Distance Education Statement: Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university's academic support services, such as Smarthinking, library resources, online databases, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Students should correspond using Sul Ross email accounts and submit online assignments through Blackboard, which requires secure login information to verify students' identities and to protect students' information. The procedures for filing a student complaint are included in the student handbook. Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software, according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website.

Course Policies:

1. Attendance and Course preparation:

Class attendance is governed by the SRSU policy stated in the schedule of classes. Students will be dropped with an “F” when you have accumulated six (6) or more absences OR the equivalent in a web-based course. Class attendance in this course includes logging onto Black Board during the first week of class, monitoring your SRSU email and Black Board announcements on a daily basis, taking exams, posting, and completing other assignments on time, as well as communicating in a timely and clear manner with the professor regarding challenges experienced related to the course.

2. Late Work and Make-Up Assignments:

If you cannot participate in this web-based class due to an emergency, excused-absence, or university authorized absence, inform the professor as soon as possible via email of the situation. Late or make-up assignments and exams will only be accepted in the case of an emergency or excused absence with appropriate documentation (doctor’s note, etc.)

Student absent for a university-authorized activity (such as a game, tournament, or event) will be allowed to make up the missed exam and/or complete the assignment scheduled for that day. However, it is the Student’s responsibility to make these arrangements for make-up exams/assignments with the professor BEFORE the absence via email request. This DOES NOT INCLUDE absences related to paid (SRSU or otherwise) employment.

4. If You Get/Are Sick:

Student health services (<https://www.sulross.edu/page/343/student-health-services>) is staffed by a registered nurse located in University Center Suite 211 from 8 am- 5 pm Monday through Friday. Minor treatments, over-the-counter medication and basic first-aid supplies are available at no cost to Students. SRSU has a Student medical agreement with Preventive Care Health Services (PCHS) to provide limited outpatient care, see covered services. The clinic is located opposite Alpine High School across State highway 118 North with parking off Anson Avenue from 8 am to 5 pm Monday through Friday and the 2nd Saturday of each month from 9 am to 3 pm. To schedule an appointment, call (432) 837-4555. Your current Student ID card will be requested at check-in.

5. Students with Special Needs:

Sul Ross State University (SRSU) is committed to equal access in compliance with Americans with Disabilities Act of 1973. It is SRSU policy to provide reasonable accommodations to students with documented disabilities and it is the Student’s responsibility to initiate the request. Students should contact the instructor as soon as possible to initiate the recommended accommodations.

ADA Statement: Sul Ross State University is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1973. Students with qualifying disabilities who seek accommodations must initiate a request for a meeting for accessibility services. Students seeking accessibility services must contact Rebecca Greathouse Wren, M.Ed., LPC-S, Counseling & Accessibility Services, Telephone: 432-837-8203, or Email: rebecca.wren@sulross.edu.

For more information see: <https://www.sulross.edu/page/1384/accessibility-services>

6. Library Resources (<https://library.sulross.edu/library-instruction/>)

The Sul Ross Library offers FREE resources and services to the entire SRSU community. Access and borrow books, articles, and more by visiting the library’s website, library.sulross.edu. Off-campus access requires logging in with your LoboID and password. Librarians are a tremendous resource for your coursework and can be reached in person, by email (srsulibrary@sulross.edu), or phone (432-837-8123).

7. Religious Observance:

Any student absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day will be allowed to take make-up the exam/assignment scheduled for that day. Arrangements for missing class due to a religious observance must be made with the professor vial email BEFORE that absence.

8. Course Behaviors - Respect and Disruptions:

Watch the VIDEO on NETIQUETTE on Black Board. You are encouraged and expected to openly engage in discussions, ask questions, share ideas, and express your thoughts in this web-based course in the same manner as in a face-to-face course. Please treat each other with dignity and respect and avoid disruptive behaviors. You are responsible for knowing what behaviors are acceptable versus unacceptable as referred to in the Student Conduct and Discipline section of the SRSU Student Handbook

(http://www.sulross.edu/sites/default/files//sites/default/files/users/docs/stulife/student_conduct_discipline.pdf).

9. Academic Integrity:

Any instance of academic misconduct such as turning in an identical written assignment for another course without approval, cheating and plagiarizing written assignments, collusion, or misrepresenting facts will be punished to the full extent of the university's disciplinary policy and/or through legal action if indicated. You are responsible for reading the statement on Academic Honesty in the SRSU Student Handbook

(http://www.sulross.edu/sites/default/files//sites/default/files/users/docs/stulife/student_conduct_discipline.pdf). The faculty considers academic dishonesty to be a serious matter and will act accordingly. Students caught engaging in any form of academic dishonesty will receive no credit for assignments/exams and more severe penalties may be pursued, including but not limited to failing the course.

10. Communicating with the Professor:

The best way to contact me is through email at bmg15th@sulross.edu. I strive to respond as soon as possible. If you do not receive a reply within 24 to 48 hours, please resend your email or call/text my cell at 432.386.3223; you must leave your name, course and section for a return response, unknown numbers are not answered. During weekends, holidays, and breaks there may be a longer delay in a response until the next regular work day.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Regular and active Black Board Participation (BP = 100 points). Your individual activity on black board will be monitored via logs maintained by Black Board. It is your responsibility to check your email daily and for any announcements related to this course. (This is a subjective judgment on my part regarding the quality of your participation, taking exams when scheduled, submitting assignments on time, and posting as required by due dates).
2. Fifteen (15) Exams each worth 100 points. (EXM = 100 points). Drop the lowest exam grade.
3. Power Point Presentation (PPP = 300 points). A summary of your experience in this course, what you learned, how you may have changed, future aspirations, etc. Does not need to be in any specific writing format. 😊 Your work will be graded on organization, grammar, spelling, and quality of effort. Paper must be 2-3 pages double-spaced.

GRADE SCALE:

90–100 = A; 80–89 = B; 70–79 = C; 60–69 = D; 0–59 = F

MUST READ: During the course of this class, Students may have strong emotional/psychological reactions to the course material and/or discussions. If at Student feels they are having difficulty with the learning environment, please discuss this with the professor immediately before continuing the course. Counseling and Accessibility Services (<https://www.sulross.edu/sites/default/files//sites/default/files/users/docs/counseling/letter.pdf>) can provide brief, short-term individual and group counseling or refer you to off-campus providers. You have already paid for these services through your Student Service Fee, whether you use them or not.

If you have any issue or concern, I would appreciate you speaking with me first. If you feel we cannot come to a reasonable resolution, know that you can speak with the BASS Department Chair, Dr. Mark Saka (432.837.8157) regarding your concerns.

I endeavor to maintain a safe as possible learning environment for all and expect the highest standard of conduct from each one of us and the collective. I welcome constructive feedback in the service of this goal.

This syllabus is accurate to the best of my ability, but I reserve the right to modify it at any time and will inform you as soon as possible when I do. If I do make any changes, I aspire to do so for the reasons of Student fairness and/or circumstances beyond my control.

POWER POINT PRESENTATION INSTRUCTIONS:

There will be one required Power Point Presentation for the semester. It should be original and thoughtful. Your power point will be run your paper through PLAGERISM SOFTWARE upon submission to ensure originality. The presentation must be written in APA format. The following must be included in your paper:

- 1) Give a brief summary of the personality theory of your choice.
 - a) The change process, how humans change or lack thereof.
 - b) How it explains psychopathology (distress/suffering/disease)
 - c) Individual development (birth to death).
 - d) The fate/hope of the human condition.
- 3) Use the personality theory you chose to analyze the individual; this is what is called a Case Presentation.
- 4) Rubric for Case Presentation to be posted on Black Board.
- 5) Presentation should include sufficient content to complete a 15 to 20 minute presentation to class.

Your Case Study Power Point should have at least six (6) references other than the text. Use original (first) sources whenever possible. Use the APA reference manual for format guidelines. Go to library or SRSU Writing Center for help or use the internet resources provided on Black Board for this course. Please ask for help early on so that you do not get overwhelmed. I am happy to review a draft of your power point and give you feedback before the due date; this is voluntary and always results in a better final power point.
