Blackboard and Online Access

This class is taught online. Students will need an active Sul Ross account to access the course website through Blackboard. This site will have announcements, calendar, and learning modules, among other things. Students will need a computer, webcam, and microphone for the individualized study in this course.

Learning Environment & Grading Policy

Successful completion of an online course requires dedication and constant effort. Do not fall behind in your work! Begin your assignments as soon as possible and get at least one module ahead. This will help you avoid the penalty for late work because there are always unforeseen events that arise. Submit professional quality work. Have someone proofread your submittals and always use the grammar and spell check functions on your computer before submission.

If you are not sure what plagiarism is, please read APA pp. 15-16 and 170, or ask during office hours. But remember, the ultimate responsibility is your own. When in doubt, err on the side of caution.

You are expected to login to the Bb site several times each week. The University policy for attendance in web-delivered courses states that non participation (not logging in) for more than 3 weeks in a long session, or for 1 week during a summer session, or 3 days for a midwinter session, may result in the student being dropped from the course by the professor.

Grading Policy:

1. No late assignment will be accepted after its due date without prior instructor consent.
2. Late assignments will lose 20% of possible points for each day it is late.
3. All citations should be formatted using the American Psychological Association (APA) manual. Papers with APA citation errors will receive a reduction in points or no credit.
4. Extra credit points are not available.
5. There are no I's (incompletes) for this class.
6. After 11:45 pm on the date for any assignment due is considered late and will result in a lowered grade for that assignment.
7. There are no optional assignments in this course. All assignments must be completed in order to pass this class. Even if an assignment is so late that it will receive a "0", the student must turn in the assignment in order to pass the course (regardless of number of points accrued in the course.)
8. Students who fail to participate in Discussion Board or complete any assignment may not pass this course.
