Submitted to FA by Avram Dumitrescu, November 2020
EXPLANATION OF CONTENTS

Your tenure dossier is a project you want to begin assembling at least three-years before your application deadline. Draw information you have already assembled from your FE3s (annual reviews).

The document should consist of the following sections:

APPLICATION LETTERS
These are cover letters for your tenure application as well as your application for promotion, should you also be applying for it.

CONTRACTS
Include the originals of ALL your annual contracts.

CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT
If you have developed any curriculum, list them here. Include some examples of your syllabi.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
Detail how you have grown professionally during the three-years leading up to your tenure application.

SCHOLARSHIP
List any publications, performances, exhibitions, presentations, etc. you have made or been involved with.

UNIVERSITY SERVICE
Explain how you have helped the institution of Sul Ross State University grow.

COMMUNITY SERVICE
How have you contributed to your community?

EVALUATIONS
Include ALL the evaluations from the past three years, including the comments, good and bad. Get into a habit of printing them to PDF, dating, and archiving them, and printing them for your tenure application.
Dear Faculty Tenure and Promotion Review Committee,

Please find enclosed my application for promotion, as well as the materials for my tenure application.

As per university requirements, I have included a copy of my initial letter of appointment and later reappointments; an up-to-date curriculum vitae; and course evaluations from students, [your department] chairs, and the Dean of [your department’s dean].

[This is your cover letter. Briefly describe your time at Sul Ross with achievements on campus, professionally, and in the community]

Yours,

[your signature and name]
