I will assign extra credit opportunities by attending art events or openings in the area and will be applied to your participation/Creative projects portion of your evaluation.

Attendance: *note this is an online class. I will be checking who is viewing the material. There is no set time to view but the student must meet online deadlines specified in the assignments on blackboard. Assignments will be posted on Blackboard at 10am on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Rules and Expectations:

There will not be "make up" days for missed class work because of absence. It is important to attend class and to participate in all classroom assignments. Excused absences will be assessed on case-by-case basis.

Plagiarizing, cheating, or any other dishonest behavior in the classroom will not be tolerated. Rules and regulation regarding plagiarism, dishonesty, and other issues concerning classroom participation can be found in University Rules and Regulations and student handbook. A student found to be engaging in these activities will be penalized to the full extent of university policy.

DO NOT CHEAT! I will not tolerate cheating and will fail a student who engages in cheating.

I am always available to help/assist/guide a student.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: Academic dishonesty hurts everyone and reduces the value of college degrees. Doing someone else's work, presenting the ideas and work of others as your own, submitting the same paper for multiple classes, and/or failing to cite your sources when you utilize the ideas of others, are all examples of academic dishonesty. It is your responsibility to read and understand the university's policy on academic dishonesty in the SRSU Student Handbook, as all violations will be taken seriously and handled through the appropriate university process. The Student Handbook can be found at: <https://www.sulross.edu/page/2454/student-handbook> (page 80).

Electronic Devices:

The use of any electrical device is deemed disruptive and will be prohibited; however, we will have creative assignments where we will use our phones.

Talking, Texting, making or receiving calls will not be permitted or tolerated.
