CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

HONS 4300 Individual Honors (3-0). This course is intended for students working independently under the guidance of a faculty member. This course may be repeated one time for credit. This course would be used to fulfill an upper level elective. Prerequisite: Admission in the Honors Program and consent of the Director of the Honors Program.

TEXTBOOK: Your professor will decide this.

SUPPLIES: Your professor will decide this.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: Your professor will decide this.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS: Your professor will decide this.

METHOD OF EVALUATION: Your professor will decide this.

ACADEMIC ETHICS: Please remember that real success comes from learning how to do the work yourself. Your instructors believe that you are an honest individual and expect that all of the work that you do results from your own efforts. You know that a college education costs too much for you to waste your time trying to beat the system rather than figuring out how to learn the material. You know that any form of cheating is dishonest and it makes you look very bad. Your instructor will have specific responses to any academic dishonesty that s/he may encounter. A repeated instance of academic dishonesty may result in your situation being forwarded to the Dean of Student Life. Please see the SRSU Student Handbook for a more complete discussion of academic honesty.

ATTENDANCE POLICY: Your professor will decide this.

STUDENT ASSISTANCE: Tutors are available in the Tutoring and Learning Center in the first floor of the Library, free of charge. Please check with the Tutoring and Learning Center for hours and days of tutor availability.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: If you have a disability and need an accommodation, you should contact the Counseling and Accessibility Center located in Ferguson Hall, Room 112 (432-837-8203). You are responsible for presenting to the instructor any accommodation letter(s) and instructions.
