

Sergio J. Gonzalez – Curriculum Vitae

650 Gonzalez Ranch Rd. Del Rio,

Texas 78840

Sjg17iz@sulross.edu

830-734-2630

Objective: As a Criminal Justice Adjunct Professor, I teach a diverse student population effectively, assist and guide student(s) in meeting and maximizing their educational journey and support the goals, growth and activities of Sul Ross State University – RGC.

- Earned terminal degree a Doctorate of Jurisprudence of Law.
- Thirty (30) years of legal experience, of which twenty (20) as a State Judge. Highly knowledgeable, skilled, and experienced with courts, judicial system, and criminal justice.
- Experience further includes presiding over a minimum of 15,000 criminal cases. Minimum of nine hundred (900) hours of Continuing Legal Education with emphasis in criminal justice and procedural law.
- In August 2017, SRSU – RGC hired me as an Adjunct Professor. In demonstrating my contributions to this teaching discipline find (pdf) attachment of my SRSU employment file. These documents include but are not limited to an overall commendable rating and evaluation by the appropriate departmental chair, and favorable email correspondence from the SRSU-RGC Dean dated August 22, 2017, and other related emails. In August 2017, I was hired as a Part-time Adjunct Professor. Each fall, spring, summer I / II, I have satisfied the normal teaching responsibilities, and provided an essential and valuable instructional service to your University. I planned, developed, and implemented curriculum, and maintained student rosters, grade books, and completion of final grades by official deadlines. As a Part-time Adjunct Professor, I am qualified and have met the same requirements for professional, experimental, and scholarly preparation as my full-time counterparts in teaching the same disciplines. See SRSU Faculty Handbook Sections 2.19 A, & C. I have effectively taught at high levels two (2) courses each fall, spring, summer I/II, live-teleconference, zoom students from Midland, Texas, web online, and had Courtroom Classroom sessions.
- I am knowledgeable, skilled, and able to teach a wide range of criminal justice courses at your University. My education and experience would be a welcome addition to your university.
- I am committed to support the goals, growth, and activities of Sul Ross State UniversityRGC. In doing so within the SRSU Faculty Handbook policies & guidelines. I would like to develop and establish a non-paid criminal Justice intern program each fall, spring, Summer I & II in Del Rio, Eagle Pass, Uvalde State & Federal District Courts, Adult and Juvenile Probation Departments, Pre-trial Services, DWI/DRUG, Mental Health

Specialty Courts, and GEO Correctional Facility as all the cases within these agencies relate to cases within the criminal justice system. Additionally, in 2018-19 I had (4) Department of Counselling SRSU-RGC graduate students through the supervision of Dr. Todd Russell provided weekly counseling and risk assessment services to post judgment participants/defendants on supervised probation. These same students provided the court bi-weekly updates at special court settings.

- Working with students is fun for me and I possess an unparalleled ability to assess the needs of and motivate the diverse student population and sustain a compelling learning environment for all levels of students at your University.*
- In December 2019, for my Spring 2020 scheduled courses I authorized the Registrar to increase the number of potential student enrollees to forty - five (45). Spring 2020 CRIM 3305 – Enrollees maxed at (45).*
- Professor has implemented Courtroom Class Sessions with guest speakers.*
- Responsible, willing and able to teach 12 credit hours each semester in the wide range area of Criminal Justice. Establishment of office hours, assist diverse student population in developing and guiding each student in their respective degree plan in meeting their graduation requirements.*
- I am committed to Sul Ross University's mission in providing accessible, comprehensive, and life changing education through high quality teaching, research, cultural awareness, creativity, and service.*
-

EMPLOYMENT:

August 2017-Present:

- Part-time Adjunct Professor, Sul Ross State University-Rio Grande College. Face-to-Face, Live Tele-Conference & Online Web Courses created, developed, and implemented. Courses include American Courts; Criminal Substantive Law; Procedural Law; Law & Evidence; Drugs & The Law; Police Ethics & Legal Liability; Crime Scene Investigation; & Forensic Science.*

January 1, 1999-Present:

Court-At-Law Judge, Val Verde County.

November 2, 1990-1998:

Law Offices of Gonzalez, Gonzalez & Gonzalez.

May 4, 1986: Doctorate of Jurisprudence in Law, O.W. Coburn School of Law, Oral Roberts University, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

August 14, 1981: Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice/Public Justice, St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Texas.