Text: Animal Behavior. 11th Edition or earlier. Dustin Rubenstein & John Alcock.

Course Description: Animal Behavior is a course that ties together many different aspects of science, including genetics, neurology, communication, and reproductive biology. The goal of this course is to develop an understanding of animal behavior from an evolutionary approach, in such a way that we better understand why one behaves in one way and not another.

Student Learning Outcomes for Graduates in the Program

The biology student graduating with a MS in Biology should be able to:

- 1) Understanding and implementation of scientific methodology.
- 2) Utilization of field techniques toward addressing scientific questions.
- 3) Be able to utilize statistics toward the analysis of data within the discipline.
- 4) Be able to effectively disseminate scientific findings using both written and oral communication.

Student Learning Objectives for this Course:

- 1) Students will define the genetic and environmental basis of animal behavior.
- 2) Students will illustrate knowledge of the interaction between genetic and environmental components.
- 3) Students will demonstrate an understanding of the utilization of various forms of communication.
- 4) Students will demonstrate an understanding of the mechanics of reproductive behavior.
- 5) Students will apply gaming theory to social behavior.

Marketable Skills:

1. Students will be able to organize, analyze, and interpret data.
2. Students will be proficient at using presentation software.
3. Students will acquire experience in managing time and meeting deadlines.
4. Students will gain the ability to speak effectively and write concisely about scientific topics.
5. Students will acquire experience and guidance in the development of professional email correspondence.

Tests: There will be four exams over the course of the term, including a non-comprehensive final exam. Each exam will cover approximately one quarter of the course material as outlined below. The exact timing of these exams will be flexible in keeping with the progress of the lectures. However, in the spirit of fairness, students will be given at least 1 week notice prior to the date of each exam. Exams shall consist of multiple choice/short answer/short essay during a timed test window. In addition, graduate students will be required to complete a set of several take-home questions as secondary exams for each in-class exam, which will have a week to complete.

Grading: Your grade will be assigned based on the percentage of points you get out of total possible. Each exam will account for between 200 and 250 points.

Attendance: Students missing 20% of lectures (6 lectures) may be dropped from the class per the SRSU catalog. Any student dropped for excessive absences will receive an F for the course grade. Please notify your instructor BEFORE missing class for authorized activities, death in the family, or illness. Exams missed for any reason must be made up within one week of the originally scheduled date. REGARDLESS OF WHY AN ABSENCE OCCURS, YOU MAY BE GIVEN AN F FOR THE COURSE GRADE IF YOU ACCUMULATE SIX ABSENCES.

Lecture courtesy: The general rules of classroom etiquette are below.

- 1) Please do not troll others in class. Discussion posts must be professional.
- 2) Log into Blackboard and check class progress every week. Don't wait until the end of the term to try to complete the entire class.
- 3) As with all classes, cheating and plagiarizing will not be tolerated..

Still we will not be silenced by the difficulty of fruitfully discussing politically sensitive issues.
