Course Description:	An overview of methods and techniques for teaching social studies, science and mathematics in Spanish to the bilingual child. Attention will be given to principles of time and treatment, instructional planning, and classroom management strategies. Fifty percent of the class may be taught in Spanish.
Prerequisites:	Proficiency in Spanish. This course is taught entirely in Spanish and it is expected that students will have a proficiency level of the language in all domains: listening, speaking, reading, & writing.
Required Texts:	Mora (2016). Spanish Language Pedagogy for Biliteracy Programs . Montezuma Publishing ISBN: 13-978-0-7742-4458-8 Free websites and resources: Real Academia Española: https://www.rae.es Wordreference: https://www.wordreference.com Texas Essential Knowledge & Skills (TEKS): https://tea.texas.gov/academics/curriculum-standards/teks/texas-essential-knowledge-and-skills

Course Goals or Overview:
The goal of this course is to equip bilingual teacher candidates with the skills to meet the linguistic and cognitive needs of emergent bilingual students in Spanish/English EC-6 bilingual classrooms. Students will prepare for the BTLPT exam. The BTLPT exam is designed to evaluate whether a test taker has the requisite knowledge and skills in Spanish that an entry-level educator in this field in Texas public schools must possess.
Learning Objectives/Outcomes: At the end of this course, the student will
1	Prepare lessons, materials, and assessments and use academic language competently in L1 and L2 to communicate effectively (orally and in writing) in Spanish
2	Prepare for the TEXES Exam BTLPT requirements.
3	Interpret meaning and evaluate oral communications in the target language.
4	Create authentic and engaging learning activities and experiences in different content areas that promote bilingual learners' development of concepts and skills in L1 and L2
5	Select and use a variety of strategies and resources, including technology, to differentiate instruction.
6	Identify instructional strategies to analyze children's' strength and needs for planning instruction.

New Educator Standards:

The content and objectives of this course are aligned with the INTASC Standards of the Department of Teacher Education, with the state of Texas ESL standards, and with the National Teachers of English for Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) standards.

Course Requirements:

- A. Every assignment in this course is important to your preparation as a bilingual educator. Attendance is required and will be reflected on your final grade. If you have an emergency and cannot attend class for a day, contact the instructor in advance, if possible. Absences could impact your final grade.
- B. Completion of all assignments is required to receive credit for the course. Assignments must be turned in on time to receive full credit.
- C. All writing for this course must be submitted in Spanish. This is to prepare you for the BTLPT writing portion.
