Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software, according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website. Directions for filing a student complaint are located in the student handbook.

Academic Integrity: Students in this class are expected to demonstrate scholarly behavior and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. A scholar is expected to be punctual, prepared, and focused; meaningful and pertinent participation is appreciated. Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to: Turning in work as original that was used in whole or part for another course and/or professor; turning in another person's work as one's own; copying from professional works or internet sites without citation; collaborating on a course assignment, examination, or quiz when collaboration is forbidden.

Classroom Climate of Respect: Importantly, this class will foster free expression, critical investigation, and the open discussion of ideas. This means that all of us must help create and sustain an atmosphere of tolerance, civility, and respect for the viewpoints of others. Similarly, we must all learn how to probe, oppose and disagree without resorting to tactics of intimidation, harassment, or personal attack. No one is entitled to harass, belittle, or discriminate against another on the basis of race, religion, ethnicity, age, gender, national origin, or sexual preference. Still we will not be silenced by the difficulty of fruitfully discussing politically sensitive issues.

Diversity Statement: "I aim to create a learning environment for my students that support a diversity of thoughts, perspectives and experiences, and honor your identities (including race, gender, class, sexuality, religion, ability, socioeconomic class, age, nationality, etc.). I also understand that the crisis of COVID, economic disparity, and health concerns, or even unexpected life events, could impact the conditions necessary for you to succeed. My commitment is to be there for you and help you meet the learning objectives of this course. I do this to demonstrate my commitment to you and to the mission of Sul Ross State University to create an inclusive environment and care for the whole student as part of the Sul Ross Family. If you feel like your performance in the class is being impacted by your experiences outside of class, please don't hesitate to email me. I want to be a resource for you and help you be successful in your educational pursuits!"

Reflection Paper Writing Assignment Guidelines

A reflection paper is a personal reflection and reaction to the specific issues covered in the chapter readings. Provide an analysis of these readings as well as your own personal thoughts/insights related to the issues. These opinions can be based on personal knowledge, training, or experience. You must incorporate related information from cited scholarly journal or referenced articles in your Reflection Paper, in addition to the course text.

Your essay must be a minimum of two pages of content, and it should be formatted in APA style. It should include a title page, internal citations, and a reference page per APA format. At least two scholarly sources should be used (our textbook can be one of the two sources required; the other must be academic in nature – no WIKIPEDIA, ENCYCLOPEDIA, or any –PEDIA). Paper should be typed, double spaced, using 11-12 Times New Roman Font.

Research Paper Overview and Literature Review

The research paper for this class can cover any of the issues/subjects covered in chapters 3 through 7 in the textbook and its impact on police accountability.

For this assignment, you will submit part I of your research paper ONLY. This will include an overview of your selected topic and review of sources. Offer an overview of your topic, along with an evaluation of four (4) scholarly sources as the literature review, to include a description of the source, main points, and its importance to your paper. Each source evaluation should be offered in its own paragraph. Also, only use academic sources; refrain from sources such as Wikipedia, Encyclopedia, etc...

This overview/Literature review should be at least two (2) pages in length, not counting title and reference page. Include headings of Overview and Literature Review. Your paper must be in correct APA format, include a title page, reference page, and internal citations. Paper should be typed, double spaced, using 11-12 Times New Roman Font.

Final Research Paper

For the final paper, include the information from the overview and literature review.

Add the following information: discussion of the issue/ topic (this can include definitions, background, and case laws), examples, current status and research into this problem, relevance/impact of topic to police accountability, and your opinions. Paper MUST INCLUDE Headings as follows: overview; literature review; history/background; examples; status and/or research; impact to police accountability; recommendations/opinions – depending on the topic.

Remember that no more than 10-15% percent of a paper should be direct citations. You may not re-use a paper that you have previously submitted in another course. Also, only use academic sources; refrain from sources such as Wikipedia, Encyclopedia, etc...

The paper should be APA format, to include a title page, internal citations, and reference page. Total content of the paper should be at least 6-7 pages, to include the overview and literature review, but not to include the title or reference page. At least two (2) additional sources should be included in addition to the original four from the literature review, for a total of at least six sources for the entire paper. The paper should be typed, double-spaced, 11-12 Times New Roman Font.

(1) Reflection Paper - Reflect on the issues discussed in Part I of the textbook which covers chapters 1 and 2. Provide an analysis of these readings as well as your own personal thoughts/insights related to the issues. These opinions can be based on personal knowledge, training, or experience. Please adhere to the guidelines for reflection papers. (Your essay must be a minimum of two pages of content, and it should be formatted in APA style. It should include a title page, internal citations, and a reference page per APA format. At least two scholarly sources should be used.)

(2) Reflection Paper - Reflect on the issues discussed in Part II of the textbook which covers chapters 3 – 7. Select any TWO of these chapters and provide an analysis of these readings as well as your own personal thoughts/insights related to the issues. These opinions can be based on personal knowledge, training, or experience. Please adhere to the guidelines for reflection papers. (Your essay must be a minimum of two pages of content, and it should be formatted in APA style. It should include a title page, internal citations, and a reference page per APA format. At least two scholarly sources should be used.)

(3) Reflection Paper - Reflect on the issues discussed in Part III of the textbook which covers chapters 8 and 9. Provide an analysis of these readings as well as your own personal thoughts/insights related to the issues. These opinions can be based on personal knowledge, training, or experience. Please adhere to the guidelines for reflection papers. (Your essay must be a minimum of two pages of content, and it should be formatted in APA style. It should include a title page, internal citations, and a reference page per APA format. At least two scholarly sources should be used.)

(4) Reflection Paper - Reflect on the issues discussed in Part IV of the textbook which covers chapter 10. Provide an analysis of these readings as well as your own personal thoughts/insights related to the issues. These opinions can be based on personal knowledge, training, or experience. Please adhere to the guidelines for reflection papers. (Your essay must be a minimum of two pages of content, and it should be formatted in APA style. It should include a title page, internal citations, and a reference page per APA format. At least two scholarly sources should be used.)

(5) Article Review

Locate a recent article (3 years) regarding an example of current changes in police use of force – this can be general or specific. As you review the article, think of the implications of such change, how the change will be communicated to the police personnel, and how transparency can be achieved with the public.

(This CANNOT be a Wikipedia, encyclopedia, murderpedia source.)

Read, review, and summarize this article. Address the following questions:

1. Summarize the main points of the article.
2. What is the specific goal of the article?
3. What problem does this article address, as well as the change/solution offered?
4. Per the changes offered, in your opinion, as a police administrator, how would you communicate this change to your personnel and the public?
4. What problems, if any, with the article can you identify?

This paper should be at least two pages in length (does not include references), maximum 12- point font, 1-inch margins, include your name, and utilize proper 7th edition APA citation format. You only need to cite the article internally and on the reference page.

(6) Social Media Video Review

Locate a recent (last 3 years) video (YouTube, police/agency web sites) providing information on a program/programs offered to police to help them cope with critical incidents they may experience on the job. Watch the video and address the following questions:

1. What agency and program did you view?
2. What was the goal/mission of this program?
3. What are the requirements/guidelines of the program? Who and how are services offered?
4. Do you feel this program would work in your local police agency? Why or why not?
5. Do you feel this program is effective in helping officers cope with their exposures to critical incidents? Explain your thoughts.

This assignment should be NO LESS than TWO FULL pages of content and contain ONE source. Include citations to the text, a title page, and a reference page.
