COURSE DESCRIPTION

A course which explores numerous theoretical models, exposes students to various techniques and principles, and includes class presentations, role play and opportunity for “hands on,” experiential involvement in a group.

Successful completion of this course does not imply ability to run groups, but rather is a foundation of information and skills upon which to build. Students should always supplement this course with supervised group experience during internships.

No tape recording will be allowed of any portion of this class!

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Student will be able to:

1. Define and distinguish among group guidance, group counseling, group psychotherapy, support groups, and advantages and disadvantages of group approaches versus individual counseling.
2. Discuss theories of group counseling including methods, techniques, and research findings, including group work with substance abuse and addiction.
3. Identify major persons and factors in the historical development of group counseling.
4. Discuss legal and ethical issues with group counseling, including how to make referrals.

5. Describe the various stages of the group process and roles of leaders and members at each stage.
6. Explain group dynamics in terms of cause and effect.
7. Describe different styles of leadership and leadership skills and techniques appropriate for each stage of the group process.
8. Explain characteristics of group leaders that affect group process; demonstrate personal awareness of his/her own strengths, weaknesses, values, prejudices, etc. and the effects on others.
9. Describe the implications of sociocultural, demographic, and lifestyle diversity on groups.
10. Discuss methods of evaluating the effectiveness of groups.
11. Describe how he/she would implement groups in his/her work.
12. Demonstrate knowledge of methods to continue learning about group process and group leadership.

REQUIREMENTS

Students will:

- Complete reading assignments and study the material prior to class meetings.
- Attend all classes and participate constructively in discussions and activities.
- Complete out-of-class assignments.
- Take four “sets” of chapter quizzes.
- Practice professional conduct and ethics.
- Practice respectful learning exchanges.

EVALUATION

Your grade for this course will be determined by evidence of the quality of your learning as demonstrated by your performance in the following areas:

Proposal for a Group/Paper	35%
Group Exercise Presentation	25%
Participation/Discussion	10%
Chapter Quizzes	30%

NOTE: NO LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

Course Grade:

A	B	C	F
91% - 100%	81% - 90%	71% - 80%	Below 71%

NOTE: Graduate students must maintain a 3.0 GPA to remain in good standing.

PARTICIPATION

You are expected to participate in the class activities and discussions. Your final course grade may be affected by both the quality and quantity of your in-class participation and attendance. Your class participation should give evidence that you are keeping up with the assigned readings. Come to class prepared to share your thoughts on the topics under discussion for each of the class meetings.

Please provide your classmates and instructor the professional courtesy of arriving on time for the beginning of class and after breaks, and staying for the full duration of every class.

NOTE: Please place cell phones on “silent” and/or quiet “vibrate”. I appreciate your remembering this throughout the course—it is disruptive to have the interruption of a cellular phone.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

You are responsible for reviewing the university policies on Absences and Class Attendance in the SRSU Student Handbook. Attendance at and prompt arrival for ALL class sessions is expected. If unable to attend a class session, please contact the instructor PRIOR to that session whenever possible, or as soon afterward as possible. Note that contacting the professor does not automatically “excuse” the absence. In addition, SRSU policy states that “An absence is defined as non-attendance in fifty minutes of class” and that “instructors will drop a student from a course when the student has a total of nine absences.” Missing an entire two-day-format class will cause you to be dropped from the course.

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS (NOTE: NO LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED.)

All work should be double spaced and in APA style, Times New Roman 12 pt. font.

Proposal for a Group. This assignment requires you to develop a proposal for a group that you could facilitate to an identified population of your interest. Guidelines for the proposal are attached to this syllabus.

NOTE: This assignment must be written using APA guidelines using appropriate documentation. (Times New Roman 12 pt. font, double-spaced). The paper is usually 15+ pages because of activity descriptions. You must use the textbook and other supporting information to support your proposal. A minimum of 25 points will be deducted from a paper with no supporting documentation. References must be cited within the body of your paper.

Group Exercise Presentation. This assignment requires you to present to the rest of the class one (no more than 2) Exercise/Activity from your proposal for the group. You will be the facilitator and your classmates will participate as members of the group. Limit your presentation to 30 minutes. You will be graded on the relevance of the topic and activity for the age group, and on your organization, time management, and professionalism. Guidelines for the proposal are attached to this syllabus.

Testing. Four “sets” of chapter quizzes will be given. You are responsible for all material in class lectures and reading assignments.

SCHEDULE (NOTE: The course schedule, requirements, procedures, content, etc., are subject to change by the instructor once the course is underway. Students will be informed of any changes during regular class meetings, on the Blackboard course site, or via Sul Ross email.) Students should check their Sul Ross email daily for possible announcements.

GROUP COUNSELING PROPOSAL GUIDELINES

I. Introduction

A. Purpose and Rationale 10 points

Clearly define the purpose of your group. Why is it important? Cite at least three references from the literature to support your group or techniques. What type of group is it? For whom is it offered? What are your qualifications for leading this group? (An interest is sufficient for this proposal).

B. Goals and Objectives 10 points

Clearly define three general goals for your group. For each goal, define at least two objectives. Objectives must be behaviorally defined (observable and measurable) to aid in evaluating your program.

II. Method

A. Logistics 5 points

List the steps you will take in setting up the group. These may include securing permission, arranging venue, and advertising. Describe how many members you will include, when and where you will meet, for how long, and for how many sessions.

B. Selecting Group Members 10 points

Describe how you will recruit and select group members. Include any screening procedures, pre-group interviews, pretesting, and selection criteria. Describe applicants who would not be acceptable for your group. Discuss any ethical issues with recruitment and selection.

III. Description of Group Activities 40 points

Describe, in outline form, what you plan to do during each session of your group. Each description should include: Session #, Objectives for the session, a list of topics, and a brief description of any activities or techniques you will use. You may borrow activities from other sources as long as you properly cite them. Estimate the approximate time for each activity. You may wish to attach materials for your group activities, such as games, handouts, overheads, and so forth.

IV. Evaluation of the Group 10 points

Describe how you will evaluate the effectiveness of your group in achieving the goals and objectives you defined in the Introduction. If you will use tests, rating forms, or questionnaires, attach copies. You should have a formal or informal evaluation for each objective listed in the Introduction. Evaluation activities will probably take place during some or all group sessions and at the conclusion of the group. You may wish to consider a follow-up evaluation as well.

V. References 5 points

List all references cited in your proposal using APA style.

Additional Criteria for Grading 10 points

The proposal should be complete, neat, and grammatically correct. Your writing reflects your professionalism. Papers with multiple errors will receive a reduction in grade.

Group Presentation Guidelines

Rubric for the group presentation... I do require that you conduct an actual group activity. For example, if you are developing a psychoeducational group for children that have experienced peer abuse and/or bullying, you could have "us" (we will be the group members) complete a self-esteem building activity. I hope this gives you a clear picture of what I will be looking for and grading during your presentation. I have also included the point distribution for each area.
