Course Description

This course provides students the opportunity to apply the techniques of educational research that promote data-driven decision-making on their campuses by completing a statistically-sound, data-driven educational research project on an identified need of their school campus related to student achievement. Students who successfully complete this course will be prepared to submit their Performance Assessment for School Leaders (PASL) tasks for principal certification in Texas, as well as defend their Portfolio for program completion.

Performance Standards, Goals, and Learning Objectives

Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs):

1. Students will interpret and evaluate research to become successful readers and consumers of research.
2. Students should be able to determine and operationally define the basic aspects of the research process including collecting data, analyzing data, reviewing literature, developing an action plan, writing an action research report and sharing and reflecting.
3. Students will write a data analysis report and problem statements based on campus data. At the end of this process, students will select one of the identified problems relating to instructional leadership to improve in their ensuing projects.
4. Students will demonstrate proficiency using APA format.
5. Students will complete a Research Action Plan.

ED 5333 will address the following Marketable Skills:

- Students will be able to manage and lead diverse groups of people.
- Students will be able to communicate professionally through diverse written and in-person formats, including e-mail, memos, facilitating meetings, etc. to an array of audiences, including internal and external stakeholders.
- Student will be able to gather information and analyze data to define campus needs, set goals, to solve a diverse set of problems.
- Students will be able to exercise administrative leadership to ensure resource management, policy implementation, and coordination of organizational operations in an ethical manner.

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs)(TEXES Standards & TEXES Domains/Competencies:

Blackboard and Online Access

This class is taught online. Students will need an active Sul Ross account to access the course website through Blackboard. This site will have announcements, calendar, and learning modules, among other things. Students will meet for class via Blackboard Collaborate (Virtual Classroom). Students must have a microphone and camera.

Learning Environment & Grading Policy

Successful completion of an online course requires dedication and constant effort. Do not fall behind in your work! Begin your assignments as soon as possible and plan for unexpected delays. This will help you avoid the penalty for late work because there are always unforeseen events that arise. Submit professional quality work. Have someone proofread your submittals and always use the grammar and spell check functions on your computer before submission.

If you are not sure what plagiarism is, please read APA pp. 15-16 and 170, or ask during office hours. But remember, the ultimate responsibility is your own. When in doubt, err on the side of caution.

You are expected to login to the Bb site several times each week. The University policy for attendance in web-delivered courses states that nonparticipation (not logging in) for more than 3 weeks in a long session, or for 1 week during a summer session, or 3 days for a midwinter session, may result in the student being dropped from the course by the professor.

Grading Policy:

1. No late assignment will be accepted after its due date without prior instructor consent.
2. Late assignments will lose 20% of possible points for each day it is late.
3. All citations should be formatted using the American Psychological Association (APA) manual. Papers with APA citation errors will receive a reduction in points or no credit.
4. Extra credit points are not available.
5. There are no I's (incompletes) for this class.
6. After 11:45 pm on the date for any assignment due is considered late and will result in a lowered grade for that assignment.
7. There are no optional assignments in this course. All assignments must be completed in order to pass this class. Even if an assignment is so late that it will receive a "0", the student must turn in the assignment in order to pass the course (regardless of number of points accrued in the course.)

8. Students who fail to participate in Discussion Board or complete any assignment may not pass this course.
9. The Educational Leadership Program does not accept any "Cs" for credit in this program.

SRSU Disability Services:

Sul Ross State University (SRSU) is committed to equal access in compliance with Americans with Disabilities Act of 1973. It is SRSU policy to provide reasonable accommodations to students with documented disabilities. It is the student's responsibility to initiate a request each semester for each class.

Alpine students seeking accessibility/accommodations services must contact Mary Schwartze Grisham, M.Ed., LPC, SRSU's Accessibility Services Coordinator at 432-837-8203 (please leave a message and we'll get back to you as soon as we can during working hours), or email mschwartz@sulross.edu

Our office is located on the first floor of Ferguson Hall (Suite 112), and our mailing address is P.O. Box C-122, Sul Ross State University, Alpine, Texas, 79832.
