

Course Description

This is an advanced concept and technique class in Painting (watercolor , oil or acrylic) or Drawing (pastel, graphite or Charcoal). Development of thematic concept and consistency in medium is required Color theory, composition, advanced techniques and participation in group critiques are an important aspect of this class.

Students may only work in one medium per semester, as decided on with the instructor.

This is a multi level class with 3301, 4301, 4302 and 5304 Graduate students.

REQUIRED WORK:

- A. A Series of color studies of the colors you use on your palette, slip-sheeted and arranged in a binder. Each page should list the name and brand of the hue, and pigment number. These pigment studies should include complimentary mixes, plus tones and tints of each color. New colors should be added to your binder each semester and organized the same way. This binder will be updated every semester. I would like to see experimentation to the way you learn to mix and use colors and attention to your personal palette.
- B. Evidence of compositional and technical concerns developed prior to the beginning of each assignment. This can be a thumbnail, a Photoshop study, or a series of tests. These must precede each assignment. Specific assignments may be given to aid the individual student needs. 2 -9x12” quick studies will accompany paintings 3&4, see next item.
- C. You must choose one medium and stick to it all semester. You will have 7 specific concept assignments for the semester.
- Assignment #1 COLOR in the composition, using full color.
 - Assignment #2 SURFACE in the composition
 - Assignment # 3 CONCEPT in the composition
 - Assignment #4, SPACE in the composition
 - Assignment # 5- in the manner of...
 - Assignment # 6- open concept based on past ideas.
 - Assignment # 7- open concept based on cumulative of ideas.

Please see the attached sheet for goals and ideas.

All work must show evidence of consistent work habits and intent through out the semester.

Students must be able to discuss use of Composition: Focal points, spatial relations, color theory and palette choices, texture, content/context to Art History, and use of thematics.

The work must show evidence of consistent work habits and intent through out the semester. Although a set size format and number of works been established, individual directions and specific ideas can be substituted with the permission of the instructor as long as the project and the amount of work is equal to the original portfolio.

- D. You need to subscribe on-line (free) to the art magazine Hyperallergic <http://hyperallergic.com> and High Fructose, and read them regularly. Be ready to discuss it during critique class. Based on your readings, write 2 essays on contemporary artists who work in a style, or have concepts similar to yours and who are alive today will accompany each of the first two drawing/painting assignments; You must include a brief biography, and why this artist is known. Be sure to properly cite your work. Your third paper may be an analysis of an historical artist or you may watch a video based on a technique you don't know - review the emphasis of it, and discuss the concepts & practicality. Be sure to properly cite it!

E. WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS:

Written assignments will be turned in every two weeks when work is due.

Written Assignment #1:

When viewing your chosen medium how does one make an aesthetic critique of art? As an example, what qualities do we look for when viewing a painting? How is it different than a drawing? What about jewelry, sculpture, ceramics and photography? Be prepared to explain this to the group at critique.

Written Assignment #2: Write a review of a video referencing a technique in your medium that is not familiar to you. This review will accompany the first drawing/painting assignments. Be sure to properly cite the video.

Written Assignment #3 and #4: You need to subscribe on-line (free) to the art magazine Hyperallergic <http://hyperallergic.com> or High Fructose, and read it regularly. Be ready to discuss it during critique class.

Based on your readings, write 2 essays on contemporary artists who work in a style, or have concepts similar to yours and who are alive today will accompany each of the first three drawing/painting assignments; these will be due with your second and third drawing/painting assignments;

You must include a brief biography, and why this artist is known. Be sure to properly cite your work.

Written Assignment #5:

“What is the basis for your work and its historical basis?” elaborate on one of the concepts you have investigated and relate it into contemporary trends within your medium.

Written Assignment #6: Artist Statement Draft.

“What is the basis for your work, its historical basis and its contemporary relationship?”

Using this statement, elaborate the concept and turn it into a simple Artist’s Statement that discusses your work, its development and its relationship to Contemporary art.

F. CD: photograph all of the work done this semester. Jpegs should be 300dpi, color correct, cropped to size and labeled with name and number (fairlie#1.jpeg). These are due in the day of finals.

Also include a typed word document with your name, title, medium, size, and date completed. This should correspond to your jpeg images. See me if you need help.

Any good text that helps you through the subject matter.

ATTENDANCE:

The structure of the “upper level studio” class course requires consistent attendance. This class is required to cover 96 studio class hours.

You should be prepared to put in at least 10-15 hours per week to finish your work. This means Saturday classes are critique only. You are expected to paint regularly, and have a scheduled studio hours!

Work not finished by the due date, will be dropped a letter grade per class day.

After 4 class days the grade becomes an “F”.

Class is scheduled for 6 hours a week, and I expect you to work at least 3-10 in the studio outside of class, You need to be in the studio during scheduled class hours.

Scheduled critiques and personal critique times will be held on opposite weeks and both require constant attendance! If you can't be there, I need to know in advance! 837-8258 or 294-1313.

More than three (3) absences without an official excuse will result in an evaluation adjustment at the end of the semester.

Assignments due:

Assignments should be completed every two weeks, with the exception of Assignment one, which is the first two small paintings. They will be due the third week.

Monthly Critiques will be held every once a month on a Saturday from 11-2. We will look at two new finished projects each critique. Each student will have a few minutes to present ideas and a total of 10 minutes for the critique.

CRITIQUES:

Personal critique times will be held during class hours or scheduled individually. Monthly critiques will be on Saturdays. Both require constant attendance!

If you can't be there, I need to know in advance! 837-8258 or 294-1313.

You are expected to be working daily. I should be able to walk in and see your progress, give you pointers and critiques. If you are not in when I show up, you are considered absent.

Monthly Critiques will be held every once a month. Large group critiques will be held mid semester on Friday from 11:00-2:00. We will look at two new finished projects each critique. Each student will present their concept and problematic issues. A total of 5-8 minutes per person will be allotted for the critique.

Artist Statement:

This is a simple statement that will explain the motivation behind your paintings, the reason for the colors and techniques you chose, and how it ties into your other works or interests. Every semester this is built upon in preparation for a show.

If there is an emergency situation let me know as soon as possible!

Tardiness, and leaving early will be considered as partial absences.

GRADING

I grade on a 100 point scale. A composition that is 50% done is a 50.

You MUST finish your assignments in sequential order, you may start a new one or two at a time, but you must finish them.

A grade will be given at mid-semester and at final review. This grade will be a combination of a grade on your paintings, your studies, critique attendance, and participation.

In grading your work, I will look for the

- * Idea development
- * Compositional structure: Design, value, space, and color!!!
- * Technique and use of medium
- * Originality and initiative

Unfinished work will not be graded higher than a 75, (C).

Evaluation:

- A. 80% Final Portfolio
- B. 10% Planar studies
- C. 10% Critiques, Papers*, Jpegs, Statements

Disabilities: Please notify me if you have a disability that requires accommodation. If you would like to request such accommodation because of a physical, mental, or learning disability contact Mary Schwartz M.Ed., LPC Director of Counseling & Accessibility Services, Ferguson Hall 112 -432 837-8203

Academic honesty: The University expects all students to engage in all academic pursuits in a manner that is beyond reproach. The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including but not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials. More information on this can be found in the SRSU Rules & Regulations supplement to the Student Handbook.

Cell phones must be set on soft vibrate and may not be answered in class. Personal head gear can be worn but should be low enough that you can hear someone talking to you and no one else can hear you. Music may be played in the classroom as long as all students want to hear it.

Since this class is held in a different building, off campus, I will have my cell phone on and be available if you or another student needs to call me.

Answering phone calls for Emergency personnel and family emergencies are exempt only if you let me know in advance. Be considerate of your fellow studio mates. Group music is fine if everyone agrees to it.

Studio Hours: The majority of your grade is based on work done during class, therefore, it is expected that each student will attend all required hours of class (96 studio class hours).

Sul Ross policy states that one absence is equal to 50 minutes. More than three (3) absences from drawing class will result in the lowering of the final evaluation by one letter grade. Tardiness, and leaving early will be considered as partial absences. Your name will be given to UDPS for building and room access. No one is allowed to “hang out” or visit. Food should be eaten in the hall, not in the studio.

Disciplinary Action Code:

#21. (Partial quote) “Campus disruptive activities includes disorderly classroom conduct that obstructs, interferes with, inhibits and/or disrupts teaching and/or classroom activities”. If you smell like alcohol or Marijuana, I will ask you to leave class and not come back.

DO NOT bring friends into the Studio to “Hang Out” while you work.

HEALTH AND SAFETY:

Toxins are inherent to all studio art classes and your health and safety, as well as that of your fellow students is important! Keep your hands/arms clean of pigment, do not touch your face, if you use solvent, wash your hands after you use it. When using charcoal or pastels, gently tap your paper to shake of dust. DO NOT BLOW ON IT! Use fixative on drawings regularly and use the fixative in a spray booth or outside. Wipe your easel; clean the floor and taborettes at the end of each session! Be consciences of your fellow students.

CLASS EVALUATIONS:

Class evaluations are put up on Blackboard at the end of every semester. Besides common questions about the class, concepts for improvement and constructive criticism can be addressed. This evaluations are critical for all instructors and aid in their evaluations, raises and promotions. Your input counts!!!
