Course Description

English 2311 teaches students the rhetorical principles and writing practices necessary for producing effective business letters, memos, instructions, reports, and collaborative projects in professional contexts (SLOs 1, 3). The curriculum is informed by current research in rhetoric and professional writing and is guided by the needs and practices of business, industry, and society at large, as well as by the expectations of SRSU students and programs (SLO 2). English 2311 should take place in a networked computer classroom to ensure that students taking the course are prepared for the writing environment of the 21st-century workplace (SLO 4). The course teaches the rhetorical principles that help students shape their professional writing ethically, for multiple audiences, in a variety of professional situations (SLO 2).

PROJECTS

Employment Project (370 points)

Step 1 of the project asks you to learn about and use various web-based resources for job seekers and select two jobs to pursue. Step 2 asks you to prepare resume/s suitable for the positions. Step 3 asks you to prepare cover letters (i.e., "Job Application Letters), each of which are "tailored" to its audience. In Step 4, you will assess your experience in a "Project Assessment Document," which is in memo format (header with to, from, date, re and block paragraphs with headings)

Employment Project Elements:

1. Cover Memo, explaining how you adapted your two letters differently for the two different audiences and why (Project Assessment Document). 100 points
2. Two contrasting letters of application. 100 points
3. One resume. 100 points
4. Three pre-writing activities (70 points; 10 points each)

Instructions Project (250 points)

Giving special attention to graphics and layout, compose a brief instruction manual showing how to do something, how to assemble something or how something works. Prior to the project, analyze the rhetorical and design strategies in one example of instructions you find yourself. The project can convey a skill or a kind of technical knowledge. Then perform a usability study, testing to see if some is able to follow your instructions. Select an instructions project which in some way serves the needs of your client in the service learning project. There will also be a preliminary exercise which uses Legos or another form of module.

1. Examining Examples to Show Do's & Don'ts (50)
2. Lego Instructions with Usability Study and Cover Memo with Usability Test results (150)
3. Applied set of Instructions (100)

White Paper Research Project (350 points total)

For the third project, you will be asked to do web-based research (and perhaps some library research) and to write an informative report about any issue important to you or your field of study. Typically in the past this has been an e-commerce project on technology in electronic commerce. This project will have five phases:

1. A rhetorical analysis of two published white papers. (50)
2. A statement of purpose (30)
3. Annotated Bibliography (100)
4. A graphic illustrating an important idea in your report (50 submit as draft)
5. A well-designed final report with graphics and bibliographical citation of sources (100)

GRADING

You can earn up to 1000 total possible points. The number of points needed to earn the following grades are: 900-1000=A, 800-899=B, 700-799=C, 600-699=D, 0-599=F.

Writing Center and Academic Learning Center

Tutors in the library are available to help you with any problems you may have with an assignment. Take advantage of this service any time you need help. The tutors are there for you. You may contact the Writing Center at extension 8270 and emailwriting@sulross.edu

Plagiarism and Academic Integrity

Dishonest acts, such as plagiarism (using words or a specific author's ideas from another source without acknowledging the source) or collusion (having other people write parts of your paper for you), may result in an "F" on the assignment and may lead to a disciplinary hearing conducted through the office of the Dean of Students, which could result in suspension or expulsion from SRSU. If you have questions about whether your use of other sources (such as books, websites, friends, or Writing Center tutors) is fair or not, ask before turning in the work that you have a question about. Examine instructions you find in print or online and write a list of what to do and what not to do in instructions design. These are instructions on designing instructions with good and bad examples.
