MARKETABLE SKILLS

- Students will communicate effectively and exhibit competence for speaking, writing, reading and listening in Spanish.
- Students will use analytical skills for gathering and analyzing information in order to weigh values and assess needs.
- Students will appreciate cultural differences and understand cross-cultural communication.

Program Learning Objectives: The student graduating with a degree in Spanish will:

PLO 1: demonstrate advanced level proficiency in reading Spanish.

PLO 2 - demonstrate advanced level of proficiency in writing Spanish

PLO 3 - demonstrate advanced level of proficiency in speaking Spanish

PLO 4: demonstrate awareness and understanding of the cultural characteristics of the Spanish-speaking world.

Assessment: The expected learning outcome for this course will be assessed through a series of assessment tools. In order for the student to demonstrate awareness and knowledge of distinctive cultures and subcultures, including but not limited to ethnicity, gender, class, political systems, religions, languages, or human geography. The student's success will be evaluated according to the following plan:

- 1. Participation and Homework assignments (15 %) Active and voluntary participation
In order to participate, you must read all the assigned materials for the day. In order to participate actively in class discussions, prepare the exercises or questions after each reading. Your participation and attendance each day will be rewarded with a maximum of 10 points. [SLOs 1-6]
- 2. Short Reflections on readings (20 %) There will be four (4) short essays or reflections about topics (300-500 words typed and double-space). These reflections will help you to interpret the texts within its cultural and literary context. The goal of these exercises is to develop your critical abilities to analyze these texts and to put your ideas in writing. You will have the opportunity to express your ideas without being intimidated, but you must present evidence from the text. The reflections will be evaluated for 1) the quality of the analysis of the text, 2) the organization, and 3) the quality of the language and grammar with which you write these short assignments. [SLOs 1-6]
- 3. Reading quizzes (15%) The reading quizzes to verify that the students are doing the assigned readings. [SLOs 1-6]
- 4. Oral presentation (10%) Each student will also present to the class oral presentations in a special topics. The presentation will be a summary of the research project of approximately 5 to 8 minute duration. [SLOs 1-6]
- 5. Exams (30%) [SLOs 1-6] The exams will test the comprehension of the stylistic and formal aspects of the assigned readings. They will include questions about the characteristics of the literary movements, identification of characters, places, symbols, fragments of texts and short essays. SLOs 1-6]
- 6. Final Academic Essay- Research paper from 3-5 pages (10%): You will complete a final project in this course. This project should further your learning and will correspond with the topics/themes covered in the course combined with your personal research interest. [SLO 1-6]

 Please do not hesitate to send me an e-mail during the semester about questions you may have regarding the material or any other relevant information. I will be very happy to provide you with whatever assistance you may need.

Material from the missed exam will appear on the next exam. In case the final exam is missed, the instructor will consider whether a grade of incomplete is merited and if so, the exam will be made up at a future date to be decided by the instructor and the students.

Academic Honesty

Academic integrity is taking responsibility for one's own work, being individually accountable, and demonstrating intellectual honesty and ethical behavior. Ethical behavior and independent thought are essential for the highest level of academic achievement. It is the aim of the faculty of Sul Ross State University – Rio Grande College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of students to present as their own any work that they have not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a serious offense and renders the offenders liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

“Scholastic dishonesty” includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, falsifying academic records, misrepresenting facts, and any act designed to give unfair academic advantage to the student (such as, but not limited to, submission of essentially the same written assignment for two courses without the prior permission of the instructor) or the attempt to commit such an act.

Civility in the classroom

Students are expected to assist in maintaining a classroom environment that is conducive to learning. Help maintain a positive learning environment by arriving on time, turning off cellular phones and all other electronic devices before arriving in class, (this includes not checking for text messages during class), and avoiding distracting behaviors, such as talking with others, speaking out of turn, using offensive or insulting language, eating, sleeping, completing homework, reading the newspaper, etc..

Any student whose behavior disturbs our learning environment will lose participation points and may be asked to leave the classroom.

Disability Services Procedures

Sul Ross State University Rio Grande College, a Member of the Texas State University System, supports equal employment and educational opportunities for all persons. No person shall be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any program or activity sponsored by Sul Ross State University Rio Grande College on any basis prohibited by applicable law, including but not limited to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age or disability.

The university is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The Disability Services Coordinator assists students with disabilities in gaining opportunities for full participation in programs, services and activities. The Disability Services Coordinator is the Director of Student Services 830-758-5006 in Eagle Pass, Texas.

Services available to all SRSU RGC students include consultation, information and referral as well as personal counseling and academic advising. A student is eligible for disability services if s/he has been admitted to Sul Ross State University Rio Grande College and has a documented physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities. Qualified students with disabilities who need academic adjustments, auxiliary aids or services or other accommodations to ensure equal access must register with Disability Services. It is the student's responsibility to bring disability documentation with them to an appointment with the Disability Services Coordinator to discuss their individual needs at this time. Each request is considered on an individualized, case-by-case basis. As considerable time may be involved in obtaining complete and adequate documentation and arranging for qualified service providers, prospective and current students should request services in a timely manner. These services should be requested well in advance of the anticipated need.

Recent disability documentation from appropriate qualified professionals must be provided by the student to establish current functional limitations and the impact of the disability. Any recommendations for specific accommodations may be helpful in making determinations and these will be considered as part of the documentation review process. Documentation of disability status and other related information is handled in a confidential manner and is maintained in files separate from a student's educational record.

In compliance with applicable laws, unless Sul Ross State University Rio Grande College can demonstrate that an academic requirement is an essential component of a degree or program, the University will make reasonable adjustments to requirements to ensure that the requirements do not discriminate against qualified students with disabilities. A student with a disability may request a course substitution or a modification of a degree or program requirement through the following process.
