ATTENDANCE: The attendance policy as outlined in the Sul Ross catalog will be followed. Excessive absences could cause a student to be dropped with an “F”. Since this is an online course, I need to see that you are engaging and completing assignments in a timely manner.

ACADEMIC HONESTY: You are expected to do your own work on any assignment and test. If a student is caught cheating, a grade of zero will be assigned to that work.

INSTRUCTOR EXPECTATIONS: You are expected to approach this class in a professional manner. Your primary goal as a student is to obtain an education and acquire certain skills to enable you to be productive and competitive in your chosen field. Do not waste your time, your classmates time, or my time by not giving 100% of your efforts.

SRSU Disability Services:

SRSU Disability Services. Sul Ross State University (SRSU) is committed to equal access in compliance with Americans with Disabilities Act of 1973. It is SRSU policy to provide reasonable accommodations to students with documented disabilities. It is the student’s responsibility to initiate a request each semester for each class. Alpine students seeking accessibility/accommodations services must contact Mary Schwartze Grisham, M.Ed., LPC, SRSU’s Accessibility Services Coordinator at 432-837-8203 (please leave a message and we’ll get back to you as soon as we can during working hours), or email mschwartz@sulross.edu

Our office is located on the first floor of Ferguson Hall (Suite 112), and our mailing address is P.O. Box C-122, Sul Ross State University, Alpine. Texas, 79832.

For Remote/Online Courses Only – SRSU Distance Education Statement

Students enrolled in distance education courses have equal access to the university’s academic support services, such as library resources, online databases, and instructional technology support. For more information about accessing these resources, visit the SRSU website. Students should correspond using Sul Ross email accounts and submit online assignments through Blackboard, which requires secure login. Students enrolled in distance education courses at Sul Ross are expected to adhere to all policies pertaining to academic honesty and appropriate student conduct, as described in the student handbook. Students in web-based courses must maintain appropriate equipment and software, according to the needs and requirements of the course, as outlined on the SRSU website. Directions for filing a student complaint are located in the student handbook.

SRSU Library Services

The Sul Ross Library offers FREE resources and services to the entire SRSU community. Access and borrow books, articles, and more by visiting the library’s website, library.sulross.edu. Off-campus access requires your LoboID and password. Check out materials using your photo ID. Librarians are a tremendous resource for your coursework and can be reached in person, by email (srsulibrary@sulross.edu), or phone (432-837-8123).

ACADEMIC GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE: Should you have a problem or concern, it is important that you follow the chain-of-command in addressing your problem. The chain-of-command, in order of who you would see first, is as follows: (1) Instructor (2) Chair (3) Dean of Professional Studies (4) Provost and Vice-President of Academic Affairs and (5) President.
