. The completed study guides should have a minimum of eight single-spaced pages in order to receive some credit for their completion. The completed study guides must be turned in via regular email. Please refer to the date schedule below for due dates on completed study guides and exam dates.
