Course Description

Survey of a variety of literary modes and genres from different cultures and time periods.

Student Learning Outcomes
ENGLISH (UNDERGRADUATE)

Graduating students will demonstrate that they can

- Construct essays that demonstrate unity, organization, coherence, and development
- Analyze literary works by applying principles of literary criticism or theory
- Produce research papers that demonstrate the ability to locate a variety of acceptable sources, employ them effectively through quotations or paraphrases, integrate them smoothly into the writer's own prose, and document them correctly using MLA format
- Demonstrate creativity or originality of thought in written or multimedia projects
- Compare/contrast and analyze major works and periods within World, English, and American literature.
- Edit their writing to conform to the grammar and punctuation rules of standard written English

Attendance

Because this is a skills and discussion-based course, regular attendance and promptness are expected in this class. You may, however, miss three classes without penalty. After these absences, each class you miss will lower your final grade. I make no distinction between excused and unexcused absence (except for limited, university-approved situations). If you arrive more than ten minutes late, or leave early, you will be counted absent. If you miss more than six classes, you may not pass ENG 2323.

Deadlines

Submitting assignments on time means turning them in at the beginning of class on the day they are due. If you turn in late assignments, you will be penalized one half letter grade for every class meeting late. Excuses for late work—including “computer problems” and “car trouble”—are always unacceptable. If you elect to use a free absence, your essays and other assignments are still due. I will grant extended deadlines only in the case of a documented personal illness, documented emergency, or documented conflicting university function. No exceptions! It is your responsibility to

1. Notify me before the class of your situation—either by e-mail or voice mail;
2. Have a friend deliver your work to me at class or at my office before 4:30 p.m. on the due date; OR
3. Set an alternative deadline with me; AND
4. Provide official documentation of your situation.

Participation

Active and appropriate class participation in group and individual activities is one step toward getting the most out of this class. Active participation will help your course grade; lack of or inappropriate participation may hurt your course grade. Additionally, please turn off all mobile phones and other similar devices before you enter the classroom. Anyone using a mobile phone will be asked to leave and will incur an absence.

Quizzes/Reading Responses

One ongoing part of this class will be weekly quizzes and reading responses. Think of them as a way to prepare for class discussion and to work through ideas for your essay/exams. All entries should be articulate and thoughtful. All quizzes and reading responses will be given in class and cannot be made up. I will drop your lowest three quiz scores.

Out-of-Class Essay Assignments

You will write one out-of-class essays for this class. All essays must be typed or word processed, with standard (1) margins and font size (12 point).

Grading

Quizzes/Responses	15%
Participation	15%
Presentation	10%
Paper One	20%
Mid-term exam	20%
Final exam	20%

Grade Distribution

A = 90-100%
B = 80-89%
C = 70-79%
D = 60-69%
F = 0-59%

Plagiarism & Intellectual Honesty

All writing and quiz responses must be your own work. The sole exception applies to external material (ideas and quotes) appropriately incorporated and cited. Plagiarism or other forms of cheating will not be tolerated, and will be severely punished. They will result in a "0" for the assignment and may lead to failure of the class and disciplinary action by the university.
