Course Description

A study of general laws applying to all states concerning education; an in-depth study of cases and decisions affecting current education.

Primary Text

Required:

Walsh, J., Kemerer, F., Maniotis, L., The Educator's Guide to Texas School Law. (8th edition), University of Texas Press, Austin. ISBN#: 978-0-292-76084-4.

Suggested:

American Psychological Association (2010). Publication manual of the American Psychological Association (6th ed.). Washington, D. C.: Author. ISBN: 1557988102.

Utilize APA style format on all papers.

You are required to submit all documents in Microsoft WORD in 12 point font, Times New Roman.

Student Expectations

The student is expected to participate in the course by attending all classes, by reading the assigned readings, submitting comments to the discussion forums, submitting assignments, and completing exams in a timely fashion.

Course Objectives:

Students will acquire a foundation and develop a philosophy of school law that will enable them to function as an educator in Texas within ethical and legal boundaries. The course will be guided by the competencies listed that are correlated to the knowledge framework for the certification of principals in Texas.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Know how to implement policies and procedures that promote professional educator compliance with The Code of Ethics and Standard Practice for Texas Educators. (SBEC b-2)*
2. Know how to apply local, state, and federal laws and policies to support sound decisions while considering implications related to all school operations and programs. (SBEC f-6)*
3. Know how to use emerging issues, legal requirements, and other information as a basis for campus curriculum planning. (SBEC g-1)*
4. Know how to implement effective, appropriate, and legal strategies for the recruitment, screening, selection, assignment, induction, development, evaluation, promotion, discipline, and dismissal of campus staff. (SBEC d-4)*
5. Know how to acquire, allocate, and manage human, material, and financial resources according to district policies and campus priorities. (SBEC f-7)*
6. Know how to facilitate the implementation of sound, research-based theories and techniques of classroom management, student discipline, and school safety to ensure an environment conducive to teaching and learning. (SBEC h-6)*

*State Board of Educator Certification Standards for Principals

Course Format

The course will require students to do independent research work and complete outside assignments independently. Timelines for due assignments must be honored. Students will be responsible for submitting all assignments on time. It is imperative that all assignments be completed timely and individually. Any evidence of collusion or copying previous work by yourself or anyone else on assignments will be treated as cheating and plagiarism. Late work will be worth a maximum of half the available points for that assignment.

Course Requirements

Non Proctored Midterm Exam

The exam will include information provided in the textbook and online assignments. The test will be essay.

Reflective points on Each Reading Assignment

Students will write at least one paragraph reflection on each chapter and submit via link. Each reflection should be at least 200 words per chapter of reading.

Law Case Briefs

Students will do FIVE case briefs on important case decisions impacting education. Format will be explained in class. You will turn these in via the link and also post them on the discussion board for others to read.

Research Paper

Research and analyze a current issue in the field of curriculum. Creating and evaluating curriculum are difficult endeavors and, as with any profession, exhibit challenges debated among colleagues. Choose an issue, analyze it, and express an informed opinion (in other words, you must support your assertions with research and theory) in a FIVE page research paper (page count does not include title page and reference page which should be APA style). Your essay will be evaluated based on the rubric attached to this syllabus. If you choose a topic other than one listed below, your instructor must approve the topic choice.

Rubric for Papers

Class Discussion Board and In Class Activities

Students will participate in Class Discussion assignments that can be found on Blackboard under Class Discussions. Each student will post an answer to the question and then respond to at least two other classmates' posts. Due dates will be provided with each question. You will also have in class activities and case studies with discussion all students will be expected to participate.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend all classes. If you need to miss a class session, it is your responsibility to inform the instructor prior to the class meeting.

Make-Up Work Policy

Missing any part of this schedule may prevent completion of the course. If you foresee difficulty of any type (i.e., an illness, employment change, etc.), which may prevent completion of this course, notify the instructor as soon as possible. Failure to do so will result in failure for an assignment and/or failure of the course. See "Attendance," above.

Late assignments may be accepted at the discretion of the instructor, but will have points deducted in fairness to students who turn their work in on time. If I have not heard from you by the deadline dates for assignments, exams, or class discussion questions, no make-up work will be allowed.

Requests for extensions must be made in advance and accompanied by appropriate written documentation if the excuse is acceptable to the instructor. "Computer problems" is not an acceptable excuse. Excuses due to illness must be accompanied by physician confirmation on appropriate letterhead. Please do not wait until the last minute to submit assignments to avoid unforeseen technology issues.

Technical Requirements

To participate in this course, you will need the following resources:

- High-speed Internet access with a standard up-to-date browser, either Mozilla Firefox or Chrome.
- Consistent and reliable access to their SRSU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course. Official university business will not take place via personal email accounts.
- Virtual conferences are offered during the semester. We will meet using Collaborate which will require that your computer have audio and video (speaker and microphone) and a stable internet connection. Plan to utilize headphones, if possible, to avoid feedback.

Technical Expectations

- Technical Competence: Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students are expected to seek assistance if they are struggling with technical components of the course.
- Technical Issues: Students should expect that they could experience some technical difficulties at some point in the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues. SRSU OIT staff is available at each SRSU campus location as well as the HELP DESK in Alpine.
- Technical Etiquette: You are expected to use appropriate online etiquette at all times. This includes respect for all participants and careful wording of your responses. Your writing reflects your voice, so be mindful. Thoughtful, respectful and reflective comments are critical to participation. For additional information, visit <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>

Technology Assistance

- ❖ Sandy Bogus is the Technology TA . She is available to help you 8:30 – 5:30, M – F at 432-837-8523. You may email her at sbogus@sulross.edu
- ❖ The SRSU Help Desk is available at 1-888-837-2882 (8888 if you're calling from campus).
- ❖ The SRSU tech tip website is <http://www.sulross.edu/techtips>

Late assignments will not be accepted after the due date. ALL Assignments are due at 11:55 p.m.

Academic Integrity

University students are expected to conduct themselves in accordance with the highest standards of academic honesty. Academic misconduct, for which a student is subject to penalty, includes all forms of cheating, such as illicit possession of examinations or examination materials, forgery, or plagiarism. Plagiarism is unacceptable and, for the purpose of this course, is defined as using in part or in whole any material written or designed by someone other than the student, unless appropriate credit is given to the person or resource material used. This includes, but is not limited to: lesson plans found on the Internet, lessons provided by classroom teachers, materials located in any form of publication (workbooks, magazines, etc.), book reviews, or coursework completed by previous students. Disciplinary action for academic misconduct will first be considered by the faculty member assigned to the course and can result in failure of individual assignments and/or course credit.

Sul Ross State University – Rio Grande College is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1973. It is the student's responsibility to initiate a request for accessibility services. Students seeking accessibility services must contact the Student Support Specialist on their campus.
