

Emily Hendryx, M.Ed., LPC-A

1502 N 7th Street
Alpine, Texas 79830
979-525-1528
Ehendryx@alpineisd.net

Education

Master of Education in School Counseling

Sul Ross State University, Alpine, Texas

December 2021

Bachelor of Science in Education

Sul Ross State University, Alpine, Texas

May 2014

Licensure and Certifications

Licensed Professional Counselor Associate (LPC-A), Texas, 2024

Supervised by LPC-S (Approximately 1,200 supervised clinical hours completed)

Texas Educator Certification

Professional Experience

Elementary School Counselor

Alpine Elementary School, Alpine, Texas

2023 – Present

- Design and implement a comprehensive school counseling program aligned with the ASCA National Model
- Provide individual and small-group counseling services
- Deliver classroom guidance curriculum across grade levels
- Coordinate Section 504 services

- Support crisis intervention and behavioral intervention planning
- Collaborate with administrators, faculty, families, and community agencies

School Counselor

Fort Davis Independent School District, Fort Davis, Texas

July 2022 – 2023

- Counseled students in academic, career, and social-emotional domains
 - Delivered guidance curriculum and small-group interventions
 - Coordinated crisis response and external resources
 - Supported special population students
-

Teaching Experience

3rd Grade Self-Contained Teacher

Alpine Elementary School, Alpine, Texas

August 2021 – May 2022

6th and 8th Grade Science Teacher

Bellville Junior High School, Bellville, Texas

August 2014 – May 2017

Presentations

Hendryx, E. (2023). How to Survive (and Thrive) as a New School Counselor.
Region 18 Counselor Symposium, Education Service Center Region 18.

Professional Service

Region 18 Representative, Rural School Counseling Task Force

Professional Affiliations

Member, American School Counselor Association (ASCA)

Areas of Teaching and Professional Interest

School Counseling Theory and Practice
ASCA National Model Implementation
Ethics in School Counseling
Crisis Intervention and Trauma-Informed Practice
Rural School Counseling Leadership
Child and Adolescent Development
Comprehensive School Counseling Program Design
