COURSE DESCRIPTION:

I am Dr. Jorge A. Hernandez, and this is History 4320. The textbook for this course will be The Enduring Vision: A History of the American People Volume 2: Since 1865 (9th edition) by Paul S. Boyer and others. To obtain some background information, this course will begin with a study of the politics and expansion of the United States during the last twenty-five years of the nineteenth century. Next, students will familiarize themselves with the events that occurred during the Progressive Era. Then, they will focus on the diplomatic events that engaged the United States from 1901 to 1920, including World War I. Afterwards, they will examine the dramatic changes that transpired during the "Roaring twenties" and the Great Depression, a historical period that incorporates the New Deal. Next, students will concentrate on the diplomacy of the United States during the 1930s and World War II. They will then follow with a study of the Cold War, and the social changes that occurred in the nation while the intense confrontation with the Soviet Union raged across the world. Students will then turn their attention to the Vietnam War, the Civil Rights movement, and the social changes that convulsed the United States during the 1960s and 1970s. This course will finally end with an analysis of the conservative revival that commenced with Ronald Reagan, the end of the Cold War, and the events of the early twenty-first century.

As far as assessments, students will complete six exams that will count for 85.71% of the final grade and five study guides that will count for 14.29% of the final grade.

TEXTBOOK AND EXAMS:

The textbook needed for this course is The Enduring Vision: A History of the American People volume 2: since 1865 (9th edition) by Paul S. Boyer and others (ISBN-13: 978-1-337-26985-8). All examinations will be based upon this textbook. THEREFORE, STUDENTS MUST CAREFULLY STUDY THE TEXTBOOK TO ENABLE THEM TO PASS THE EXAMINATIONS.

Students will prove their mastery of the material learned in the textbook by taking six major exams. These exams will be made up of multiple choice questions and the student will have sixty minutes to answer them. The points earned in those exams will amount to six-hundred by the end of the semester. In addition, students will also complete four study guides provided by the professor (discussed below) that will count for an additional one hundred points. The letter grade received by the student will correspond to the percentage of points earned during the semester. A student, for example, who ends with 620 points at the end of the semester will have about an 89% average, and thus will receive a grade of B. The exam dates and completed study guides dates are shown below.

STUDENTS WILL BE ALLOWED TO TAKE EACH EXAM TWICE AND BLACKBOARD WILL RECORD THE HIGHEST OF THE TWO GRADES.

Students will also be required to complete study guides provided by professor. The terms, names, and concepts included in those study guides must be answered to the fullest extent possible from the information in the textbook. The completed study guides should have a minimum of six single-spaced pages in order to receive some credit for their completion. The completed study guides must be turned in via regular email. Please refer to the date schedule below for due dates on completed study guides and exam dates.
