Text: Because of differences in students' prior musical experience and student goals the student should consult with the instructor before purchasing textbooks.

Sagreras, Julio, First Lessons for Guitar, Vol. 1. (Beginning classical guitar)

Bay, Mel, Guitar Class Method, Vol. 1 (Beginning guitar)

The instructor also uses many handouts of his own composition.

Supplies: The student is expected to keep his assignments and handouts in order in a 3-ring binder or some type of folder or notebook.

MUSIC STANDARDS: For those students who study guitar and are pursuing a teaching certification program, this course addresses the following Music Standards (as issued by the SBEC):

Standard I- The teacher sings and plays a musical instrument.

Standard II- The music teacher has a comprehensive knowledge of music notation.

Course Description: This course offers instruction in a variety of music styles from simple folk strumming to jazz, blues, rock and classical. Lesson times are arranged by the student with the instructor's consent during registration or by the deadline for course drop/add. There are two options available for the length of each lesson:

MUS 1111 is one 30-minute lesson per week.

MUS 1211 is one 1-hour lesson per week.

Lesson times are arranged individually between the student and the instructor with the instructor's approval. It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor to arrange a lesson.

Music majors and minors who have guitar as their main instrument should enroll in MUS 1211. It is also open to those who can change chords and/or play melodies quickly, confidently and in rhythm. The university has a limited number of guitars available for rent. Ask the instructor for details.

THE STUDENT RECITAL IS A SIGNIFICANT FACTOR IN THE FINAL GRADE FOR MUSIC MAJORS.

Dress and Etiquette: Students who perform in recitals, juries or concerts are required to dress in nice clothes and to behave in a way that is appropriate to concert- hall etiquette. The music faculty will inform students regarding proper dress and etiquette.

Attendance: Since the individual instruction classes meet only once per week, the policy adopted for attendance must be different than the one stated in the university catalog. Beginning with 3 unexcused absences the final grade is lowered one letter grade and is lowered another letter grade for each absence after that. This means that with 6 unexcused absences the student will be dropped from the class with an automatic "F". Excused absences include university- sponsored activities in which the student participates. It is the student's responsibility to inform the instructor of the reasons for absences.

Tardiness: Students who arrive after the instructor has taken roll will be considered tardy. Students who are habitually tardy may, at the instructor's discretion, be asked to explain/ perform the previous class assignment.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: Academic dishonesty hurts everyone and reduces the value of college degrees. Doing someone else's work, presenting the ideas and work of others as your own, submitting the same paper for multiple classes, and/or failing to cite your sources when you utilize the ideas of others, are all examples of academic dishonesty. It is your responsibility to read and understand the university's policy on academic dishonesty in the SRSU Student Handbook, as all violations will be taken seriously and handled through the appropriate university process. The Student Handbook can be found at: <https://www.sulross.edu/page/2454/student-handbook> (page 80).
