ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
Students in this class are expected to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. A scholar is expected to be punctual, prepared, and focused. Meaningful and pertinent participation is required. Examples of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to:

- Turning in work as original that was used in whole for another course and/or professor;
- Turning in another person’s work as one’s own;
- Copying from professional works or internet sites without citation.

Any of these offenses will result in a zero for the assignment with no option to redo for credit

LATE ASSIGNMENTS
A 5% per day deduction will apply to all late assignments and tests; up to 30% may be deducted for late work. Late assignments more than 7 days without designated approval from instructor.
ATTENDANCE/EXCESSIVE ABSENCES
ATTENDANCE IN THIS CLASS IS MANDATORY – POINTS ARE EARNED FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION IN CLASS DISCUSSIONS AND ACTIVITIES. An absence because of participation in an official University activity is considered to be an authorized/excused absence. While every effort will be made by departments to minimize missed class time of students by careful scheduling of authorized University activities, when a student has to miss a class due to an authorized University activity, it will be the responsibility of the student to notify the instructor of the class in advance. The department responsible for the authorized University activity will also notify instructors through the Student Life Office by providing an excused absence list to the office. Instructors will give students participating in an authorized University activity the opportunity to make up class work, including tests, within a reasonable time and at the convenience of the instructor. The instructors may, at their discretion, drop a student from a course when the student has a total of nine absences (or equivalent for classes meeting one or two days). A student who is dropped from a course for excessive absences will be notified in writing by the Center for Enrollment Services after the drop has been approved by the Provost and Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs. Any student dropped for excessive absences will receive either an “F” or a “W” depending upon the faculty member’s discretion.
