Course

Requirements:

Academic Honesty - Students in this class are expected to demonstrate scholarly behaviour and academic honesty in the use of intellectual property. A scholar is expected to be punctual, prepared, and focused; meaningful and pertinent participation is appreciated. Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to: Turning in work as original that was used in whole or part for another course and/or professor; turning in another person’s work as one’s own; copying from professional works or internet sites without citation; collaborating on a course assignment, examination, or quiz when collaboration is forbidden.

A. D. A. Statement: Sul Ross State University is committed to equal access in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. It is the students responsibility to initiate a request for accessibility services.

Students seeking accessibility services must contact:

Mary Schwartze-Grisham, M.Ed./LPC

Counseling and Accessibility Services,

Ferguson Hall 112

Mailing Address: P. O. Box C-171; Alpine, TX 79832

Phone: (432) 837-8203

E-mail: mschwartze@sulross.edu

If you have an accessibility letter from the C. A. S it is your responsibility to ensure that the instructor has received a copy of it so your specific accommodations can be met.

Appealing the Final Grade: If students wish to appeal their grade, this discussion should begin with the instructor and proceed according to university policies and procedures. For university policies on appealing a grade, please see the Student Handbook for the procedures in place.

Attendance - It is highly recommended you attend class. Per SRSU requirements attendance is taken at the beginning of each class.

Classroom Climate of Respect: Importantly, this class will foster free expression, critical investigation, and the open discussion of ideas. This means that all of us must help create and sustain an atmosphere of tolerance, civility, and respect for the viewpoints of others. Similarly, we must all learn how to probe, oppose and disagree without resorting to tactics of intimidation, harassment, or personal attack. No one is entitled to harass, belittle, or discriminate against another on the basis of race, religion, ethnicity, age, gender, national origin, or sexual preference. Still we will not be silenced by the difficulty of fruitfully discussing politically sensitive issues.

Cell Phone Policy: Turn all electronic devices to silent and put them away. Use of electronic devices during the class is strictly prohibited, and users electronic devices may be asked to leave the class. YES, THIS REFERS TO TRYING TO HIDE & USE YOUR CELL PHONE UNDER THE DESK.

Contacting the Instructor: My office telephone number and e-mail are included for emergencies. E-mail is the preferred method of communication. Please use the following format in your subject line for any e-mail communications: YOUR NAME: HIST 2301-Subject of E-mail.

Late Assignments: Assignments turned in late will lose 10% off their maximum grade each day the assignment is late. After 4 days you will receive a grade of “F”.

Make Up Exam Policy: Make up exams will only be given because of documented emergency situations such as severe/extreme medical conditions for yourself or a dependent, or in the case of a death in the immediate family. Students who have this type of problem must either contact the instructor by e-mail or phone prior to the date of the exam OR bring in a validated excuse upon their first day back in the course. Please note that make up exam will not be the same as the ones given in class.

On Writing Well: The members of the history faculty believe that it is important that students be encouraged to write well in classes other than English. To that end, each examination will contain essay questions; while major assignments such as readings summaries, concise historical notebooks, and a critical book review will be required. Points may be deducted from your grade for the overall quality of the essay, reflection or paper, including spelling and grammatical errors. (HINT: Use Spelling & Grammar Check).

Writing Tutoring: Students needing assistance with writing are urged to use the services of the Writing Lab, part of the Tutoring and Learning Centre, located in the Bryan Wildenthal Memorial Library first floor. Please note that while the writing tutors can help you with grammar, structure, formatting and citations they will not write assignments for you nor are they editors.

Student

Responsibilities:

You are responsible for attending all lectures, taking notes and completing the readings.
You are responsible for getting notes from a missed class from a classmate.
You are responsible for turning in assignments on time.
You are responsible for being in class to take quizzes and exams
You are responsible for verifying your enrollment in or withdrawal from the course. If you quit the class, but your name still appears on the Banner grade sheet at the end of the semester you will receive an “F” for the course.

Instructor

Responsibilities:

Mr. Marsh will know the course content; explain relevant concepts and principles; facilitate class participation; hold office hours; treat students fairly and with respect; and create a positive learning environment.
Mr. Marsh will field any question on the course content
Mr. Marsh will return assignments in a reasonable amount of time.
Mr. Marsh will hold office hours and answer student e-mails on the course.

Course Assignments: Exams: There will be two examinations for this class, a mid-term and a final exam, based on readings, lectures and discussion boards. Exams may consist of multiple choice, true/false, short answer and essay questions at the discretion of the instructor.

Reading Syntheses & Questions: History is a discipline based around written documents. Because of this reading the text is a critical part of understanding the material and successfully completing the course. We will be reading one book, plus a series of excerpts and chapters, over the course the semester. Each week you will be assigned a portion of the book, or a specific excerpt to read. With each lesson you will write a one-to-two page synthesis based on the readings for that lesson. Second, you must also write three critical questions that you have from the readings. These must be complete sentence questions, not one-word answer questions. (See Appendix I for Complete Details)

Critical Book Review: Each student will complete a critical book review during the course of the semester over a biography or civilisational book. (See Appendix III for complete details.)

Primary Source – Short Essays:

To introduce to you to working with primary source documents, and basic historical research writing, three 1000-word short essays are required in this class. With each essay assignment you will be given a primary source document and a constructed response question that requires you to analyse and respond to the prompt in your essay. Finished essays will be uploaded to Blackboard and run through SafeAssign. (See Appendix V for further Details).

In-Class Discussions: We will be reading one book, plus a series of excerpts and chapters, over the course the semester. For ten of the assigned readings, we will have an in-class discussion over the readings and the reading questions you developed while writing your syntheses.

Attendance & Participation: You are expected to actively participate in the course. This means completing the assigned readings, assignments, asking questions and participating in discussions.

Extra Credit: Students who attend a Lobo Literati League meeting will receive 10 points of extra credit with documented proof from Dr. Stein. Other extra credit opportunities during the semester will be noted by the instructor. Maximum of 30 points extra credit.

Appendix I: Readings & Discussion Board

I: Learning Objective

The book readings are designed to introduce students to the varied civilisations of the Middle Ages, highlight the socio-political differences between the 3rd and 14th centuries., and promote critical thinking. The reading synthesis is designed to build knowledge and skills related to the study of history including but not limited to: reading comprehension, interpretation and synthesis, critical thinking, time management and writing in Standard English.

II. Directions

Each week you will an assigned reading, either from one of the required books or from an excerpt posted by the instructor. After reading the assigned pages, first, write a one-page synthesis of the topics and information found in the textbook readings. A synthesis is not designed to be exhaustive, but to give a brief overview of what is being covered. Look at what the main ideas and topics are in the chapter when beginning to outline your summary.

Second, you must also write three questions that you have from the readings. These must be complete sentence questions not one word answer questions. Questions will be discussed as part of the in-class discussions.

III. Format

Assignments need to be completed in Microsoft Word. All pages to be double-spaced and using 12pt Times New Roman or Cambria font.

- Your Name, Date, HIST 3301 and the assignment week need to be in the upper right-hand corner of the page.
- Original title for the summary on next line, centred
- Body of the synthesis
- NO QUOTES FROM THE TEXTBOOK OR READINGS IN THE SYNTHESIS

IV. Discussion Board Grade Sheet

Name:	Chapter #:
Number of Comments:	Grade:

1) Preliminary Matter

A) Loss of 2 points for excessive spelling and grammar errors (10+) _____

B) Loss of 1 point for:

- 1) Assignments without a name
- 2) Assignments in a font other than Times New Roman or Cambria.
- 3) Assignments without required title information

2) Substance of the Assignment (Total Possible Points = 20 points) _____

A) Shows evidence of reading the chapter _____ (5 pts)

B) Recognises and discusses primary themes of the reading. _____ (5 pts)

C) Recognises & discusses impact of major historical figures covered in the reading. _____ (5pts)

C) Evidence of synthesis and interpretation _____ (5pts)

3) Formatting Deductions

D) Uses quotes from textbook or reading -2 points. _____

Appendix II: Critical Book Reviews

I: Learning Objective

The critical book review is designed to build knowledge and skills related to the study of history including but not limited to: reading comprehension, historical interpretation and synthesis, factual analysis, critical thinking, time management and writing in standard English.

II. Directions

A) Each student will write a critical book review, choosing one from the list of approved biographical & civilisational books to review. Each book review will be 3-4 pages in length.

B) There is no one correct way to write a book review. However, as you read, it is suggested you look for some or all of the following topics.¹

- a) What historical subject is the author writing about and what field does the book fit into?
- b) What is the main thesis (central argument) of the book?
- c) How does the author structure the book? Is the presentation of the book clear, orderly and logical?
- d) What primary sources does the author use?
- e) Does the author appear to have done comprehensive research for the book?
- f) What supplemental features such as maps, charts, illustrations and/or bibliography does the book have? How well do they help you understand the book?
- g) How well does the author write and is the writing easily understandable?
- h) Are there any factual errors that jump out? People or events that the author has overlooked?
- i) Why did the author write the book and did it accomplish its purpose?
- j) What is your reaction to the book - was it enjoyable to read, did the author convince you of their thesis, what new information did you learn while reading the book?
- k) Would you recommend this book and to what audience?
- l) Do you have any additional comments?

C) Review must be written in your own words. [DO NOT PLAGIARIZE] Be sure to proofread the final copy prior to submitting. Reviews will be turned in through Safe Assign.

III. Format

Book reviews will need to have the following formatting:

- Two columns to a page
- Double-spaced
- 12pt Times New Roman or Cambria font.

-Footnotes are to be used to cite any outside books referenced in the review. A book review is in its essence a short essay. As such you need to have this essay arranged in a clear and logical order. How you have the review arranged is up to you, however, one option is listed below. The instructor will also post sample reviews on Blackboard for you to look at for ideas.²

- 1) Short description of the subject, scope and the purpose of the book
- 2) How does the author have the book structured
- 2) Outline the main thesis (central argument) of the book and any biases of the author
- 3) Evaluation of each chapters information and arguments
- 4) Important points brought up by the author in each chapter
- 5) Evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of the book
- 6) How well do the supplementary materials support the book
- 7) What is your overall assessment and recommendation for this book

IV. Stages of Development

21 January – Choose book for book review.

21 March – Completed book review due. Turned in thru Blackboard, checked for plagiarism via SafeAssign.

Appendix IV: Primary Source Essays

I: Learning Objective

Primary source papers are designed to build knowledge and skills related to the study of history including but not limited to: reading comprehension, historical interpretation and synthesis, factual analysis, critical thinking, time management and writing in standard English.

II. Directions

For each of the three primary source papers a short excerpt from a written source from the time-period we are studying in that lesson will be provided. Using the provided primary source excerpt, answer the provided constructed response question in a 1000 word essay. Because you are constructing an argued question, you may quote from the primary source in your essay to support a statement.

III. Format

Assignments need to be completed in Microsoft Word. Times New Roman or Cambria 12 point font only.

1. Your Name, Date, HIST 3301-W01 and the assignment week need to be in the upper right-hand corner of the page.
2. Original Title for the Primary Source Essay
3. Body of the Essay
- 4.
