FINAL for TUESDAY class is Wednesday, DEC 12 @ 3:00

SUPPLY KIT AND LAB FEE: The fee for this class is $90.00 and includes all materials. This fee may be divided into three payments and may be paid in class or into the Art Stores account at the cashiers office (must bring receipt). Down payment must be made before any supplies are handed out!
A supply list with costs will be provided.STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES (SLO's)

This beginning class introduces the concepts that address the following SACS Program Learning outcomes, that will aid the graduating art student's ability to:

- Expressively communicate an original idea or concept visually.
- Demonstrate technical mastery of materials and traditional artistic skills within one area of specialization, i.e. painting, drawing, ceramics and/or sculpture.
- Demonstrate proficiency in discipline specific writing.
- Demonstrate knowledge of professional practices in art.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. The development of good observational, compositional and drawing skills.
2. To learn to think visually, to learn to "see". (don't believe your brain)!
3. To begin to expressively communicate an original idea or concept visually.
4. To begin to develop drawing skills that will provide a firm foundation for further studies in the field of fine arts.
5. To relate the concept of each assignment to the major elements of Art, To begin to apply the elements of design to drawings, and build upon ideas.
6. Understand how to use correct terminology in writing about Art.
7. To learn time management: and complete each assignment on time and to scale, to put in the time and effort it takes to develop a drawing; be willing to experiment, work outside of a comfort zone and take chances.

COURSE STRUCTURE:

Drawing I is based on the formal "elements" of good design: the use of Line, Value, Texture, Space, and Color. Each week is dedicated to one these elements, through the process of direct observation. Towards the end of the semester, the major principles are applied to the concept of composition in art, through the used of the principles combined with the elements.

GUIDELINES :
Attendance Policy

- * The structure of the course requires consistent attendance.
Sul Ross policy states that one absence is equal to 45 minutes.
This means each class missed is 3.5 absences.
Three (3) absences from drawing class may result in the lowering of the final evaluation by one letter grade, four (4) absences could result in failure!
- * I assume that if a student is not attending class, it is for a valid reason, therefore, I do not need doctor's notes.
- * If there is an emergency situation let me know *as soon as possible!
- * Tardiness, and leaving early will be considered as partial absences.

Lectures, demonstrations, critiques and assignment explanations will occur during the studio schedule time slot each week. This class is required to cover 96 studio class hours,

The student is expected to finish work outside of class.

A general rule of thumb is that your work outside of class equals your time in class. I try to keep the out of class work around 7 hours per week (1 hour per day). Out of class assignments sketchbook assignments and weekly written analysis of contemporary /historical drawings, reading and reading quizzes, plus finishing longer projects at the end of the semester.

It is expected that each student will attend all required hours of the studio course. Coming to class late and leaving early will be considered partial absences.

Work not turned in on time must still be turned in for assessment and will reflect the lateness of the missed deadline. Do not expect me to ask you for your late work, it is your responsibility.

This class ends at 4:50. Do not leave before that time without permission!

Do NOT assume you are finished without asking. If you are finished start something else!

Arriving late and leaving early will be considered partial absences. 3 partial absences equal 1 absence.

A break will be given halfway through class, sometimes twice. Wait until the instructor gives the break.

CLASSWORK /LATE WORK

- You should be prepared to draw each class period.
- The weekly assignments calendar will be posted on line and handed out.
- Be sure your name is printed neatly & small on the bottom right corner of your drawings, with the date.
- Be sure to "FIX" your drawings. It is unfair to ruin another person's work because of your sloppiness or forgetfulness. I will deduct a full letter grade for this!

GRADING:

Grading is on a 100 point scale. Add up the work, divide by amount, multiply by percentage of grade.

Your grade will be given at mid-semester and at final review. This grade will be a combination of a grade on your drawings, your sketchbook, attendance, and participation.

In grading your drawings:

- Understanding of each assignment.
- Technique and use of medium
- Compositional structure
- Timeliness
- Originality, initiative

A half done drawing is 50% done, or a 50!

The grade breakdown is as follows:

30 % midterm portfolio

30 % final portfolio

10 % written analysis papers

10 % sketchbook

10 % quizzes and Final Test

10 % Final Project

A= Excellent/ beyond expectations (90-100)
B= Above Average (80-89)
C= Average (70-79)
D= Below average but passing (65-69)
F= Failure to meet the minimum requirements of the class (below 65 or D-)

HOMEWORK:

Written Analysis Assignments, (SLO #3):

Always include your name and the topic of the assignment and date the paper was ASSIGNED!

The objective of this exercise is study a work of an artist whose style, techniques or compositional mannerisms might at some point be applied into your own developing style. The main objective is to analysis how the artist handles the medium, and the assumed intent of why the work was done.

This assignment is designed to introduce the student to a variety of historical and contemporary artist's figure drawings. At the same time it will familiarize the student with the terminology and analytical skills used in discussing artwork and by preference allow the student to understand their own artistic inclinations through the work of others.

The analysis should be short and concise. Please organize it in this manner.

Photocopy of work. You may write on back or in sketchbook

The title, artist and date (time period completed). Write this out.

Medium and Size

Compositional elements: Use of line, value, depth, texture space, balance, horizon line, rabatment

The artist's intent : you may have to guess.

Sketchbook Assignments will be given daily and will be due in the next class period, at the beginning of class.

Quizzes and Final Test Weekly reading quizzes are posted on Blackboard to make sure reading assignments are being done, and students are prepared for class. These multiple choice and T/F tests are posted until 15 minutes before class begins. Make up tests are available. A major terminology test will be given at the end of the semester.

Reading Assignments: Weekly reading assignments are crucial to understanding the work in class. Weekly chapter quizzes will be posted on Blackboard.

Basically to get a good grade:

- Have good attendance.
- Fulfill the goals of each problem.
- Complete work on time and in scale, All work is 18" x 24", unless assigned smaller.
- Be willing to put in enough time to develop your drawings.
- Always strive for quality work, work to the best of your ability, don't compare.

HEALTH AND SAFETY:

Toxins are inherent to all studio art classes and your health and Safety, as well as that of your fellow students is important! Use Baby wipes regularly. Keep your hands clean and do not touch your face. Under no circumstances are you to smear charcoal or pastels on another student (this will result in an "F" for the day). Gently tap your paper to shake of dust. DO NOT BLOW ON IT! Use fixative regularly and use the fixative in a spray booth or outside. Wipe your easel clean at the end of each session! No Bare feet!

CLASS EVALUATIONS:

Class evaluations are put up on Blackboard at the end of every semester. Besides common questions about the class, concepts for improvement and constructive criticism can be addressed. This evaluations are critical for all instructors and aid in their evaluations, raises and promotions. Your input counts!!!

Academic honesty: The University expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is beyond reproach. The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including but not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. More information on this can be found in the SRSU Rules & Regulations supplement to the Student Handbook.

Cell phones must be turned off or set on a quiet vibrate and may not be answered during class.

An “F” for the day will be given to those who break this policy.

Emergency personnel and family emergencies are exempt only if you let me know in advance.

Music: Personal “headgear” may be not be used.

After mid-semester this policy may change as assignments get longer. At that time, headgear may worn during studio class time only, after demos and lectures and must be kept on low volume, so you can hear when someone talks to you – and no one else can hear it.

Attendance: The majority of your grade is based on work done during class, therefore, it is expected that each student will attend all required hours of class (96 studio class hours).

Class runs until ten of- Do not leave early unless you have my permission!

Sul Ross policy states a student can be dropped after 9 (nine) absences and that one absence is equal to 50 minutes. More than 2 absences from a studio class will result in the lowering of the final evaluation by one letter grade. You may be dropped with Three (3) absences. Tardiness, and leaving early will be considered as partial absences, three of which will equal an absence. More than 8 minutes late is a tardy.

If you need to miss a class due to an authorized School activity, You need to let me know ahead of time, find out what work you will be missing and make sure you get completed for a grade. Your name must also be on the explained absence list.

Explained absence list.

When a student has to miss a class due to an authorized University activity, it will be the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor of the class in advance. The department responsible for the authorized University activity will also notify instructors through the Student Life Office by providing an explained absence list to the office. Instructors will give students participating in an authorized University activity the opportunity to make up class work, including tests, within a reasonable time and at the convenience of the instructor.

Email: All students are required to maintain an @sulross.edu computer account. This account provides both an online identification key and a University Official Email Address. The University sends much of its correspondence solely through email. This includes policy announcements, emergency notices, event notifications, financial assistance information, course syllabi and requirements, and correspondence between faculty and students. Such correspondence is mailed only to the university official Email Address.

Disciplinary Action Code: #21. (Partial quote) “Campus disruptive activities includes disorderly classroom conduct that obstructs, interferes with, inhibits and/or disrupts teaching and/or classroom activities”. If you smell like alcohol or Marijuana, I will ask you to leave class and not come back.

All information is posted on Blackboard. Written and sketchbooks assignments are given on the calendar on the date they are assigned and are due in the following class period. They will be checked during class unless otherwise stated.

Reading assignments have a test on-line that will be on until 30 minutes before class begins.
