COURSE DESCRIPTION: FLP 2101 Freshman Leadership Program Sophomore Assistant (1-0). This course is developed for students who exhibit leadership potential in the Freshman Leadership Program (FLP). Students receive a scholarship to attend and are expected to lend their talents to the Sul Ross State University through student clubs and the Freshman Leadership Program. It is an introductory course covering a broad range of leadership topics from self-development and understanding self to group behavior, organizational design, ethics and teamwork. Prerequisite: FLP 1101

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. To provide students with the theoretical and experiential basis from which they will acquire and enhance their knowledge and skills in the following areas: Personal Development, Leadership Development and Organizational Dynamics.
2. To assist students in both applying acquired skills and knowledge to real-life situations (both on and off campus)
3. To provide a forum for instructor-student interactions and a classroom environment that enhances the quality of learning and the life of the student.
4. To make learning fun.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

General Information: All written assignments will be critiqued for both content and appropriate composition. Individual and group presentations will be critiqued for both content and presentation style. (Leaders must be able to communicate effectively.)

Grading Scale

C 700 - 799

D 600 - 699

F 599 and below

NOTHING can be done to change your final grade once it is assigned. (no extra credit, extra assignments, or make-up work etc. will be accepted) Multiple opportunities are given to students to earn their course grade during the semester.

Class Attendance (150 pts) Coming to class on time, all the time is an expectation that is highly regarded. If you cannot make it to class, please discuss it with your instructor in advance.

Class Participation (100 pts) Participation in discussions and participation in activities are all important and expected. These are activities that cannot be made up

Class Presentations (200pts) Class presentation give you the opportunity to practice public speaking in a friendly environment. Topics in most cases are outlined in the class schedule.

Weekly Journals (150 pts) Students will submit a weekly journal to me through my e-mail address: leodo@sulross.edu The Journal assignment will be accepted until Saturday midnight. That is the timeframe you are allowed to submit your weekly journal. There are no makeup journals; if it does not come in within this timeline you will receive a zero for that week's journal. Each journal is graded based on content and timeliness. Content topics are specified on the Class Schedule for each week. Normally, I acknowledge receiving the journal with limited, if any discussion.

Students will submit a weekly journal to me through e-mail (leodo@sulross.edu). Your first Journal assignment is due Saturday, September 1 by midnight. That is the timeframe you are allowed to submit your weekly journal. There are no makeup journals; if it does not come in within this timeline you will receive a zero for that week's journal. Each journal is graded based on content and timeliness. Content topics are specified on the Class Schedule for each week.

Fund Raising (200 pts) The Sophomore assistants will help the class coordinate and conduct fund raising projects. They will discuss ideas with the class and conduct the actual events. Student participation in events and submission of assigned funds are an integral part of the Fall FLP grade.

Adopt –A- Highway cleanup Project (100pts) The FLP students have participated in the state of Texas adopt-a- highway program for years. We have our own designated area 1 mile north of town on Highway 118 towards Fort Davis. We have both sides of the highway all materials are provided by TexDOT..

Lighting the Bar-SR-Bar. (100pts) This is one of the most time honored traditions at Sul Ross State University many students have participated in cleaning whitewashing and lighting the Bar-SR-Bar on Hancock hill. The objective is to keep the Bar-SR-Bar as clean as possible it represents Sul Ross and us as FLP leaders.

Write all papers in a 12 pt font, Times New Roman.
