A grade of "A" will not be given in this course unless the student's writing reflects graduate level quality and the written program is superior.

Course Requirements:

Comprehensive Counseling Program: Students will work individually to develop a school guidance and counseling program for a particular school district. A guideline describing the format for your program is posted on Blackboard.

Your program must follow the lecture instructions, the program format, and the scoring rubric guidelines and include all specified sections to receive full credit. It will demonstrate your understanding of American School Counselor Association/ACA Code of Ethics. Due dates for each portion of the program are posted on Blackboard and included in this syllabus.

Assignments submitted after the deadlines will not be accepted.

Participation: Since ED 7302 is an online course, participation will be evaluated in Blackboard online discussions. It is the student's responsibility to check the Discussion Board and Sul Ross email DAILY for the duration of the course.

In order for you to remain enrolled in ED 7302, you must reply to the Blackboard Discussion Board "Online Participation Policy" forum by the deadline posted on the Due Dates listing contained in this syllabus. It is policy at Sul Ross State University that if a student is enrolled in an online course and fails to stay active for a period of 3 weeks, fails to submit assignments, and/or does not reply to emails from the instructor, he/she will receive a final grade of "F."

You may access the "Online Participation Policy" forum by entering Blackboard, then selecting Discussion Board. Please follow the directions regarding your required response.

 Additional individual assignments may be given.

All written assignments must follow the writing style found in the most current edition of the American Psychological Association Publication Manual (APA Manual). See American Psychological Association Publication Manual (required reading) <http://www.apastyle.org/stylehelper/>. If you chose to utilize excerpts of materials from existing programs in schools, agencies, or those you find through research, you must cite the source in the body of your paper and include a reference entry at the conclusion of your document.

Papers should have one-inch margins, 12-point type, and double line spacing. Number all pages; edit for English usage, grammar and style. Papers with multiple errors may not be accepted or will receive a reduction in grade. An emphasis in this particular course is writing in a manner to demonstrate your professionalism and scholarship.

Academic Integrity:

Students in this class are required to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. A scholar is expected to be timely, prepared, and focused. Meaningful, respectful, and pertinent online participation is also expected.

Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to: submitting work as original that was used in whole or part for another course and/or professor; turning in another person's work as one's own; copying from professional works or internet sites without citation.

SRSU Disability Services:

The University is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The Disability Services Coordinator in Counseling and Student Support Services has the responsibility to ensure students with disabilities the opportunity for full participation in programs, services, and activities. Students seeking disability services need to contact the Disability Services Coordinator located in the University Center Room 211. The mailing address is P.O. Box C-171, Sul Ross State University, Alpine, TX 79832. Telephone: 432-837-8178; Fax: 432-837-8724.
