Academic Integrity:

Students in this class are expected to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. A scholar is expected to be punctual, prepared, and focused. Meaningful and pertinent participation is required.

- 1 Examples of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to:
 - o Turning in work as original that was used in whole for another course and/or professor;
 - o Turning in another person's work as one's own;

- o Copying from professional works or internet sites without citation.

Any of these offenses will result in a zero for the assignment with no option to redo for credit

General Responsibilities: This a face-to-face class and all activities will be handed in during class or if at Midland College submitted via blackboard. All activities must be submitted on blackboard. No make-up activities will be accepted by email or by handing after or during class. Students are responsible for reading their blackboard announcements. Attendance: Classroom attendance and participation is a requirement. In accordance with the University catalog, a student with excessive (unexcused) absences will be dropped from the course. Six absences for a Tuesday-Thursday course and nine absences for a Monday-Wednesday-Friday course is considered excessive. Continued tardiness is undesirable and is also grounds for a student to be dropped from the course (three tardies will equal one absence). Excused absences must be made up within one week of the absence by submitting on blackboard a two-paged double spaced type-written summary on the material of the day missed. Students should contact instructor the day after returning to class for the written assignment. It is the responsibility of the student to notify my office before, or immediately after, the absence if it is to be excused. Students with unexcused absences will receive a zero for an activity missed. Note: There will be days the instructor will have class on-line and will announce the day not in attendance in advance via classroom announcement, email and blackboard announcement. Students are required to complete blackboard assignments online on the designated due date.

Style of Teaching: The objectives of this course will be met through an integrated teaching style that will include lecture, discussion, and presentations. Students will be encouraged to remain actively involved in class discussions and will be responsible for reading all assigned material for this class. This is a face-to-face and blackboard course. No assignments shall be accepted via email and all assignments shall be either turned in on blackboard or if in Alpine during the day of class. All communication is done in class, via Sul Ross email and blackboard announcements.

Distance Education Statement: Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university's academic support services, such as Smarthinking, library resources, such as online databases, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Students should correspond using Sul Ross email accounts and submit online assignments through Blackboard, which requires secure login information to verify students' identities and to protect students' information. [If the course requires students to take proctored exams or to purchase additional software or equipment, please describe those requirements here.] The procedures for filing a student complaint are included in the student handbook. Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software, according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website.

Cell phone policy: The use of cell phones, smart phones, computers or other mobile communication devices is disruptive, and is therefore prohibited during class. Except in emergencies, those using such devices must leave the classroom for the remainder of the class period.

SRSU Disability Services:

The University is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The Disability Services Coordinator in Counseling and Student Support Services has the responsibility to ensure students with disabilities the opportunity for full participation in programs, services and activities. Students seeking disability services need to contact the Disability Services Coordinator located in the University Center Room 211. The mailing address is PO Box C-171, Sul Ross State University, Alpine, Texas 79832. The telephone is 432-837-8178; fax is 432-837-8724.

Grading:

1000 total points possible

- Orientation = 20 points (Bonus)
- Mid-Term Exam = 100 points (10%)
- In-Class Activities = 15 points per activity @ 600 points (60%)
- Group Presentations = 100 points (10%)
- Community Assignment = 100 points (10%)
- Final Exam = 100 points

900 – 1000 points = A

800 – 899 points = B

700 – 799 points = C

600 – 699 = D

F < 600

EVALUATION PROCEDURES:

- ✓ Orientation = 20 bonus points
 - We will discuss the syllabus during the first day of class and students will be awarded 20 points for attending the class.

- ✓ Mid-Term and Final Exam = 100 points each
 - The final exam will consist of multiple choice questions. Exams will cover all material provided in the assigned readings and lecture.
 - All students are expected to take the mid-term and final exam no later than a week after the designated day. Students are expected to contact the instructor and arrange a make-up exam.
 - Students who do not make up the exam during the designated time will receive a zero.

- ✓ In-Class Activities = 60% totaling 600 points. This is a percentage grade and will be calculated at the end of the semester. Example: 40 daily activities would value each daily grade at 15 points each ($15 \times 40 = 600$ points). We will start the semester valuing each daily grade at 15 points.
 - All students are expected to complete daily activities during class.
 - Midland College students will submit daily activities on blackboard unless otherwise specified.
 - If an absence is excused all students must make-up activities by completing a type written summary on the material of the day missed (see general responsibilities).
 - All summaries must be submitted on blackboard on the column for the day missed (Example: if you missed activity 16 submit the summary on the activity 16 column).

- ✓ Group Presentations = 100 points.
 - Power point presentations over a topic will be assigned by the instructor.
 - Students will work in groups to complete presentations.
 - All students in a groups will be responsible for presenting PPT.
 - Students will be graded on a rubric based on the quality of their presentation.

- ✓ Community assignments = 100 points.
 - There will be several community assignments during the semester which will be discussed during class.
 - Students must have an excused absence to not attend any of these events and must discuss an alternative assignment with the instructor.
 - Students who do not attend a complete event will not receive all points for their grade.
 - Students not completing an outside assignment will receive a zero.
