CATALOG COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A study of career development theory; systems of career awareness, exploration, preparation, and growth, and their application to career counseling, career guidance, career decision-making, life planning, and career education.

REQUIRED MATERIALS:

Primary Textbook for the course:

Sharf, R. S. (2010). Applying career development theory to counseling (5th ed.). Pacific Grove, CA: Cengage Learning. ISBN: 9780495804703

School Counseling Students: You will also need the Texas Model for Comprehensive School Counseling Programs that you purchased for Ed 7302.

Supplementary Required Materials:

Career Counseling: Work in Progress DVD (ISBN: 9780131920019) Since this course is delivered entirely on the web, it is important for students to be able to view case studies of clients experiencing actual career counseling. Students will observe the career counseling process from the initial counseling session through termination in order to see career counseling techniques modeled by experts. This information will assist students in writing their career program for this course and in practicing career counseling in the World of Work. This DVD can be ordered from the publisher's website at www.mypearsonstore.com, at Amazon.com (can be purchased used at a lower cost), or new/used via other online book vendors.

American Psychological Association. (2009). Publication manual of the American Psychological Association (6th ed.). Washington, DC: American Psychological Association.

NOTE: ORDER THIS MATERIAL: Immediately upon receiving this syllabus, please telephone 1-800-822-PLAN to request the COUNSELOR'S PACKET. After dialing the number, listen to the menu; then push 2. You will be given the opportunity to speak your name and mailing address. If given the opportunity, you may respond that you are a university student in a school counseling career development class and need this information for the course.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

You are responsible for reviewing the university policies on Absences and Class Attendance in the SRSU Student Handbook. Online participation policy. This is a web-enhanced course, and therefore is subject to the Sul Ross State University online participation policy. You are free to work at your convenience as long as you meet the assignment deadlines. You are expected to log in to the Blackboard site several times each week. The University policy for attendance in web-delivered courses states that non-participation (not logging in) for more than three weeks in a long semester, or for one week during a summer session, may result in the student being dropped from the course by the professor. If a student is enrolled in an online course and fails to stay active, fails to submit assignments, and/or does not reply to emails from the instructor, he/she will be dropped from the course with a grade of "F."

It is the student's responsibility to check the Discussion Board and Sul Ross email daily for the duration of the course.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:Assigned Reading

See the attached Due Date Schedule for assigned readings. Complete reading assignments and study the material PRIOR to the due date.

Class Participation

Appropriate participation in discussions and activities on the Discussion Board will be an integral part of the learning process; respectful and professional conduct in this venue is expected.

Assignments

NOTE: LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. All assignments are submitted on Blackboard only; those assignments submitted after the deadlines on the attached Due Dates Schedule will receive no credit.

Career Counseling Program: Students will work individually to develop a career counseling program appropriate to a specific public school setting or to a specific agency/private practice setting in which the student will be working. This program is a major emphasis in this course. The program should be professionally written. A guideline for the program is available in the Assignments area of Blackboard, as well on the Blackboard Lectures, specifically on the “Course Overview” lecture. Click on the Lectures button to find the “Course Overview” lecture. Attached at the top of that lecture are the instruction documents. (Download and print the appropriate attachment, either “School Counselors-Writing the Program” or “Human Service Agency Counselors-Writing the Program”.)

ALL PROGRAMS MUST FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS AND INCLUDE ALL SPECIFIED SECTIONS TO RECEIVE FULL CREDIT. Note the due date on the attached Due Date Schedule. Assignments submitted after the deadline will receive NO CREDIT.

Participation: Since ED 5313 is an online course, participation will be evaluated in Blackboard online discussions. It is the student’s responsibility to check the Discussion Board and Sul Ross email daily for the duration of the course.

In order for you to remain enrolled in ED 5313, you must reply to the Blackboard Discussion Board “Online Participation Policy” forum by the deadline posted on the Due Dates listing contained in this syllabus. It is policy at Sul Ross State University that if a student is enrolled in an online course and fails to stay active for a period of 3 weeks, fails to submit assignments, and/or does not reply to emails from the instructor in a timely manner, he/she will be dropped from the course with a grade of "F."

You may access the “Online Participation Policy” forum by entering Blackboard, then selecting Discussion Board. Please follow the directions regarding your required response.

All written assignments including those in discussion board must follow the writing style found in the most current edition of the American Psychological Association Publication Manual (APA Manual). See American Psychological Association Publication Manual (6th ed.)

<http://www.apastyle.org/stylehelper/>

When you utilize excerpts of materials from existing career programs, from those websites/resources provided you, or from those you find through research, you must cite the source in the body of your paper and include a reference entry at the conclusion of your document.

All Papers should follow APA Style. Papers should have one-inch margins, 12-point type, and double line spacing. A running head (see page 41 of the APA manual for directions and an examples) should be used with each submission saying either 'COUNSEING AND GUIDANCE PROGRAM (for school counseling students) or 'HUMAN SERVICE/AGENCY PROGRAM' (for human service students. Number all pages in the upper right hand side (do not restart with one with each new assignment, but continue numbering from the previous assignment); edit for English usage, grammar, and style. Papers with multiple errors may not be accepted or will receive a reduction in grade. An emphasis in this particular course is writing in a manner to demonstrate your professionalism and scholarship.

Academic Integrity:

Students in this class are required to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. A scholar is expected to be timely, prepared, and focused. Meaningful, respectful, and pertinent online participation is also expected.

Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to: turning in another person's work as one's own; or copying from professional works or internet sites without citation. For this assignment, students who copy an existing career program will receive no credit. Although students are expected to use and cite materials from appropriate sources, this career program is to be designed by the individual student.

Site Visit and Presentation: Select a school or agency which offers or includes career or vocational counseling in its programming for its clientele. A set of questions for the visit will be found on the Discussion Board "Site Visit" Forum on Blackboard. After completing the visit, post your report about your visit on the Site Visit Discussion Board Forum; use the site visit questions as the format. Copy each question and record your response. You are also required to provide feedback to one other student whose site visit information was helpful or interesting. Note the due date in the Syllabus

Discussion Board Assessments: In addition to the Site Visit assignment, there are four Assessment Discussion Board assignments and once Code of Ethics discussion. They are the MBTI-type assessment, the Keirsey Temperament Sorter, the SIGI-3, and the Texas Career Check. You may find these on the following forums on the Discussion Board: the MBTI Forum, the Keirsey Temperament Sorter Forum, the SIGI-3 Forum, Texas Career Check Forum, and the NCAA Code of Ethics Forum. You will take these four online assessments and report your results/impressions on the appropriate discussion board forum. Follow the instructions on each of the five forums. Note the due dates for each of these assignments in the Syllabus.

Exams. Refer to the Due Dates Schedule at the end of this syllabus for the Exams. There are four major exams. Exams will be open to take at the beginning of the semester and will close on the due dates. The exams are taken and scored online, and are in multiple choice formats. Access the Exams by clicking on the Exams button on the main course page. Before you take the tests, make certain to click on the Lectures button and download and print the Power Points and the Study Outline. These will assist you in your reading and in preparing for the tests. You will not pass these exams without proper preparation. There will be no retakes.

GRADING:

Note: Grades are earned based on the quality of the work completed. Assignments submitted after due dates will receive no credit. Grades of Incomplete (I) are not given in the Professional Studies Division of Sul Ross State University except in the most extreme situations.

Distance Education Statement: Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university's academic support services, such as Smarthinking, library resources, such as online databases, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Students should correspond using Sul Ross email accounts and submit online assignments through Blackboard, which requires secure login information to verify students' identities and to protect students' information. [If the course requires students to take proctored exams or to purchase additional software or equipment, please describe those requirements here.] The procedures for filing a student complaint are included in the student handbook. Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software, according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website.

Technological Assistance:

Students, refer to the information posted on the main Blackboard login page for information regarding Blackboard Support Staff assistance with technological difficulties. The Help Desk is also available to students 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and may be accessed by phoning 888-691-5071.

Resources/Required Websites:

Students, access the following websites for inclusion in your Career Program. You may also access this list of Websites on Blackboard via the Websites button. I will expect to see a number of these reflected in your objectives/activities, where they are developmentally appropriate for your client population. Include correct citations and Reference entries for each website included in your Career Program. Human service counselors, some of these sites may not be appropriate for your client population; this is dependent on their developmental stages and life situations. Certain of the sites, like the Texas Workforce Commission sites, and those sites with career cluster information are generally applicable. The final three listings are the links for the online assessments to be accessed via the Discussion Board The MBTI-type Assessment, The Keirsey Temperament Sorter, and the SIGI-3. These were mentioned previously on this syllabus in your Discussion Board Assessments Assignment).

Students, all of you will complete the four following online assessments:

<http://www.humanmetrics.com/cgi-win/jtypes2.asp> This is an online text based on the MBTI (Myers-Briggs/Jung Typology). Take the test, then click on "Score It" at the bottom of the questions. On the screen will be your four letter "type," for example, ENFJ. Select the "Type" description by J. Butt" and print out your description. You will use this for the Discussion Board MBTI Forum.

<http://www.keirsey.com/> Take the free Sorter (click on the colorful button at the top right of your screen--it reads "Click to Take Sorter,") then select the free Temperament Report. Make sure that you click on the "The Four Temperaments" link on the top right menu bar underneath the "Take the Sorter" logo to read in detail about the four temperaments. What does the sorter suggest about you? Be sure to record your results from the Free Sorter, so that you can respond on the Keirsey Temperament Sorter Discussion Board Forum! Post a thread recording your results from the Free Sorter on this forum and state how those results are connected to career.

<http://www.sigi3.org/login.asp?SQ=1363&SK=5919503210> Type this URL into your browser. This will take you to the Sul Ross career resources page, and in the middle of the listings, you will see SIGI 3. You will be taking the SIGI 3 assessment. Click on the SIGI 3. You will need to register. Use your sulross email username and ID (the same way your access your Sul Ross email) to login to the SIGI 3. You will see a Welcome Menu and some Tips for using the SIGI. Then select "Continue" at the bottom, then "Use an Assessment Tool." Take the "Values," "Interests," "Personality Type," and "Skills" surveys. This will take some time, so be sure to block out some time to work on this. You will then search the job database using your results. Play some of the Videos for jobs, see the job comparison grids, play with the deciding square, etc. until you feel comfortable with these SIGI resources. You can build a portfolio in SIGI, and re-enter to continue working with these resources. And you might learn something about yourself in regard to career in addition to finding some good resources you might incorporate into your career program!

<http://www.TexasCareerCheck.com> . This is a good tool to use with high school students. You will explore occupations or college options. It includes an interest assessment, a high school graduation plan, regional labor market information and hot jobs. You can call 1-800-822-7526 to order a free counselor packet containing samples of their career development products: tabloids, books, brochures, bookmarks, pocket resume and posters. Or you can visit the LCMI webpage at www.lmic.state.tx.us. After you have taken the assessment, post your results in Discussion Board.

ED 5313 is delivered in a web format. Please read through this syllabus carefully, as well as all course materials and instructions posted on the Blackboard ED 5313 course site.

Note: You must have successfully completed ED 7302 Management of Guidance, Counseling, and Human Service Programs, prior to enrolling in this course.

CATALOG COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A study of career development theory; systems of career awareness, exploration, preparation, and growth, and their application to career counseling, career guidance, career decision-making, life planning, and career education.

REQUIRED MATERIALS:

Primary Textbook for the course:

Sharf, R. S. (2010). Applying career development theory to counseling (5th ed.). Pacific Grove, CA: Cengage Learning. ISBN: 9780495804703

School Counseling Students: You will also need the Texas Model for Comprehensive School Counseling Programs that you purchased for Ed 7302.

Supplementary Required Materials:

Career Counseling: Work in Progress DVD (ISBN: 9780131920019) Since this course is delivered entirely on the web, it is important for students to be able to view case studies of clients experiencing actual career counseling. Students will observe the career counseling process from the initial counseling session through termination in order to see career counseling techniques modeled by experts. This information will assist students in writing their career program for this course and in practicing career counseling in the World of Work. This DVD can be ordered from the publisher's website at www.mypearsonstore.com , at Amazon.com (can be purchased used at a lower cost), or new/used via other online book vendors.

American Psychological Association. (2009). Publication manual of the American Psychological Association (6th ed.). Washington, DC: American Psychological Association.

NOTE: ORDER THIS MATERIAL: Immediately upon receiving this syllabus, please telephone 1-800-822-PLAN to request the COUNSELOR'S PACKET. After dialing the number, listen to the menu; then push 2. You will be given the opportunity to speak your name and mailing address. If given the opportunity, you may respond that you are a university student in a school counseling career development class and need this information for the course.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The student will be able to:

- 8. Explain the foundations of career development including appropriate definitions; the theories of career choice; and factors that influence the career decision-making process.
- 9. Explain causes of occupational trends as they affect the world of work; and the classification systems used to describe the world of work.
- 10. Find, explain, and distribute information about the world of work.
- 11. Explain how the career development process is manipulated at various levels of educational growth.
- 12. Demonstrate knowledge of the career development procedures as concerns testing, evaluation, career counseling, job preparation, and job placement.

13. Relate the career counselor's opportunities outside the educational field and the trends and issues concerning career information, counseling, and development.
14. Correlate appropriate TExES Standards/ExCET Competencies and Learner-Centered Proficiencies to the activities of this course.

PROGRAM LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

This course contributes to the following required program learning outcomes:

3. Students will be able to demonstrate their ability to apply within guidance and counseling, the knowledge of human development, diversity, and factors that affect students'/clients' ability to achieve their potential.
4. School counseling students will be able to demonstrate their ability to plan, implement, and evaluate a developmental guidance program; this program will incorporate assessment, as well as individual and group counseling services utilizing appropriate theoretical frameworks, techniques, and interventions to address personal, interpersonal/social, educational, and career needs.
3. Students will be able to demonstrate the ability to communicate and collaborate effectively with others in the school, with students' parents, and/or with the community in order to facilitate student/client success, and will demonstrate the ability to apply ethical, legal, and professional standards.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

You are responsible for reviewing the university policies on Absences and Class Attendance in the SRSU Student Handbook. Online participation policy. This is a web-enhanced course, and therefore is subject to the Sul Ross State University online participation policy. You are free to work at your convenience as long as you meet the assignment deadlines. You are expected to log in to the Blackboard site several times each week. The University policy for attendance in web-delivered courses states that non-participation (not logging in) for more than three weeks in a long semester, or for one week during a summer session, may result in the student being dropped from the course by the professor. If a student is enrolled in an online course and fails to stay active, fails to submit assignments, and/or does not reply to emails from the instructor, he/she will be dropped from the course with a grade of "F."

It is the student's responsibility to check the Discussion Board and Sul Ross email daily for the duration of the course.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Assigned Reading

See the attached Due Date Schedule for assigned readings. Complete reading assignments and study the material PRIOR to the due date.

Class Participation

Appropriate participation in discussions and activities on the Discussion Board will be an integral part of the learning process; respectful and professional conduct in this venue is expected.

Assignments

NOTE: LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. All assignments are submitted on Blackboard only; those assignments submitted after the deadlines on the attached Due Dates Schedule will receive no credit.

Career Counseling Program: Students will work individually to develop a career counseling program appropriate to a specific public school setting or to a specific agency/private practice setting in which the student will be working. This program is a major emphasis in this course. The program should be professionally written. A guideline for the program is available in the Assignments area of Blackboard, as well on the Blackboard Lectures, specifically on the "Course Overview" lecture. Click on the Lectures button to find the "Course Overview" lecture. Attached at the top of that lecture are the instruction documents. (Download and print the appropriate attachment, either "School Counselors-Writing the Program" or "Human Service Agency Counselors-Writing the Program".)

ALL PROGRAMS MUST FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS AND INCLUDE ALL SPECIFIED SECTIONS TO RECEIVE FULL CREDIT. Note the due date on the attached Due Date Schedule. Assignments submitted after the deadline will receive NO CREDIT.

Participation: Since ED 5313 is an online course, participation will be evaluated in Blackboard online discussions. It is the student's responsibility to check the Discussion Board and Sul Ross email daily for the duration of the course.

In order for you to remain enrolled in ED 5313, you must reply to the Blackboard Discussion Board "Online Participation Policy" forum by the deadline posted on the Due Dates listing contained in this syllabus. It is policy at Sul Ross State University that if a student is enrolled in an online course and fails to stay active for a period of 3 weeks, fails to submit assignments, and/or does not reply to emails from the instructor in a timely manner, he/she will be dropped from the course with a grade of "F."

You may access the "Online Participation Policy" forum by entering Blackboard, then selecting Discussion Board. Please follow the directions regarding your required response.

All written assignments including those in discussion board must follow the writing style found in the most current edition of the American Psychological Association Publication Manual (APA Manual). See American Psychological Association Publication Manual (6th ed.)

<http://www.apastyle.org/stylehelper/>

When you utilize excerpts of materials from existing career programs, from those websites/resources provided you, or from those you find through research, you must cite the source in the body of your paper and include a reference entry at the conclusion of your document.

All Papers should follow APA Style. Papers should have one-inch margins, 12-point type, and double line spacing. A running head (see page 41 of the APA manual for directions and an examples) should be used with each submission saying either 'COUNSEING AND GUIDANCE PROGRAM (for school counseling students) or 'HUMAN SERVICE/AGENCY PROGRAM' (for human service students. Number all pages in the upper right hand side (do not restart with one with each new assignment, but continue numbering from the previous assignment); edit for English usage, grammar, and style. Papers with multiple errors may not be accepted or will receive a reduction in grade. An emphasis in this particular course is writing in a manner to demonstrate your professionalism and scholarship.

Academic Integrity:

Students in this class are required to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. A scholar is expected to be timely, prepared, and focused. Meaningful, respectful, and pertinent online participation is also expected.

Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to: turning in another person's work as one's own; or copying from professional works or internet sites without citation. For this assignment, students who copy an existing career program will receive no credit. Although students are expected to use and cite materials from appropriate sources, this career program is to be designed by the individual student.

Site Visit and Presentation: Select a school or agency which offers or includes career or vocational counseling in its programming for its clientele. A set of questions for the visit will be found on the Discussion Board "Site Visit" Forum on Blackboard. After completing the visit, post your report about your visit on the Site Visit Discussion Board Forum; use the site visit questions as the format. Copy each question and record your response. You are also required to provide feedback to one other student whose site visit information was helpful or interesting. Note the due date in the Syllabus

Discussion Board Assessments: In addition to the Site Visit assignment, there are four Assessment Discussion Board assignments and once Code of Ethics discussion. They are the MBTI-type assessment, the Keirsey Temperament Sorter, the SIGI-3, and the Texas Career Check. You may find these on the following forums on the Discussion Board: the MBTI Forum, the Keirsey Temperament Sorter Forum, the SIGI-3 Forum, Texas Career Check Forum, and the NCAA Code of Ethics Forum. You will take these four online assessments and report your results/impressions on the appropriate discussion board forum. Follow the instructions on each of the five forums. Note the due dates for each of these assignments in the Syllabus.

Exams. Refer to the Due Dates Schedule at the end of this syllabus for the Exams. There are four major exams. Exams will be open to take at the beginning of the semester and will close on the due dates. The exams are taken and scored online, and are in multiple choice formats. Access the Exams by clicking on the Exams button on the main course page. Before you take the tests, make certain to click on the Lectures button and download and print the Power Points and the Study Outline. These will assist you in your reading and in preparing for the tests. You will not pass these exams without proper preparation. There will be no retakes.

GRADING:

Note: Grades are earned based on the quality of the work completed. Assignments submitted after due dates will receive no credit. Grades of Incomplete (I) are not given in the Professional Studies Division of Sul Ross State University except in the most extreme situations. A grade of "A" will not be given in this course unless the student's writing reflects graduate level quality and the written career program is superior.

FINAL GRADING: A=100-91% B=90-81% C=80-71% F=70-0%

45% - Career Program

NOTE: Graduate students must maintain a 3.0 GPA to remain in good standing.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED

No Extra Credit assignments will be offered nor is there a partial credit on late assignments!!!!

Grades of Incomplete (I) are not given in the Professional Studies Division of Sul Ross State University except in the most extreme situations.

A grade of "A" will not be given in this course unless the student's writing reflects graduate level quality and the written program is superior.

Distance Education Statement: Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university's academic support services, such as Smarthinking, library resources, such as online databases, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Students should correspond using Sul Ross email accounts and submit online assignments through Blackboard, which requires secure login information to verify students' identities and to protect students' information. [If the course requires students to take proctored exams or to purchase additional software or equipment, please describe those requirements here.] The procedures for filing a student complaint are included in the student handbook. Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software, according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website.

Technological Assistance:

Students, refer to the information posted on the main Blackboard login page for information regarding Blackboard Support Staff assistance with technological difficulties. The Help Desk is also available to students 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and may be accessed by phoning 888-691-5071.

Resources/Required Websites:

Students, access the following websites for inclusion in your Career Program. You may also access this list of Websites on Blackboard via the Websites button. I will expect to see a number of these reflected in your objectives/activities, where they are developmentally appropriate for your client population. Include correct citations and Reference entries for each website included in your Career Program. Human service counselors, some of these sites may not be appropriate for your client population; this is dependent on their developmental stages and life situations. Certain of the sites, like the Texas Workforce Commission sites, and those sites with career cluster information are generally applicable. The final three listings are the links for the online assessments to be accessed via the Discussion Board The MBTI-type Assessment, The Keirsey Temperament Sorter, and the SIGI-3. These were mentioned previously on this syllabus in your Discussion Board Assessments Assignment).

Students, all of you will complete the four following online assessments:

<http://www.humanmetrics.com/cgi-win/jtypes2.asp> This is an online text based on the MBTI (Myers-Briggs/Jung Typology). Take the test, then click on "Score It" at the bottom of the questions. On the screen will be your four letter "type," for example, ENFJ. Select the "Type" description by J. Butt" and print out your description. You will use this for the Discussion Board MBTI Forum.

<http://www.keirsey.com/> Take the free Sorter (click on the colorful button at the top right of your screen--it reads "Click to Take Sorter,") then select the free Temperament Report. Make sure that you click on the "The Four Temperaments" link on the top right menu bar underneath the "Take the Sorter" logo to read in detail about the four temperaments. What does the sorter suggest about you? Be sure to record your results from the Free Sorter, so that you can respond on the Keirsey Temperament Sorter Discussion Board Forum! Post a thread recording your results from the Free Sorter on this forum and state how those results are connected to career.

<http://www.sigi3.org/login.asp?SQ=1363&SK=5919503210> Type this URL into your browser. This will take you to the Sul Ross career resources page, and in the middle of the listings, you will see SIGI 3. You will be taking the SIGI 3 assessment. Click on the SIGI 3. You will need to register. Use your sulross email username and ID (the same way your access your Sul Ross email) to login to the SIGI 3. You will see a Welcome Menu and some Tips for using the SIGI. Then select "Continue" at the bottom, then "Use an Assessment Tool." Take the "Values," "Interests," "Personality Type," and "Skills" surveys. This will take some time, so be sure to block out some time to work on this. You will then search the job database using your results. Play some of the Videos for jobs, see the job comparison grids, play with the deciding square, etc. until you feel comfortable with these SIGI resources. You can build a portfolio in SIGI, and re-enter to continue working with these resources. And you might learn something about yourself in regard to career in addition to finding some good resources you might incorporate into your career program!

<http://www.TexasCareerCheck.com> . This is a good tool to use with high school students. You will explore occupations or college options. It includes an interest assessment, a high school graduation plan, regional labor market information and hot jobs. You can call 1-800-822-7526 to order a free counselor packet containing samples of their career development products: tabloids, books, brochures, bookmarks, pocket resume and posters. Or you can visit the LCMI webpage at www.lmic.state.tx.us. After you have taken the assessment, post your results in Discussion Board.
