

ANYA E. MALLOCH, MS, LAT, ATC

Revised August 2020

anya.malloch@sulross.edu

EDUCATION

Texas State University—San Marcos, TX
M.S. Athletic Training

August 2017 – May 2019
Overall GPA: 3.50

Master's Thesis:

The Effect of Protective Equipment and Mechanism of Injury on Time Loss from Sport-Related Concussions

Michigan State University—East Lansing, MI
B.S. Athletic Training and B.S. Kinesiology

August 2013 – May 2017
Overall GPA: 3.54

ATHLETIC TRAINING EXPERIENCE

Sul Ross State University

- M/W Soccer, M/W Basketball, Softball, and Volleyball (August 2019-Present)
 - Provided certified medical coverage for multiple varsity teams, communicated with coaches regarding athlete's health, used Vivature system for medical documentation, submitted insurance claims with school insurance and through the NCAA Injury Portal

Texas State University

- San Marcos Area Youth Soccer Organization (April-May 2019)
 - Provided certified medical coverage for SMAYSO soccer tournament, communicated with parents regarding child's health concerns, navigated language barriers when English was not the first spoken language
- Texas State Men's and Women's Club Lacrosse Teams (February-April 2019)
 - Provided certified medical coverage for competitions for both teams
- SIVA Women's Crossover Club Volleyball Tournament (March 2019)
 - Provided certified medical coverage for 28 collegiate club volleyball teams
- San Marcos Baptist Academy (November 2017-December 2018)
 - Provided certified medical coverage for athletic events (football, baseball, softball, soccer, and basketball), travelled with football team and assisted with travel preparations
- Texas State Outdoor Track and Field Sunbelt Conference Championship Meet (May 2018)
 - Provided certified medical coverage for all collegiate athletes present
- New Braunfels Middle School Football (October 2017-November 2017)
 - Provided certified medical coverage for middle school football games, promoted proper hydration and nutrition

International Gymnastics Camp (IGC)—Stroudsburg, PA (June 2018-August 2018)

- Managerial experience (coordinated the care of 600+ gymnasts per week from 45 countries), educated gymnasts on preventative care, preceptor to 7 athletic training students, mediated conflicts between fellow staff members to find an ample solution for both parties

Michigan State University

- Swimming and Diving (August 2016-May 2017)
 - Conducted injury evaluations with an emphasis on upper body, travelled with team and assisted with travel preparation, practiced Muscle Energy skills with athletes
- Football (January 2016-May 2016)

ANYA E. MALLOCH, MS, LAT, ATC

Revised August 2020

anya.malloch@sulross.edu

- Administered first-aid care and hydration to athletes during practice and conditioning, maintained organization of athletic training room and storage areas
- Women's Basketball (August 2015-December 2015)
 - Administered first-aid care and hydration to athletes during practice and competition, travelled with team for away games

MEMBERSHIPS

- | | |
|--|----------------|
| ● Southwest Athletic Trainers Association Member #70459 | 2017—Present |
| ● National Athletic Trainers' Association - Member # 70459 | 2014 – Present |
| ● Great Lakes Athletic Trainers Association - Member # 70459 | 2014 – 2017 |
| ● Michigan Athletic Trainers' Society - Member # 70459 | 2014 – 2017 |

EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE

- Sul Ross State University August 2019-Present
Assistant Athletic Trainer/Lecturer in Kinesiology
 - Athletic Trainer with M/W Basketball, M/W Soccer, Volleyball, and Softball
 - Provided certified medical coverage for all varsity athletes at Sul Ross State University
 - Lead Lecturer for Athletic Training courses
 - First Aid (between 15-20 students in each section)
 - Prevention and Care of Athletic Injuries (between 25-30 students in each section)
 - Texas State University August 2017-May 2019
Graduate Teaching Assistant
 - Lead instructor for a variety of lab classes
 - Taping and Bracing (between 10-15 students in each section)
 - Upper Body Evaluation (between 12-18 students in each section)
 - Lower Body Evaluation (between 12-18 students in each section)
 - Assisted with Texas State Athletic Training Program
 - Completed athletic training competencies with undergraduate students as a preceptor
 - Gatorade Summer Sports Camp Summers 2015-2017
- Michigan State University
- Provided medical care as a first responder educated campers on the importance of nutrition and hydration

CERTIFICATIONS

- | | |
|---|---------------------|
| ● IASTM Certified | April 2019—Present |
| ● Pennsylvania Licensure—License # RT007024 | July 2018—Present |
| ● Texas Licensure – License # AT7173 | August 2017—Present |
| ● Michigan Licensure—License # 2601001879 | July 2017—Present |
| ● Board of Certification – BOC # 2000027276 | April 2017—Present |
| ● Red Cross CPR/AED/First Aid Certified | August 2015—Present |