ED 5322 Behavior Management--Summer II 2019

Course Description:

(3-0) An advanced study of ways to design and implement instructional intervention for the remediation, compensation, or adjustment to the exceptional learner's deficiency.

Required Textbook: Shea, T.M. & Bauer, A.M. (2012). Behavior management: A practical approach for educators (10th ed.). Boston: Pearson. ISBN 9780137085040

Note: Check your textbook to be certain that yours has the correct ISBN as indicated above. There are some versions of the text that do not contain the correct chapters! If you have the right book, your Chapter 5 will be "Functional Behavioral Assessment." Without the correct text, you won't be able to complete the required assignments.

Requirements:

Students will:

- Participate and collaborate in online discussions, assignments, and activities.
- Utilize Blackboard on the SRSU website to fulfill course requirements.
- Satisfactorily pass course quizzes and exams.
- Practice professional conduct and ethics and respectful learning exchanges.
- Preserve confidentiality of information shared regarding student, family, or school district experiences.

Additional Requirement for Certification:

Every student enrolled in courses for certification through Sul Ross State University will be required to purchase and pass an online practice exam. The exam is available through CertifyTeacher.com and scores must be submitted to your major advisor before approval to take the state exam (TExES) is granted. Please see your advisor for further information.

Assignment Descriptions

- We will be covering an enormous amount of information in a very short amount of time. A large part of the graduate student responsibility in this course will be to devote time to the reading of the required chapters. If students do not carefully read each chapter, they will be unable to complete course assignments satisfactorily. You are encouraged to work ahead.
- Students should refer to the Online Participation Policy as explained in the Participation section on pages 4 and 5 of this syllabus. Course enrollment constitutes agreement to comply with this policy, and all students are required to post an Online Participation Agreement on the Discussion Board in order to remain in the course.
- Discussion Board posts will be graded on the original post plus a quality response to another student. The original post is worth a maximum of 15 points, and the required response to another student is worth a maximum of 5 points. Instructions for each forum are found on Blackboard on the Discussion Board.
- Participation Points are awarded. All students begin with 20 points. For each instance of non-response within the required week (either to an instructor email or failing to reply to an instructor's post on the Discussion Board), 4 points will be deducted. Students may be dropped from the course for nonresponse in accordance with the Online Participation Policy.
- Chapter Quizzes will be given on Blackboard and will cover assigned reading. Details are found on Blackboard.
- A Module Assignment will replace one designated chapter quiz. In order to complete the Module Assignment, the assigned chapter for that week must be carefully studied. Instructions are found on Blackboard.
- There will be a major FBA Assignment in this course. In this assignment, you will apply all that you have learned from course materials and activities. You will be required to find a volunteer child and gain parental permission in order to complete the assignment. If you have not carefully read each chapter and assimilated the information, you will be unable to complete the FBA Assignment. Instructions and detailed information regarding the FBA Assignment are found on Blackboard.
- All assignments are due before the deadline as printed in this syllabus. Each assignment is due no later than 11:55 p.m. Central Time on the designated date. No late assignments will be accepted.

Participation:

This is a web-delivered course and therefore is subject to the Sul Ross State University online participation policy. It is the student's responsibility to check the Discussion Board and Sul Ross email continuously for the duration of the course. Because ED 5322 is delivered entirely online, participation will be evaluated in Blackboard online discussions. It is the student's responsibility to check the Discussion Board and Sul Ross email continuously for the duration of the course. It is policy at Sul Ross State University that, if a student is enrolled in a web-delivered course and fails to stay active for a period of 3 weeks in a long semester, or for 1 week during a summer session, fails to submit assignments, and/or does not reply to emails from the instructor, he/she will be dropped from the course with a grade of "F."

You are expected to participate in the online activities and discussions. You are required to check daily both your Sul Ross email and the "Important Information from Dr. Olive" Discussion Board forum, and to promptly reply. You must reply to any email from the instructor within one week, and you must reply to each post of the instructor on the "Important Information from Dr. Olive" Discussion Board forum within one week. Failing to do so will result in the loss of Participation points, and may lead to being dropped from the course with a grade of "F." Students in web-enhanced or web classes are expected to log in several times each week to the Blackboard course site on the Internet. The instructor will monitor the Blackboard log-ins for attendance.

You are free to work at your convenience as long as you meet the assignment deadlines. No late assignments will be accepted. You are encouraged to work ahead. Your final course grade will be affected by the quality of your participation. Your postings and responses on the Discussion Board should give evidence that you have completed the assigned readings and viewing of the required videos and attached documents. Your written communication should reflect professional courtesy toward the instructor and fellow students.

Distance Education Statement: Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university's academic support services, such as Smarthinking, library resources, such as online databases, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Students should correspond using Sul Ross email accounts and submit online assignments through Blackboard, which requires secure login information to verify students' identities and to protect students' information. This course requires students to maintain adequate technology to open and play the required videos specified on the Blackboard course site. The procedures for filing a student complaint are included in the student handbook. Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software, according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website.

SRSU Disability Services: Sul Ross State University is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. It is the student's responsibility to initiate a request for accessibility services. Students seeking disability services must contact Mary Schwartz, M.Ed., LPC, in Counseling and Accessibility Services, Ferguson Hall, Room 112. The mailing address is P.O. Box C-122, Sul Ross State University, Alpine, TX 79832. Telephone: 432-837-8691. Email: mschwartz@sulross.edu
