

Gregory W. (Greg) Sanders

gws18ry@sulross.edu

SUMMARY

- Retired from an administrative position with Central Texas College, December 2013. Continue to teach as part-time adjunct instructor of government.
- 14 years teaching experience as an adjunct instructor of government. Taught face-to-face, online, inter-active video conferencing, and hybrid (blended lecture) courses.
- 8 years as a Student Services Advisor, Site Coordinator, and Senior Academic Advisor
- Main teaching areas: U.S. Federal Government, Texas State and Local Government
- Extensive knowledge and training with Blackboard online course management program, and PolyCom and web based interactive video conferencing.
- Extensive knowledge and training with Microsoft Office Professional (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Access, and Outlook)

EDUCATION

Doctoral Study 1982 – Texas Tech University, Lubbock, TX (No Degree)

Master of Art Political Science, 1982 – Sul Ross State University, Alpine, TX

Bachelor of Art Political Science, 1976 – (Southwest) Texas State University, San Marcos, TX

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Teaching:

- 2001 – 2014 Adjunct Instructor of Government, Central Texas College, Killeen, TX. Classroom and online instruction of traditional students and dual credit high school students
- 2000 – 2001 Adjunct Instructor of Government, Austin Community College, Austin, TX

Administrative:

- 2008 – 2013 Student Services Advisor/Coordinator, Central Texas College, Killeen, TX. Managed the community education and high school dual credit programs at two rural independent school districts
- 2006 – 2008 Sr. Academic Advisor, Texas Tech University/Highland Lakes, Marble Falls, TX. Advised undergraduate and graduate students about admission to the University, its degree programs, and course registration