Distance Education Statement: Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university's academic support services, such as Smarthinking, library resources, online databases, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Students should correspond using Sul Ross email accounts and submit online assignments through Blackboard, which requires secure login information to verify students' identities and to protect students' information. The procedures for filing a student complaint are included in the student handbook. Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software, according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website.

Course Policies:

1. Participation:

This is a web-based course during a 6 week summer session, so there are no regular classroom meetings.

However, your active, daily participation in this course is essential and required in order to be successful. The speed of a summer course condenses the 15 weeks of a normal semester into 6 very short weeks.

There is absolutely no time to procrastinate; once you get behind it is extremely difficult to catch up.

2. Regular communications with the professor:

It is essential that you keep me current on your progress and any difficulties you may be having so that I can respond in real time to support your success. The most efficient way of contacting me is the VIRTUAL OFFICE on Blackboard which gives you instructions depending on the nature of your question. If you call my cell phone you must leave a message for me to call you back; I do not answer unknown numbers.

3. Students with Special Needs:

Sul Ross State University (SRSU) is committed to equal access in compliance with Americans with Disabilities Act of 1973. It is SRSU policy to provide reasonable accommodations to students with documented disabilities. It is the Student's responsibility to initiate a request. Please contact Ms. Mary Schwartze, Counselor, Accessibility Services Coordinator, Ferguson Hall (Room 112) at 432.837.8363; mailing address is P.O. Box C-171 Sul Ross State University, Alpine, Texas 79832. Students should then contact the instructor as soon as possible to initiate the recommended accommodations.

4. Religious Observance:

Any student who is unable to participate in the course for the observance of a religious holy day will be allowed to make-up an exam or complete an assignment scheduled for that day. Arrangements for missing an exam or assignment due to a religious observance must be made with the instructor prior to that absence.

5. Course Behaviors - Respect and Disruptions:

Watch the VIDEO on NETIQUETTE on Blackboard. You are encouraged and expected to openly engage in discussions, ask questions, share ideas, and express your thoughts in this web-based course in the same manner as in a face-to-face course. Please treat each other with dignity and respect and avoid disruptive behaviors. You are responsible for knowing what behaviors are acceptable versus unacceptable as referred to in the Student Conduct and Discipline section of the SRSU Student Handbook

(http://www.sulross.edu/sites/default/files//sites/default/files/users/docs/stulife/student_conduct_discipline.pdf).

6. Academic Integrity:

Any instance of academic misconduct such as turning in an identical written assignment for another course without approval, cheating and plagiarizing written assignments, collusion, or misrepresenting facts will be punished to the full extent of the university's disciplinary policy and/or through legal action if indicated. You are responsible for reading the statement on Academic Honesty in the SRSU Student Handbook

(http://www.sulross.edu/sites/default/files//sites/default/files/users/docs/stulife/student_conduct_discipline.pdf). The faculty considers academic dishonesty to be a serious matter and will act accordingly. Students caught engaging in any form of academic dishonesty will receive no credit for assignments/exams and more severe penalties may be pursued, including but not limited to failing the course.

7. Communicating with the Professor:

The best way to contact me is through the VIRTUAL OFFICE on Blackboard. GENERAL QUESTIONS are to be posted to a discussion board for all. For PERSONAL or PRIVATE ISSUES email the professor directly at bmg15th@sulross.edu. I strive to respond as soon as possible. If you do not receive a reply within 24 hours during the work week, please resend your email or call me at 432.386.3223 and leave a message so that I will return your call; I do not answer unknown phone numbers. During weekends there may be a longer delay in my responding.
