

Amanda C. Fisher

Education

Sul Ross State University (Alpine, Texas)

Post-Baccalaureate Initial Certification (EC–6 Generalist) 2020

Indiana University (Bloomington, Indiana)

Ph.D., Russian Literature 2019

M.A., Slavic Languages and Literatures 2013

University of Cambridge/British Council (Krakow, Poland)

Certificate of Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (CELTA) 2010

DePauw University (Greencastle, Indiana)

B.A. summa cum laude, Russian Studies (Phi Beta Kappa) 2010

B.M. summa cum laude, Violin Performance 2010

Teaching Experience

Music, English, and Science Instruction

- Classroom teacher, 4th and 5th grades, Fort Davis ISD 2020–present
- Substitute teacher, Fort Davis ISD 2018–2020
- Read Fort Davis! volunteer 2018–2020
- Coordinator and instructor of children’s garden education program at Middle Way House, a domestic violence shelter in Bloomington, Indiana 2014–2015
- Primary instructor of English as a second language, Brytania School of English, Poland 2010–2012
- Private violin and music theory teacher in Virginia and Indiana 2002–2010

Literature and Foreign Language Instruction at Indiana University

- Co-instructor of undergraduate class: “Introduction to Polish Culture” 2016
- Instructor of elementary- to intermediate-level Russian at summer language workshop 2015–2016
- Instructor of self-designed undergraduate literature seminar: “Madmen, Addicts, and Losers: Isolated Figures of Artistic Genius” 2015